S G Human Intimacy Cox,1999-08-01      Human Intimacy Frank D. Cox,1987-03      Civil Society And The State In Singapore Carol Soon,Gillian Koh,2017-01-05 Set within the context of growing political pluralism and the increasing use of new communication technologies for social mobilisation the Institute of Policy Studies organised a national conference on civil society in November 2013 This collection of the essays that were presented at or inspired by the conference provides nuanced analyses of the development of the sector in Singapore since the Institute s first such conference held in 1998 The first section of the book discusses the different philosophies and approaches that underpin how civic activists engage with the State the second section examines some key forces of change that are re shaping the sector and the third section sets out some emerging issues facing it Combining insights from experts and civic activists themselves this book proposes an agenda for the future development of the civil society in Singapore      Reimagining the More-Than-Human City Jamie Wang,2024-10-01 An exploration of the multifaceted urban environmental issues in Singapore through a more than human lens calling for new ways to think of and story cities As climate change accelerates and urbanization intensifies our need for more sustainable and livable cities has never been more urgent Yet the imaginary of a flourishing urban ecofuture is often driven by a specific version of sustainability that is tied to both high tech futurism and persistent economic growth What kinds of sustainable futures are we calling forth and at what and whose expense In Reimagining the More Than Human City Jamie Wang attempts to answer these questions by critically examining the sociocultural political ethical and affective facets of human environment dynamics in the urban nexus with a geographic focus on Singapore Widely considered a model for the future of urbanism and an emblematic new world city Singapore Wang contends is a fascinating site to explore how modernist sustainable urbanism is imagined and put into practice Drawing on field research this book explores distinct and intrarelated urban imaginaries situated in various sites from the futuristic authoritarian Supertree Grove positioned as a technologically sustainable solution to a velocity charged and singular urban transportation system to highly protected nature reserves and to the cemeteries where graves and memories continue to be exhumed and erased to make way for development Wang also attends to more contingent yet hopeful alternatives that aim to reconfigure current urban approaches In the face of growing enthusiasm for building high tech sustainable and natural cities Wang ultimately argues that urban imaginings must create space for a more relational understanding of urban environments      Imagining Heaven in the Middle Ages Jan S. Emerson,2014-04-08 Medieval attempts to capture a glimpse of heaven range from the ethereal to the mundane utilizing media as diverse as maps cathedrals songs treatises poems visions and sewer systems Heaven was at once the goal of the individual Christian life and the end of the cosmic plan It was simply stated perfection But interpretations varied from the traditional to the dangerously unique as artists and authors theologians and visionaries struggled to define that perfection Depending on the source heaven s attributes vary from height to depth darkness to light

silence to symphony the souls within it from activity to passivity experience to essence participation to distant admiration Questions addressed in this anthology include Are erotic and spiritual love mutually exclusive Does the soul's happiness depend on the resurrection of the body What will be the nature of the transfigured body Will it retain its gender Will it have senses Will it know desire How can desire and fulfillment exist together Can the human soul ever know God Contributors to this volume examine well known and previously unexplored texts and artefacts from historical and art historical theological philosophical and literary perspectives to complement and challenge more general surveys of the history of heaven and above all to illuminate the richness and variety of medieval Christian ideas on heaven

The Body Divided Dr Sarah Ferber, Ms Sally Wilde, 2013-07-28 Bodies and body parts of the dead have long been considered valuable material for use in medical science Over time and in different places they have been dissected autopsied investigated harvested for research and therapeutic purposes collected to turn into museum and other specimens and then displayed disposed of and exchanged This book examines the history of such activities from the early nineteenth century through to the present as they took place in hospitals universities workhouses asylums and museums in England Australia and elsewhere Through a series of case studies the volume reveals the changing scientific economic and emotional value of corpses and their contested place in medical science

