Spurgeon, 2018-02-16 And as they thus spoke Peace be unto you Luke 24:36 WE like to know how a person used to act for we think we can infer from that how he will act That is not always correct however for men change But in our Savior's case if we study His life we may very well infer from what He did what He will do because He never changes And this is a comfortable reflection for us at this time that in the days of His flesh while He was yet on earth He loved the company of His people If He changes not then He still loves the company of His people He did reveal Himself then to one He will still speak comfortable words to His people when they are alone One by one will He reveal Himself to them He did speak graciously to two Where Christians converse on holy things they may still expect that Jesus will Himself draw near But more frequently He lingered longest and revealed Himself most in the assembly of His people Where the eleven were met where many were gathered together there the Savior came not once but twice and often Learn then that we may expect Him here tonight Peter and James and John are representatively here Here too we have some of the goodly women the Marys and Marthas are here They are waiting for Him Their hearts are longing for Him He is the same now as always Brothers and sisters we may expect Him He will come to His old haunts He will come and deal with His people as He did before Twice at least we have it on record that our Savior came to His disciples when they were met on the first day of the week from which I gather another comfortable thought that as this is the first day of the week we may for another reason expect Him to be here to put honor on what now is the Lord's Day He at least twice for so it is on record came to His disciples and standing in their midst said Peace be unto you The Comfort Bible Dr. Paul R. Brown,2017-07-26 Don t Quit Your Church is a foundational philosophy of ministry that serves two distinct purposes First it serves as hope for struggling ministers who are suffering from perceived failure in the ministry and are strongly considering resigning their current position Secondly it offers insight to those who are at the beginning stages of discovering a biblical and unique approach to ministry The clergy of the postmodern era are in crisis The level of today s challenges have reached fever pitch and the church throughout most of the world is not able to hold her own ground When the daily news informs those of faith that the good fight is turning into a rout the church is forced to rethink her strategy This begins with the minister The stability of the minister s purpose and calling are of the utmost importance Unfortunately today s minister lives with many misconceptions about the work of the calling This has resulted in frustrated pastors consistent discouraging results souring relationships and eventually the
