Selected Essays of John Berger John Berger, 2001 Selected Essays John Berger, 2003 Spanning more than forty years of work this collection of essays gathered from the author's previous collections including Toward Reality The Look of Things and The Sense of Sight among others reflects on such topics as Jackson Pollock museums mass demonstrations ideologies philosophy and more

Selected Essays and Articles John Berger, 1972 Permanent Red John Berger, 2025-03-25 Why should an artist's way of looking at the world have any meaning for us Any artwork reflects the artist's intentions but also its times therefore all art is political In Permanent Red John Berger argues that the contemporary artist should strive for a realism that aims for hope to transform the world Surveying the work of historical artists as well as that of near contemporaries such as Picasso Leger and Matisse he explores the role of the artist dividing these figures into those that struggle those that fail and the true masters He explains why we should study the work of the past in order to understand the present and to rethink the future First published in 1960 Permanent Red established John Berger as a firebrand critic willing to broadcast controversial opinions on some of the most important British artists of the day including Henry Moore and Barbara Hepworth

The Look of Things John Berger, 1972 On John Berger, 2015-10-14 This volume offers the first collection of essays on the work of John Berger one of the most intriguing contemporary English writers Comprising pieces by an interdisciplinary group of academics On John Berger spans the full range of Berger's prolific output as art critic novelist collaborator on films and photo text books and essayist Writing polemic art criticism passing on part of the Booker Prize money to the Black Panthers and quitting the London literary scene in the 1960s in order to settle in the French Alps Berger has always been a controversial figure On John Berger explores his self-fashioning as a public figure and simultaneously examines the literary visual and collaborative strategies of his work Contributors Marta Aleksandrowicz Wojtyna John Bowen Rachel Bower Jonathan Conlin Ralf Hertel Charlotte Kent Bartosz Lutostanski David Malcolm Timothy Neat Tom Overton Pilar Sánchez Calle Joshua Sperling Monika Szuba Richard Turney Stefan Welz Mirosław Wojtyna

An Analysis of John Berger's Ways of Seeing Emmanouil Kalkanis, 2018-02-21 Ways of Seeing is a key art historical work that continues to provoke widespread debate It is comprised of seven different essays three of which are pictorial and the other containing texts and images Berger first examines the relationship between seeing and knowing discussing how our assumptions affect how we see a painting He moves on to consider the role of women in artwork particularly regarding the female nude The third essay deals with oil painting looking at the relationship between subjects and ownership Finally Berger addresses the idea of ownership in a consumerist society discussing the power of imagery in advertising with particular regards to photography

The Writer's Portable Mentor Priscilla Long, 2018-09-15 Designed to mentor writers at all levels from beginning to quite advanced The Writer's Portable Mentor offers a wealth of insight and crafting models from the author's twenty plus years of teaching and creative thought The book provides tools for structuring a book story or essay It trains writers in observation and in developing a poet's ear for sound in prose It scrutinizes the sentence strategies of the masters and offers advice on how to publish This second edition is updated to account for changes in the publishing industry and provides hundreds of new craft models to inspire guide and develop every writer's work

The Dialectics of Art John Molyneux, 2020-08-04 To the question of what is art it is often simply responded that art is whatever is produced by the artist For John Molyneux this clearly circular answer is deeply unsatisfying In a tour de force spanning renaissance Italy and the Dutch Republic to contemporary leading figures The Dialectics of Art instead approaches its subject matter as a distinct field of creative human labour that emerges alongside and in opposition to the alienation and commodification brought about by capitalism The pieces and individuals Molyneux examines from Michelangelo's Slaves to Rembrandt's Jewish Bride to the vast drip paintings of Jackson Pollock are presented as embodying the social contradictions of their times giving art an inherently political relevance In its relationship of creative and dialectical tension to prevailing social relationships and norms such art points beyond the existing order of things hinting at a potential future society not based on alienated labour in which creative production becomes the property and practice of all

Art, History, and Postwar Fiction Kevin Brazil, 2018 Art History and Postwar Fiction explores the ways in which twenty century novelists responded to visual art and how writing about art was often a means of commenting on historical developments of the period

The Cambridge

Companion to The Essay Kara Wittman,Evan Kindley,2022-11-03 The Cambridge Companion to the Essay considers the history theory and aesthetics of the essay from the moment it s named in the late sixteenth century to the present What is an essay What can the essay do or think or reveal or know that other literary forms cannot What makes a piece of writing essayistic How can essays bring about change Over the course of seventeen chapters by a diverse group of scholars The Companion reads the essay in relation to poetry fiction natural science philosophy critical theory postcolonial and decolonial thinking studies in race and gender queer theory and the history of literary criticism This book studies the essay in its written photographic cinematic and digital forms with a special emphasis on how the essay is being reshaped and reimaged in the twenty first century making it a crucial resource for scholars students and essayists Invisible Seasides Tony