The "Bare Life" of Thai Migrant Workmen in Singapore Pattana Kitiarsa, 2014-01-05 Transnational labor migration often begins with the dream of securing a more stable and prosperous future a chance to survive The lure of global cities as a place to attain that dream looms large within the context of rural urban migration flows This book reveals some of the complex phenomena and processes that strip bare the lives and dreams of migrant workers living abroad whose life experiences are overwhelmingly dominated by stress and suffering and diminished gendered roles The book illuminates the intimate aspects of how Thai male migrants have transcended their harsh reality while living under Singapore's strict regulations governing foreign workers Stripped bare of the powerful sociocultural economic and legal processes that govern their existence at home these men must recraft their gendered selfhoods identities and sensibilities Using personal and interpretive ethnography the book explores how popular music sports religious beliefs cultural traditions sexual desire and intimacy are refashioned by appropriating cultural and symbolic capital into new cultural experiences It also provides an extensive look at the sudden unexplained nocturnal death syndrome SUNDS among young healthy Thai construction workers in Singapore The author's in depth analyses of migrant social life and male migrant gendered identity negotiating processes provide an invaluable contribution to our understanding of labor transnationalism in the Southeast Asian context Highlights An important contribution to studies of the masculinization of migration Provides ample insight into the lived experience of migrant workers Explores an often forgotten side of labor migration that of sexual intimacy Adds a rich detailed understanding of village transnationalism

Becoming Queer and Religious in Malaysia and Singapore Sharon A. Bong, 2020-04-02 What does it mean to become religiously queer or queerly religious in one's everyday life What narratives of becoming person emerge from these lived realities Sharon A Bong addresses these questions by exploring the personal journeys of several GLBTIQ Gay Lesbian Bisexual Transgender Intersex and Queer persons negotiating the tensions between living out their sexuality and religiosity in the context of Malaysia and Singapore By sharing their stories Bong presents a broad spectrum of queer strategies emerging from participants narratives of becoming which encompass becoming Asian becoming postcolonial becoming sexually religious and religiously sexual and becoming persons These strategies are used in the book as counterpoints to nationhood narratives of becoming Asian or postcolonial which are still mired in religious sponsored and colonial inherited sexual regulations Finally Bong shows how the insistence of identifying as both queer and religious is critical in challenging the conservative social political milieu surrounding issues of gender diversity and inclusion within these south east Asian states

Singapore English David Deterding,2007-08-01 Over the past few decades Singapore English has been emerging as an independent variety of English with its own distinct style of pronunciation grammar and word usage All the findings presented in the book are illustrated with extensive examples from one hour of recorded conversational data from the Lim Siew Hwee Corpus of Informal Singapore Speech as well as some extracts from the NIE Corpus of Spoken Singapore Speech and recent blogs In addition usage patterns found in the data are summarised to provide a solid foundation for the reported occurrence of various features of the language A full transcript of the data is included in the final chapter of the book

Social Policy in Post-Industrial Singapore Kwen Fee Lian,Chee-Kiong Tong,2008-03-31 Notwithstanding the lean years that followed 1986 and 1997 sustained economic growth since the late 1970s has propelled Singapore into the post industrial age and reproduced the demographic and social structure of advanced western societies The rapid shift to a knowledge intensive economy requiring highly skilled services has resulted in a two speed society consisting of a highly competitive but rewarding sector and a marginalized population that is increasingly at risk Being avowedly anti welfarist the state for ideological reasons has resisted pressures to introduce a comprehensive welfare regime for its risk population preferring to privilege its productive citizenry Is Singapore a counter factual to the convergence thesis by preferring to put in place a social policy driven by the belief of its leaders that the more successful a society is the more it is able to care for those who fall behind

Counseling Ethics Ronald David Laing,Christin M. Jungers,H. Phillipson,A. R. Lee,2012-10-23 This book provides activity based learning regarding all the ethical standards and legal issues counselors will face It promotes in depth critical thinking and a proactive approach to ethical and moral dilemmas The book includes examples across all counseling settings and specialties and offers students multiple case examples that make ethical issues realistic and engaging

Cultural Transplantation: The Writing of Classical Chinese Poetry in Colonial Singapore (1887–1945) Lap Lam,2023-12-28 Classical style poetry in modern China and other Sinitic speaking localities is attracting greater attention with the recent upsurge in academic revision of modern Chinese literary history Using the concept of cultural transplantation this monograph attempts to illustrate the uniqueness compatibility and adaptability of classical

Chinese poetry in colonial Singapore as well as its sustained connections with literary tradition and homeland It demonstrates how the reading of classical Chinese poetry can better our understanding of Singapore's political social and cultural history deepen knowledge of the transregional relationship between China and Nanyang and fine tune redress and enrich our perception of Singapore Chinese literature Sinophone literature the Chinese diaspora and global Chinese identity

