Hernández, 2023-08-12 This book is a collection of meticulously gathered interviews with government officials ambassadors and executives involved in foreign investment and economic development in Cuba The interviews many for the first time with a foreign journalist are valuable from a historical perspective and as a story of development It offers an open window on Cuba into a crucial segment of the country's economy erroneously perceived by some as shuttered to the outside world This work is structured by the contextual history of Obama's opening with Cuba the bleak days of Trump the Havana Syndrome the onset of the pandemic the election of Biden and his unmet promises through to economic recovery of the island under the post pandemic normal It highlights the work of the ones who lead and invest create opportunities for themselves and others initiate change trigger sustainable development build infrastructure improve lives strengthen the economy lessen suffering and create hope They stimulate forward progress These are the visionaries with plans seeking to realize the full potential of Cuba driving a new era of sustainable development and growth By filling those gaps this work is an important supplement for any future analysis seeking to examine the country's potential The book is divided into parts government economy foreign investment industrial zones banking law and business followed by interviews with top executives from Cuba's primary sectors This open window on Cuba is a compelling fresh take that shows that Cuba is open for serious business

Double-Voicing the Canadian Short Story Laurie Kruk, 2016-05-27 Double Voicing the Canadian Short Story is the first comparative study of eight internationally and nationally acclaimed writers of short fiction Sandra Birdsell Timothy Findley Jack Hodgins Thomas King Alistair MacLeod Olive Senior Carol Shields and Guy Vanderhaeghe With the 2013 Nobel Prize for Literature going to Alice Munro the master of the contemporary short story this art form is receiving the recognition that has been its due and as this book demonstrates Canadian writers have long excelled in it From theme to choice of narrative perspective from emphasis on irony satire and parody to uncovering the multiple layers that make up contemporary Canadian English the short story provides a powerful vehicle for a distinctively Canadian double voicing The stories discussed here are compelling reflections on our most intimate roles and relationships and Kruk offers a thoughtful juxtaposition of themes of gender mothers and sons family storytelling otherness in Canada and the politics of identity to name but a few As a multi author study Double Voicing the Canadian Short Story is broad in scope and its readings are valuable to Canadian literature as a whole making the book of interest to students of Canadian literature or the short story and to readers of both Published in English Christianities in Migration Peter C. Phan, Elaine Padilla, 2016-04-29 This book migrates through continents regions nations and villages in order to tell the stories of diverse kinds of nomadic dwellers It departs from Africa en routes itself toward Asia Oceania Europe and culminates in the Americas with the territories of Latin America Canada and the United States The volume travels through worn out pathways of migration that continue to be threaded upon today and theologically reflects on a wide range of migratory aims that result also in diverse forms of indigenization of Christianity Among the main issues being considered are How have globalization and migration affected the theological self understanding of Christianity In light of globalization and migration how is the evangelizing mission of Christianity to be understood and carried out What ecclesiastical reforms if any are required to enable the church to meet present day challenges Canadian Poultry Review, 1927 Securitized Citizens Baljit Nagra, 2017-01-01 In Securitized Citizens Baljit Nagra develops a new critical analysis of the ideas dominant groups and institutions try to impose on young Canadian Muslims and how in turn they contest and reconceptualize these ideas Canada at War J.L. Granatstein, 2020-09-10 Canada at War explores the impact of the two world wars on Canada and Canadians by examining conscription foreign policy and politics with William Lyon Mackenzie King Canada's longest serving prime minister acting as the book's central figure In this collection of essays J L Granatstein brings together research from archives in Canada and abroad illuminating Canada's political transition from the British to American sphere of influence in the first half of the twentieth century Granatstein reflects on the most significant issues affecting Canadians during the wars showing how this period ushered change into the Canadian landscape and transformed Canada into the country that it is today Left Transnationalism Oleksa Drachewych, Ian McKay, 2020-01-16 In 1919 Bolshevik Russia and its followers formed the Communist International also known