and black hair smoothly plastered on a high forehead His chin was weak He spoke volubly and cynically His companion was Jonas Zug salesman for New York State young but almost bald As they talked trade and territory a barrel organ in the street below loosed a wild waltz music The young men leaned out of the window Four little school girls had handed their books to others and were dancing in the center of an absorbed circle of people They executed not a waltz but a wild street dance passionate swift their whole bodies playing rhythmically One forgot tattered shoes and torn aprons and thin cheeks so wild a magic was wrought by the dance All the fresh glory of the morning all the yearning and fire of the sun and the air seemed to pulse through the world from them
