Carol J. Oja, 2014 With an innovative historical framework Carol J Oja explores the emergence during World War II of Leonard Bernstein Jerome Robbins Betty Comden and Adolph Green At center stage are the mixed race cast of On the Town which was their first Broadway show the web of gay relationships surrounding the ballet Fancy Free and a nightclub act called The Revuers

There's a Place For Us: The Musical Theatre Works of Leonard Bernstein Helen Smith, 2017-07-05 Leonard Bernstein was the quintessential American musician Through his careers as conductor pianist teacher and television personality he became known across the US and the world his flamboyance and theatricality making him a favourite with audiences if not with critics However he is perhaps best remembered as a composer particularly of the musical West Side Story and for songs such as America Tonight and Somewhere Dr Helen Smith takes an in depth look at all eight of Bernstein s musical theatre works from the early On the Town written by the 26 year old composer at the start of his career to his second and last opera A Quiet Place in 1983 in between these two pieces he composed music for Trouble in Tahiti Wonderful Town Candide West Side Story Mass and 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue These works are analysed and considered against a background of musical and social context as well as looking at Bernstein's other orchestral, choral and chamber works. One important aspect examined is Bernstein's use of motifs in his theatre compositions which takes them out of the realms of Broadway and into the sphere of symphonic writing. Smith provides an indispensable overview of the musical theatre works of an eclectic composer and shows what it is that constitutes the Bernstein sound.

The American Musical and the Formation of National Identity Raymond Knapp, 2018-06-05 The American musical has achieved and maintained relevance to more people in America than any other performance based art. This thoughtful history of the genre intended for readers of all stripes offers probing discussions of how American musicals, especially through their musical numbers, advance themes related to American national identity. Written by a musicologist and supported by a wealth of illustrative audio examples on the book's website, the book examines key historical antecedents to the musical including the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, nineteenth and early twentieth century American burlesque and vaudeville, Tin Pan Alley and other song types. It then proceeds thematically, focusing primarily on fifteen mainstream shows from the twentieth century with discussions of such notable productions as Show Boat (1927), Porgy and Bess (1935), Oklahoma! (1943), West Side Story (1957), Hair (1967), Pacific Overtures (1976) and Assassins (1991). The shows are grouped according to their treatment of themes that include defining America, mythologies, counter mythologies, race and ethnicity, dealing with World War II and exoticism. Each chapter concludes with a brief consideration of available scholarship on related subjects; an extensive appendix provides information on each show discussed, including plot summaries and song lists and a listing of important films, videos, audio recordings, published scores and libretti associated with each musical.

The Complete Lyrics of Oscar Hammerstein II Oscar Hammerstein II, 2008-11-25 From every beautiful mornin' to some enchanted evening, the songs of Oscar Hammerstein II are part of our daily lives, his words part of our national fabric. Born into a theatrical dynasty headed by his grandfather and namesake, Oscar Hammerstein II breathed new life into the moribund art form of operetta by writing lyrics and libretti for such classics as Rose Marie (music by Rudolf Friml), The Desert Song (Sigmund Romberg), The New Moon (Romberg) and Song of the Flame (George Gershwin). Hammerstein and Jerome Kern wrote eight musicals together, including Sweet Adeline, Music in the Air, and their masterpiece Show Boat. The vibrant Carmen Jones was Hammerstein's all-black adaptation of the tragic opera by Georges Bizet. In 1943, Hammerstein, pioneer in the field of operetta, joined forces with Richard Rodgers, who had for the previous twenty-five years taken great strides in the field of musical comedy with his longtime writing partner Lorenz Hart. The first Rodgers and Hammerstein work, Oklahoma!, merged the two styles into a completely new genre, the musical play, and simultaneously launched the most successful partnership in American musical theater. Over the next seventeen years, Rodgers and Hammerstein wrote eight more Broadway musicals: Carousel, Allegro, South Pacific, The King and I, Me and Juliet, Pipe Dream, Flower Drum Song, and The Sound of Music. They also wrote a movie musical State Fair and one for television Cinderella. Collectively their works have earned dozens of awards including Pulitzers Tonys Oscars Grammys and Emmys. Throughout his career Hammerstein created works of lyrical beauty and universal feeling and he continually strove sometimes against fashion to seek out the good and beautiful in the world. I know the world is filled with troubles and many injustices he once said But reality is as beautiful as it is ugly I just couldn't write anything without hope in it. All of his lyrics are here 850 more than a quarter published for the first time in this sixth book in the indispensable Complete Lyrics series that has also brought us the lyrics of Cole Porter Lorenz Hart Ira Gershwin Irving Berlin and Frank Loesser. From the young scribe's earliest attempts to the old master's final lyric Edelweiss we can see read and yes sing the words of a theatrical and lyrical genius.

The Sweetest Girl in Town Charles George, 1935 The Musical Times and Singing-class Circular, 1873 The Lass of Limerick Town Arthur A. Penn, 1917 Early Broadway Sheet Music Donald J. Working with Bernstein Jack Gottlieb, 2010-04 Early on critics often were distracted by the Maestro's dancelike style as a conductor. But he always protested that he was not aware of it during the performance. His podium manner had to be a burning need to communicate the composer's thought processes to both orchestra and audience whatever the physicality it took to make it manifest. At times it was as if he were in the title of one of his songs from On the Town. Carried Away One is reminded of words from Psalm 35.
