Seductive Spirits Nathanael Homewood, 2024-03-12 Pentecostalism Africa's fastest growing form of Christianity has long been preoccupied with the business of banishing demons from human bodies Among Ghanaian Pentecostals deliverance is primary among the embodied experiential gifts a loud messy and noisy experience that ends only when the possessed body falls to the ground silent and docile the evil spirits rendered powerless in the face of the holy spirit wielding prophets And nowhere is Ghanaian Pentecostal obsession with demons more pronounced than with sexual demons In this book Nathanael Homewood examines the frequent and varied experiences of spirit possession and sex with demons that constitute a vital part of Pentecostal deliverance ministries offering insight into these practices assembled from long-term ethnographic engagement with four churches in Accra the capital of Ghana Relying on the uniqueness of the Pentecostal sensorium this book unravels how spirits and sexuality intimately combine to expand the definition of the body beyond its fleshy boundaries Demons are a knowledge regime one that shapes how Pentecostals think about engage with and construct the cosmos Deliverance Pentecostals reiterate and tarry with the demonic especially sexually as a realm of invention whereby alternative ways of being sensing and having sex are dreamed practiced and performed Ultimately Homewood argues for a distinction between colonial demonization and decolonial demons charting another path to understanding being the body and sexualities

From the internationally bestselling author of The 48 Laws of Power Mastery and The 33 Strategies Of War God, Morality, and Beauty Randall B. Bush,2019-07-01 Randall B Bush analyzes the ways unacknowledged axiological assumptions e g about what is important why human beings are valuing creatures and where the capacity to value comes from prejudice the perspectives and approaches of various academic disciplines especially in the social sciences and the humanities The disciplines of ethics and aesthetics provide the most useful tools for a philosophy of value but academic overspecialization has compartmentalized and segregated these disciplines from others threatening to unravel the unity of conceptions of the moral and the beautiful in human existence Bush argues that a dialectical approach to conflicts between ethics and aesthetics can point to a broader axiological vision informed by a Trinitarian conception of reality in which the whole a coherent theory of value is more than the sum of its parts
