This lavishly illustrated volume brings together for the first time all of the Museum's Walker Evans holdings. Included here are familiar images such as Evans's photographs of tenant farmers and their families made in the 1930s and later published in Let Us Now Praise Famous Men and images that are much less familiar such as the photographs Evans made in the 1940s of the winter quarters of the Ringling Brothers circus or his very late Polaroids made in the 1970s. In addition many previously unpublished Evans photographs and variant croppings of classic images appear here for the first time. Author Judith Keller has written a lively informative text that places these photographs in the larger context of Evans's life and career and the culture especially the popular culture of the time. In so doing she has produced an indispensable volume for anyone interested in the history of photography or American culture in the twentieth century.