SCM Studyguide Pastoral Theology Margaret Whipp, Michael Byrne, 2013 The SCM Studyguide Pastoral Theology designed to support undergraduate courses for the training of clergy and lay pastoral workers at an accessible introductory level The book aims to develop pastoral wisdom and integrity through a critical integration of theology and the human sciences Introducing key themes in theological anthropology and pastoral practice it shapes a creative pastoral vision which is deeply rooted in a Christian vision of what it means to be human and what it takes to care Working with case studies the book will introduce broad frameworks of understanding of issues such as growth loss and sexuality together with critical perspectives on important aspects of practice such as language power and boundaries The book provides an accessible overview of key concepts in pastoral theology offering key entry points for further discussion and study Each chapter includes discussion questions and or reflective exercises at the end of each chapter together with a short bibliography Throughout the text key summaries of learning will be indicated by boxed Practice Points

Long Term Socio-Ecological Research Simronjit Singh, Helmut Haberl, Marian Chertow, Michael Mirtl, Martin Schmid, 2012-11-13 The authors in this volume make a case for LTSE's potential in providing insights knowledge and experience necessary for a sustainability transition This expertly edited selection of contributions from Europe and North America reviews the development of LTSE since its inception and assesses its current state which has evolved to recognize the value of formulating solutions to the host of ecological threats we face Through many case studies this book gives the reader a greater sense of where we are and what still needs to be done to engage in and make meaning from long term place based and cross disciplinary engagements with socio ecological systems

Transnational Divorce Sharon Ee Ling Quah, 2020-03-09 This book explores the transnational aspects of divorce experiences Transnational Divorce uncovers the stories of four main groups of transnational divorcees at the field site of Singapore including low income marriage migrant women from less wealthy countries low income citizen men middle class living apart together divorced parents and overseas based citizen divorced mothers

Employing transnational intersectional feminist perspectives the book extends the author's earlier conceptualisation of divorce biography to propose a new framework of transnational divorce biography. The transnational divorce biography framework provides readers a useful analytical tool to make sense of transnational divorced individuals' messy experiences in working out their transborder intimacy practices. Meandering through their accounts, the author weaves together a strong narrative of inequalities and privileges at the site of intimate life. The book ends with an epilogue on fire dragon feminism where the author discusses place-based feminist mission of activism and resistance. Transnational Divorce will appeal to researchers and policy makers interested in transnational relationships, family studies and sociology in general.

Security and Privacy From a Legal, Ethical, and Technical Perspective Christos Kalloniatis, Carlos Travieso-Gonzalez, 2020-09-09
Understanding and realizing the security and privacy challenges for information systems is a very critical and demanding task for both software engineers and developers to design and implement reliable and trustworthy information systems. This book provides novel contributions and research efforts related to security and privacy by shedding light on the legal, ethical and technical aspects of security and privacy. This book consists of 12 chapters divided in three groups. The first contains works that discuss the ethical and legal aspects of security and privacy, the second contains works that focus more on the technical aspects of security and privacy, and the third contains works that show the applicability of various solutions in the aforementioned fields. This book is perfect for both experienced readers and young researchers that wish to read about the various aspects of security and privacy.

Writing in the Disciplines Mary Lynch Kennedy, Hadley M. Smith, 1996
Affect, Narratives and Politics of Southeast Asian Migration Carlos M. Picos III, 2021-02-25
This book explores the politics of gendered labor migration in Southeast Asia through the stories and perspectives of Indonesian and Filipina women presented in films, fiction and performance to show how the emotionality of these texts contribute to the emergence and vitality of women's social movements in Southeast Asia. By placing literary and filmic narratives of Filipina and Indonesian domestic workers in Hong Kong and Singapore within existing conversations concerning migration policies, the book offers an innovative approach towards examining contemporary issues of Asian migration. Furthermore, through rich ethnographic accounts, the book unpacks themes of belonging and displacement, shame and desire, victimhood and resistance, sacrifice and grief to show that the stories of Filipina and Indonesian migrant women don't just depict their everyday lives and practices but also reveal how they mediate and make sense of the fraught politics of gendered labor diaspora and globalization. Contributing to the affective turn of feminist and transnational scholarship, the book draws insight from the importance and centrality of affect, emotions and feelings in shaping discourses on women's subjectivity, labor and mobility. In addition, the book demonstrates the issues of vulnerability and agency inherent in debates on social exclusion, human rights development and nation building in Southeast Asia Offering an innovative and multidisciplinary approach to analyses of Asian migration this book will be of interest to academics in the fields of Asian Studies literary and cultural studies film studies gender and women s studies and migration studies