as the Comintern to oversee the global communist movement From the very beginning the Comintern committed itself to ending world imperialism supporting colonial liberation and promoting racial equality Coinciding with the centenary of the Comintern's founding Left Transnationalism highlights the different approaches interwar communists took in responding to these issues Bringing together leading and emerging scholars on the Communist International individual communist parties and national and colonial questions this collection moves beyond the hyperpoliticized scholarship of the Cold War era and re energizes the field Contributors focus on transnational diasporic and cultural networks comparative studies of key debates on race and anti colonialism the internationalizing impulse of the movement and the evolution of communist platforms through transnational exchange Essays further emphasize the involvement of communist and socialist parties across Canada Australia India China Japan Southeast Asia Latin America South Africa and Europe Highlighting the active discussions on nationality race and imperialism that took place in Comintern circles Left Transnationalism demonstrates that this organization as well as communism in general was especially in the years before 1935 far more heterogeneous creative and unpredictable than the rubber stamp of the Soviet Union described in conventional historiography Contributors include Michel Beaulieu Lakehead University Marc Becker Truman State University Anna Belogurova Freie Universitat Berlin Oleksa Drachewych University of Guelph Daria Dyakonova Universit de Montr al Alastair Kocho Williams Clarkson University Andr e L vesque McGill University Lars T Lih Independent Scholar Ian McKay McMaster University Sandra Pujals University of Puerto Rico John Riddell Ontario Institute of Studies in Education Evan Smith Flinders University S A Smith All Souls College Oxford Xiaofei Tu Appalachian State University and Kankan Xie Peking University The Statesman's Year-Book Mortimer Epstein, 2016-12-23 The classic reference work that provides annually updated information on the countries of the world Annual Report of the Department of Trade and Commerce for the Fiscal Years Ending March 31 Canada. Department of Trade and Commerce, 1925 Torn Sprockets Gerald Pratley, 1987 The history of Canadian filmmaking is a fascinating topic and in this book the author takes the reader through the early years of the twentieth century when Hollywood monopolized the industry Edison s Kintoscope enthralled the public and motion picture exhibitions swept across Canada Schooling and Difference in Africa George Jerry Sefa Dei, Riyadh Ahmed Shahjahan, Sharon Eblaghie Bahador, Alireza Asgharzadeh, 2006-01-01 Since the 1950s when most African countries gained political independence schooling has presented very difficult challenges In the discussion of these challenges however the issue of diversity has received relatively little attention Schooling and Difference in Africa aims to understand how differences such as ethnicity class gender language religion and disability play out in African schools systems and more specifically in Ghana Together George J Sefa Dei Alireza Asgharzadeh Sharon Eblaghie Bahador and Riyadh Ahmed Shahjahan promote educational inclusion in the context of African schooling The aspects of diversity explored in this study include minority majority relations race ethnicity gender language class religion and physical dis ability The authors build their analyses of these issues around a series of interviews which project a perspective that policy makers and administrators rarely seek out By studying the challenges of inclusive education in Ghana and further by making comparisons with the Canadian context this volume seeks to shed light on the ongoing struggle for an empowering school system in Africa and elsewhere Our Debt to the Dog Bryan D. Cummins, 2013-11-07 When Homo sapiens sapiens met Canis lupus lupus millennia ago the result was Canis lupus familiaris the domestic dog Since that fateful encounter the dog has become arguably humankind s greatest creation The domestic dog is the most widely distributed species other than ourselves in the world being found virtually wherever people live and is also the most diversified of species with literally hundreds of recognized breeds While we have shaped the dog it too has helped shape human history in innumerable ways Our Debt to the Dog is a critical historical and cross cultural examination through the use of case studies of this most improbable 15 000 year relationship and an exploration of how this relationship shaped the history of the world It is also very much an apology to the dog because over the course of the partnership horrific acts were perpetrated against it intentionally and otherwise Our Debt to the Dog enriches our understanding of the dog and extends our appreciation for the profound complexity of past and present human canine relationships and the dog s contributions to our lives and our world Ontario.
