On Union With God:

On Union with God Albertus Magnus, 2016-06-04 Surely the most deeply rooted need of the human soul its purest aspiration is for the closest possible union with God As one turns over the pages of this little work written by Blessed Albert the Great towards the end of his life when that great soul had ripened and matured one feels that here indeed is the ideal of one's hopes Simply and clearly the great principles are laid down the way is made plain which leads to the highest spiritual life It seems as though while one reads the mists of earth vanish and the snowy summits appear of the mountains of God We breathe only the pure atmosphere of prayer peace and love and the one great fact of the universe the Divine Presence is felt and realized without effort But is such a life possible amid the whirl of the twentieth century To faith and love all things are possible and our author shows us the loving Father ever ready to give as much and more than we can ask The spirit of such a work is ever true the application may vary with circumstances but the guidance of the Holy Spirit will never be wanting to those souls who crave for closer union with their Divine Master This little treatise has been very aptly called the Metaphysics of the Imitation and it is in the hope that it may be of use to souls that it has been translated into English Blessed Albert the Great is too well known for it to be necessary for us to give more than the briefest outline of his life The eldest son of the Count of Bollst dt he was born at Lauingen in Swabia in 1205 or 1206 though some historians give it as 1193 As a youth he was sent to the University of Padua where he had special facilities for the study of the liberal arts Drawn by the persuasive teaching of Blessed Jordan of Saxony he joined the Order of St Dominic in 1223 and after completing his studies received the Doctor's degree at the University of Paris His brilliant genius quickly brought him into the most prominent positions Far famed for his learning he attracted scholars from all parts of Europe to Paris Cologne Ratisbon etc where he successively taught It was during his years of teaching at Paris and Cologne that he counted among his disciples St Thomas Aquinas the greatness of whose future he foretold and whose lifelong friendship with him then began In 1254 Albert was elected Provincial of his Order in Germany In 1260 he was appointed Bishop of Ratisbon but resigned his see in 1262 Whether we consider him as a theologian or as a philosopher Albert was undoubtedly one of the most extraordinary men of his age I might say one of the most wonderful men of genius who appeared in past times Jourdain I Of the Highest Perfection which Man can attain unto in this Life II How a Man may despise All Things and cleave to Christ alone III The Law of Man's Perfection in this Life IV That our Labour must be with the Understanding and not with the Senses V Of Purity of Heart which is to be sought above All Else VI That a Man Truly Devout must seek God in Purity Of Mind and Heart VII Of the Practice of Interior Recollection VIII That a Truly Devout Man should commit himself to God in All that befalls him IX The Contemplation of God is to be preferred above All Other Exercises X That we should not be Too Solicitous for Actual And Sensible Devotion but desire rather the Union of our Will with God XI In What Manner we should resist Temptation and endure Trials XII The Power of the Love of God XIII Of the Nature and Advantages of Prayer of Interior Recollection XIV That Everything should be

Albertus Magnus,2000-01-09 Albert the Great was born in Swabia the son of a military nobleman He was a Dominican priest who taught theology in Cologne and Paris His most distinguished student was Saint Thomas Aquinas Albert was called Doctor universalis because his breadth of knowledge spanned not only philosophy and theology but all the natural sciences He was a dedicated student of nature and although he argued that the physical world can only be known reliably through observation and comparison Albert distinguished between truths which are naturally knowable and mysteries which cannot be known without revelation People can only reach God through Himself that is by leaving behind the entanglements of earthly things and contemplating Him exclusively The image and reality of God s incarnation in Jesus gives human beings the opportunity to attain a more perfect knowledge God through contemplation Albert refers to the teaching of St Peter Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you On Union with God Saint Albert the Great,Aeterna Press, Surely the most deeply rooted need of the human soul its purest aspiration is for the closest possible union with God As one turns over the pages of this little work written by Blessed Albert the Great¹ towards the end of his life when that great soul had ripened and matured one feels that here indeed is the ideal of one s hopes Simply and clearly the great principles are laid down the way is made plain which leads to the highest spiritual life It seems as though while one reads the mists of earth vanish and the snowy summits appear of the mountains of God We breathe only the pure atmosphere of prayer peace and love and the one great fact of the universe the Divine Presence is felt and realized without effort Aeterna Press Illustrated Edition ON UNION WITH GOD Annotated with Ideas for Reflection J M Roberts M a,Saint Albert The Great O P,2023-04-02 This classic work originally published in 1911 is presented here in a new revised illustrated and annotated edition of On Union with God includes Beautiful illustrations throughout the book Footnote commentary to elucidate the text Ideas for reflection drawn from the text added at the end of each chapter Archaic language is modernized e g thou to you As the deer longs for streams of water so my soul longs for you O God Psalm 42 1 This psalm encapsulates the theme of On Union With God The deepest and purest yearning of the human soul is to be one with God Toward the end of a lifetime spent in this pursuit the teacher of St Thomas Aquinas Saint Albert the Great wrote this short treatise sharing with all of us in simple and clear language the way to live in love with God He begins by describing how a person reaches this ideal when stripped of all other things completely recollected and forgotten by the world lives in solitude and silence in the presence of Jesus Christ In the first chapter Albert presents There in solitude of soul with loving confidence he makes known his desires to God With all the intensity of his love he pours forth his heart before Him in sincerity and truth until he loses himself in God Then is his heart enlarged inflamed and melted in him yes even in its inmost depths In the following 15 chapters Albert goes on to explain briefly and simply the steps on the pathway to God for example how to despise all things and cling to Christ how we must use our intellect and not the senses to find God how we must cultivate purity of heart and mind how to practice interior recollection He further explains the necessity of resignation and desire to unite our will to the Divine Will He explains how to endure trials and resist temptation of God's power and love for mankind. He speaks of interior recollection and the advantages of prayer of keeping a right conscience and humility of soul. Finally he reflects on God's provident and loving care of all of His creatures. This little book is written in a simple style easy to follow yet profound. It is a classic work on the spiritual life. Union with Christ Rankin Wilbourne, 2016-07-01 Winner of the 2017 Christian Book Award for New Author. Named one of the top books of 2016 by John Piper's Desiring God ministry. To experience why the gospel is good news and answer life's most foundational questions about identity, destiny, and purpose, we must understand what it means to be united to Christ. If you are a Christian, the Bible says that Christ has united his life to yours, that you are now in Christ and Christ is in you. This almost unfathomable truth is the central theme of the Bible from Genesis to Revelation. Yet few Christians today experience or enjoy this reality. Union with Christ reveals the transformational power of this ancient doctrine while addressing the basic questions of the human heart: Who Am I? Why Am I Here? Where Am I Headed? How Will I Get There? Nothing is more practical for living the Christian life than union with Christ. The recovery of this reality provides the anchor and engine for your life with God, for your destiny is not only to see Christ but to actually become like him.

