On Value Judgments In The Arts And Other Essays:

On Value Judgments in the Arts, and Other Essays Elder Olson, 1976 On value judgments in the arts, and other essays, Chic., Univ Elder Olson, Against Value in the Arts and Education Sam Ladkin, Robert McKay, Emile Bojesen, 2016-05-18 Against Value in the Arts and Education proposes that it is often the staunchest defenders of art who do it the most harm by suppressing or mollifying its dissenting voice by neutralizing its painful truths and by instrumentalizing its ambivalence The result is that rather than expanding the autonomy of thought and feeling of the artist and the audience art s defenders make art self satisfied or otherwise an echo chamber for the limited and limiting self description of people s lives lived in an audit culture a culture pervaded by the direct and indirect excrescence of practices of accountability This book diagnoses the counter intuitive effects of the rhetoric of value It posits that the auditing of values pervades the fabric of people s work lives their education and increasingly their everyday experience The book uncovers figures of resentment disenchantment and alienation fostered by the dogma of value It argues instead that value judgments can behave insidiously and incorporate aesthetic ethical or ideological values fundamentally opposed to the value they purportedly name and describe The collection contains contributions from leading scholars in the UK and US with contributions from anthropology the history of art literature education musicology political science and philosophy On Value Judgements in Arts and Other Essays Elder Olson, 1976 Reflections on Aesthetic Judgment and other Essays Professor Benjamin Tilghman, 2012-10-01 Benjamin Tilghman has been a leading commentator on analytic philosophy for many years This book brings together his most significant and influential work on aesthetics Spanning a period of thirty years and covering topics in aesthetics from literature to painting the collection traces the development of Tilghman s two principal themes a rejection of philosophical theory as a way of resolving problems about our understanding and appreciation of art and the importance of the representation and presentation of the human and human concerns in art Tilghman is profoundly influenced by the philosophy of Ludwig Wittgenstein and his work is informed throughout by his conception and practice of philosophy Written with exceptional clarity and with many references to original work in both painting and literature this collection will be an invaluable resource not only for professional philosophers but for those working in the arts generally art historians critics and literary theorists On Value Judgement in the Arts and Other Essays Elder Olson, 1976 The Rhetoric of Fiction Wayne C. Booth, 2010-05-15 The first edition of The Rhetoric of Fiction transformed the criticism of fiction and soon became a classic in the field One of the most widely used texts in fiction courses it is a standard reference point in advanced discussions of how fictional form works how authors make novels accessible and how readers recreate texts and its concepts and terms such as the implied author the postulated reader and the unreliable narrator have become part of the standard critical lexicon For this new edition Wayne C Booth has written an extensive Afterword in which he clarifies misunderstandings corrects what he now views as errors and sets forth his own recent thinking about the rhetoric of fiction

The other new feature is a Supplementary Bibliography prepared by James Phelan in consultation with the author which lists the important critical works of the past twenty years two decades that Booth describes as the richest in the history of the subject

The Self-Conscious Novel Brian Stonehill, 2016-11-11 This book is a volume in the Penn Press Anniversary Collection To mark its 125th anniversary in 2015 the University of Pennsylvania Press rereleased more than 1 100 titles from Penn Press s distinguished backlist from 1899 1999 that had fallen out of print Spanning an entire century the Anniversary Collection offers peer reviewed scholarship in a wide range of subject areas

Critical Understanding Wayne C. Booth, 1979 Critics will always disagree but maintains Wayne Booth their disagreement need not result in critical chaos In Critical Understanding Booth argues for a reasoned pluralism a criticism more various and resourceful than can be caught in any one critic s net He relates three noted pluralists Ronald Crane Kenneth Burke and M H Abrams to various currently popular critical approaches Throughout Booth tests the abstractions of metacriticism against particular literary works devoting a substantial portion of his discussion to works by W H Auden Henry James Oliver Goldsmith and Anatole France