Blackshaw,2025-08-01 Invisible Seasides positions the seaside as a lens for understanding lived utopia pinned in a certain place an immovable feature in a landscape where our hopes and fears continue to unfold Wide ranging in theme it brings a double perspective past and present to bear on how we understand contemporary seaside experience Presenting a magical paradox of the modern seaside this book traces the development of a cultural phenomenon from the mid 1800s to the present day In the process it modifies the accepted narrative about its rise and fall reappraising our understanding of the end of a Mass Utopia and shining new light on the diversity of post utopias that have emerged in its afterlife Fusing social theory social history and leisure studies its thesis adroitly envisions the diverse density of the seaside through a critical lens making the unfamiliar familiar and vice versa providing us with an exemplar for a different way of thinking sociologically which will be used by scholars from a range of different subject fields to encourage fresh reflection on social continuity and change

Violation: Collected Essays Sallie Tisdale,2016-04-18 Most Anticipated Too The Great 2016 Nonfiction Book Preview The Millions GROUNDBREAKING A career defining book The New Yorker Sallie Tisdale is the author of seven books on such varied subjects as medical technology her pioneer ancestors and Buddhist women teachers Her many essays have appeared in Harper s Conjunctions The New Yorker Antioch Review Threepenny Review and many other journals This first collection of work spans thirty years and includes an introduction and brief epilogues to each essay Tisdale s questing curiosity pursues subjects from the biology of flies to the experience of working in an abortion clinic why it is so difficult to play sports with men and whether it s possible for writers to tell the truth She restlessly returns to themes of the body the family and how we try to explain ourselves to each other She is unwilling to settle for easy answers and finds the ambiguity and wonder underneath ordinary events The collection includes a recent essay never before published about the mystery of how we present ourselves to each other and whether it is possible to know even our own inner lives Innovators David W. Galenson,2025-01-21 Some innovators are luminous shooting stars think Pablo Picasso Albert Einstein Sylvia Plath Bob Dylan Steve Jobs who make bold leaps early and suddenly then lose their creativity Others are late bloomers Paul Cezanne Charles Darwin Virginia Woolf Alfred Hitchcock Warren Buffett who show little early promise but spend long periods doggedly

pursing distant goals and attain greatness in old age By analyzing the careers of scores of great innovators this book reveals systematic differences in the motivations and methods of these two types and their very different patterns of creativity over the life cycle The result is a new and deeper unified understanding of the sources of human creativity     Remembering Peasants Patrick Joyce,2024-02-20 A landmark new history of the peasant experience exploring a now neglected way of life that once encompassed most of humanity but is vanishing in our time Joyce brings in stories of individuals as well as places including his own family and looks at how peasants and their ways of life have been memorialized in photographs literature and in museums     West Jim Perrin,2011-05-01 West tells the story of Jim Perrin s life against the lives and deaths of his cherished wife and son and the landscapes through which they traveled together It is a complex and sensual love story a celebration of the beauty and redemptive power of wild nature and an extraordinary account of one man s journey towards the acceptance of devastating personal loss     Tough Enough Deborah Nelson,2017-04-03 This book focuses on six brilliant women who are often seen as particularly tough minded Simone Weil Hannah Arendt Mary McCarthy Susan Sontag Diane Arbus and Joan Didion Aligned with no single tradition they escape straightforward categories Yet their work evinces an affinity of style and philosophical viewpoint that derives from a shared attitude toward suffering What Mary McCarthy called a cold eye was not merely a personal aversion to displays of emotion it was an unsentimental mode of attention that dictated both ethical positions and aesthetic approaches Tough Enough traces the careers of these women and their challenges to the pre eminence of empathy as the ethical posture from which to examine pain Their writing and art reveal an adamant belief that the hurts of the world must be treated concretely directly and realistically without recourse to either melodrama or callousness As Deborah Nelson shows this stance offers an important counter tradition to the familiar postwar poles of emotional expressivity on the one hand and cool irony on the other Ultimately in its insistence on facing reality without consolation or compensation this austere school of the unsentimental offers new ways to approach suffering in both its spectacular forms and all of its ordinariness     Reading for Life Philip Davis,2020-02-12 Reading for Life is an anthology of poems and of extracts from prose fiction related to a series of case histories of individuals carefully reading discussing their reading lives and thinking about the relation of literature to their existence It enables readers to gain increased imaginative access to the works in question through seeing how they have intensely affected equivalent readers a novelist a poet a doctor a teacher an anthologist but also non specialists ordinary people within shared reading groups in many different settings finding help from literary texts in times of often painful personal need It is the story of the work done by Philip Davis research unit the Centre for Research into Reading Literature and Society CRILS at the University of Liverpool in a ten year partnership with the outreach charity The Reader taking serious literature to often neglected communities and struggling individuals through the shared reading alive and aloud of literature from all ages Reading for Life is a detailed account of what reading literature can do for a wide variety of individuals in relation to a wide variety of texts it will be of interest to serious readers in the wider world as much as to scholars working within literary studies and to all those involved in thinking about the therapeutic interactions of literature and life in psychology medicine and mental health support settings