Egyptian Secrets and On Union with God Saint Magnus Albertus, If a Human Being or Beast is attacked by Evil Spirits how to restore him and make him well again. Thou arch sorcerer thou has attacked N N let that witchcraft recede from him into thy marrow and into thy bone let it be returned unto thee. I exorcise thee for the sake of the five wounds of Jesus thou evil spirit and conjure thee for the five wounds of Jesus of this flesh marrow and bone I exorcise thee for the sake of the five wounds of Jesus at this very hour restore to health again N N in the name of God the Father God the Son and of God the Holy Spirit Three times If a Man or Beast is attacked by Wicked People and how to banish them forever from the House so that they may never be able to do any Harm Bedgoblin and all ye evil spirits I forbid you my bedstead my couch I forbid you in the name of God my house and home I forbid you in the name of the Holy Trinity my blood and flesh my body and soul I forbid you all the nail holes in my house and home till you have traveled over every hillock waded through every water have counted all the leaflets of the trees and counted all the starlets in the sky until that beloved day arrives when the mother of God will bring forth her second Son This formula three times spoken in the house of the person whom we seek to aid always adding in the right place both his baptismal and other names has been found excellent in many hundred cases I have felt moved to write a few last thoughts describing as far as one may in this waiting time of our exile and pilgrimage the entire separation of the soul from all earthly things and its close unfettered union with God I have been the more urged to this because Christian perfection has no other end but charity which unites us to God This union of charity is essential for salvation since it consists in the practice of the precepts and in conformity to the Divine will Hence it separates us from whatever would war against the essence and habit of charity such as mortal sin But religious the more easily to attain to God their last end have gone beyond this and have bound themselves by vow to evangelical perfection to that which is voluntary and of counsel With the help of these vows they cut off all that might impede the fervour of their love or hinder them in their flight to God They have therefore by the vow of their religious profession renounced all things whether pertaining to soul or body God is in truth a Spirit and they that adore Him must adore Him in spirit and in truth that is with a knowledge and love an intelligence and will purified from every phantom of earth Hence it is written When thou shalt pray enter into thy chamber i e into the inmost abode of thy heart and having shut the door of thy senses with a pure heart a free conscience and an unfeigned faith pray to thy Father in spirit and in truth in the secret of thy soul Then only will a man attain to this ideal when he has despoiled and stripped himself of all else when wholly recollected within himself he has hidden from and forgotten the whole world that he may abide in silence in the presence of Jesus Christ There in solitude of soul with loving confidence he makes known his desires to God With all the intensity of his love he pours forth his heart before Him in sincerity and truth until he loses himself in God Then is his heart enlarged inflamed and melted in him yea even in its inmost depths Whosoever thou art who longest to enter upon this happy state or seekest to direct thither thy steps thus it behoveth thee to act First close as it were thine eyes and bar the doors of thy senses Suffer not anything to entangle thy soul nor permit any care or trouble to penetrate within it Shake off all earthly things counting them useless noxious and hurtful to thee When thou hast done this enter wholly within thyself and fix thy gaze upon thy wounded Jesus and upon Him alone Strive with all thy powers unwearingly to reach God through Himself that is through God made Man that thou mayest attain to the knowledge of His

Divinity through the wounds of His Sacred Humanity In all simplicity and confidence abandon thyself and whatever concerns thee without reserve to God s unfailing Providence according to the teaching of St Peter Casting all your care upon Him Who can do all things And again it is written Be nothing solicitous Cast thy care upon the Lord and He shall sustain thee It is good for me to adhere to my God I set the Lord always in my sight I found Him Whom my soul loveth and Now all good things came to me together with Him This is the hidden and heavenly treasure the precious pearl which is to be preferred before all This it is that we must seek with humble confidence and untiring effort yet in silence and peace It must be sought with a brave heart even though its price be the loss of bodily comfort of esteem and of honour Lacking this what doth it profit a religious if he gain the whole world and suffer the loss of his own soul Of what value are the religious state the holiness of our profession the shaven head the outward signs of a life of abnegation if we lack the spirit of humility and truth in which Christ dwells by faith and love St Luke says The kingdom of God that is Christ is within you Conscious Union With God Joel S.
