Seeing Things Television In The Age Of Uncertainty:

Seeing Things John Ellis, Television the author argues responds to two powerful desires of our age it makes us witnesses of often traumatic events and it tries and fails to provide us with narratives that make sense of the world The author makes sense of modern television both by exploring its processes and in terms of its dynamic relationships with the cultures that provide it with raw material Television he proposes offers us multiple ways of understanding the world yet does not arbitrate between them He explores this process as one of working through whereby television news takes in the chaos and conflict of the world and subsequent programmes of all kinds offer diverse ways of unravelling its confusions from the psychobabble of talk shows to the open narratives of soaps documentaries and dramas By means of this working through problems are exhausted rather than resolved The author demonstrates how television s function in its new era is no longer that of building consensus rather it uses all the means at its disposal including sophisticated computer graphics to mediate etween conflicting approaches to our age of uncertainty Netflix and the Re-invention of Television Mareike Jenner,2023-09-09 This book deals with the ways Netflix influenced the contemporary television landscape and built the infrastructures of streaming It focusses on various ways Netflix reconceptualises television as part of the process of TV IV As television continues to undergo a myriad of changes Netflix has proven itself to be the dominant force in this development simultaneously driving a number of these changes and challenging television s existing institutional structures This comprehensive study explores the pre history of Netflix the role of binge watching in its organisation and marketing and Netflix s position as a transnational broadcaster Netflix and the Re invention of Television illuminates the importance of Netflix s role within the processes of TV IV This Second Edition highlights the role Netflix plays in the so called streaming wars and incorporates recent research in television studies It also re evaluates the companies incorporation of issues of diversity in its focus on middlebrow television The book also includes a new chapter on the transnational streaming franchise networks of texts developed internal to platforms to build infrastructures of transnational streaming Biographical Television Drama Hannah Andrews,2021-04-13 Biographical Television Drama breaks new ground as to my knowledge the first book length exploration of the terms in which television engages in biographical storytelling Backed by robust research in biography studies and British television history Hannah Andrews deftly unravels the complexities behind the accessibility of biographical television drama Her book tackles key questions head on notably rhetorics and style narrative and performance and innovatively ethics while also shedding light on the interconnections with other biographical screen forms through a rich corpus This is an essential critical study that vindicates television drama s unique place in the histories and practices of screen biography Bel n Vidal Senior Lecturer in Film Studies at King s College London and co editor of The Biopic in Contemporary Film Culture This book explores what happens when biography and television meet in a novel fusion of the two fields of study Andrews compares core concepts in biography and television studies such as intimacy the presentation of the self and the uneasy relationship between fact and fiction The book examines biographical drama's generic hybridity accounting for the influence of the film biopic docudrama melodrama and period drama It discusses biographical television drama's representation of real lives in terms of visual style performance and self reflexivity Andrews also assesses how life stories are shaped for televisual narrative formats and analyses the adaptation process for the biographical drama Finally the book considers various kinds of reputation of the broadcast institution author biographical subject in relation to the ethics of televisual biography

Locating Television Anna Cristina Pertierra, Graeme Turner, 2013 Locating Television Zones of Consumption takes an important next step for television studies and addresses the question of what is television now Docudrama on European Television Tobias Ebbrecht-Hartmann, Derek Paget, 2016-07-12 This book explores docudrama as a creative response to troubled times With generic characteristics formed via traditions in theatre as well as film and with claims to fact underscored by investigative journalism television docudrama examines key events and personalities in unfolding national histories Post Fall of the Berlin Wall docudrama has become a means for nations to work through traumatic experiences both within national borders and Europe wide In this regard it is an important genre for television networks as they attempt to make sense of complex current events These authors offer a template for further study and point towards ways in which European television cultures beyond those discussed here might be considered in the future

A new genre for television? Justin Hardy, 2025-05-27 In A New Genre for Television filmmaker Justin Hardy argues the dramatised history documentaries broadcast by British public service channels in the 2000s constituted a distinct television genre Offering a vital distinction between docudramas and drama documentaries Hardy contributes to the field of television history through exclusive interviews with key figures from BBC and Channel 4 many of whom have never been publicly interviewed before and envisions a future model for the portrayal of national histories on screen
