Signs, Mind, and Reality Sebastian Shaumyan, 2006-01-01 The book presents a new science of semiotic linguistics The goal of semiotic linguistics is to discover what characterizes language as an intermediary between the mind and reality so that language creates the picture of reality we perceive The cornerstone of semiotic linguistics is the discovery and resolution of language antinomies contradictions between two apparently reasonable principles or laws Language antinomies constitute the essence of language and hence must be studied from both linguistic and philosophical points of view The basic language antinomy which underlies all other antinomies is the antinomy between meaning and information Both generative and classical linguistic theories are unaware of the need to distinguish between meaning and information By confounding these notions they are unable to discover language antinomies and confine their research to naturalistic description of superficial language phenomena rather than the quest for the essence of language Series A

Transforming the Doctor's Office Ann Sloan Devlin, 2014-04-24 From the parking lot to the exam room doctors can improve the physical surroundings for their patients yet often they do not Given the numerous and varied duties doctors must perform it may fall to the design profession to implement changes many based on research to improve healthcare experiences From location and layout to furnishings and positive distractions this book provides evidence based information about the physical environment to help doctors and those who design medical workspaces improve the experience of health care Along with its research base a special aspect of this book is the integration of relevant historical material about the office practice of physicians at the beginning of the twentieth century Many of their design solutions are viable today In addition to improving the physical design of healthcare facilities author Ann Sloan Devlin is the granddaughter daughter and niece of physicians as well as the granddaughter and daughter of nurses She worked in a hospital during college and has visited a good many practitioners offices in medical office buildings