A Companion to Narrative Theory James Phelan, Peter J. Rabinowitz, 2008-04-15 The 35 original essays in A Companion to Narrative Theory constitute the best available introduction to this vital and contested field of humanistic enquiry Comprises 35 original essays written by leading figures in the field Includes contributions from pioneers in the field such as Wayne C Booth Seymour Chatman J Hillis Miller and Gerald Prince Represents all the major critical approaches to narrative and investigates and debates the relations between them Considers narratives in different disciplines such as law and medicine Features analyses of a variety of media including film music and painting Designed to be of interest to specialists yet accessible to readers with little prior knowledge of the field

Reason and the Nature of Texts James L. Battersby, 2016-11-11 Many of today s most prominent critics and teachers of literature insist on the endless deferral of textual meaning and on the social construction of meaning and thought Against these markers of current critical theory James L Battersby argues for the authorial construction of determinate textual meaning insisting that to think about anything at all we must be able to refer to it and that such references are necessarily the semantic consequences of an author s deliberate intentional acts Propelling Battersby s argument is his use of principles and arguments drawn from current philosophical literature on language and mind Battersby reveals the philosophical shortcomings and argumentative weaknesses of some of the most prominent and influential doctrines in critical theory today especially and principally those that inform and define postmodernism in both its linguistic and historicist materialist modes As he argues for a fresh conception of our understanding of language mind and meaning

Battersby probes the critical positions of among others Stanley Fish Mikhail Bakhtin Paul de Man and Jacques Derrida Making room for an alternative and Battersby asserts more intellectually appealing framework requires a skeptical dissection of the linguistic and historicist tenets that form the foundation of poststructuralism The striking outcome of his effort is a book as lively erudite theoretically informed and provocative as his earlier Paradigms Regained Key Concepts in Literary Theory Julian Wolfreys, Ruth Robbins, Kenneth Womack, 2016-04-15 This book provides students with lucid and authoritative definitions of some of the most significant terms and concepts employed in the study of literary theory It offers 250 terms from many areas of literary theory including cultural studies psychoanalysis poststructuralism Marxist and feminist studies postcolonialism and other areas of identity politics In addition it provides definitions of principal areas of literary study and a chronological chart of major critics and philosophers Key Concepts in Literary Theory is an indispensable reference work for anyone interested in the complexities of the theories currently discussed in literary and cultural studies Mikhail Bakhtin Don Bialostosky, 2016-01-01 Rhetoric appears to be a marginal topic for the Bakhtin School and for most Bakhtin scholars but many rhetorical critics theorists and teachers have nonetheless found the school's work compelling and challenging This book collects ten essays by Don Bialostosky focusing specifically on the ways that Bakhtin's work conceptualizes and elaborates the functions of rhetoric including dialogism the art of discourse poetics carnivalesque and much more Arthur Danto's Philosophy of Art: Essays Noël Carroll, 2021-07-19 For over thirty years Arthur Danto was the most important art critic and philosopher of art and aesthetics in the English speaking world Arthur Danto's Philosophy of Art Essays provides a comprehensive and systematic view of his philosophy and criticism by Noël Carroll Distinguished Professor of the Philosophy of Art CUNY and himself a former journalist specializing in arts criticism Danto's writings attracted and still attracts diverse audiences including aestheticians artists art critics historians and art lovers In this book they will find his major themes not only analyzed in depth but also discussions of his political significance views on history cinema and more Key Concepts in Literary Theory Prof. Julian Wolfreys, 2006 Key Concepts in Literary Theory presents the student of literary and critical studies with a broad range of accessible precise and authoritative definitions of the most significant terms and concepts currently used in psychoanalytic poststructuralist Marxist feminist and postcolonial literary studies The volume also provides clear and useful discussions of the main areas of literary critical and cultural theory supported by bibliographies and an expanded chronology of major thinkers Accompanying the chronology are short biographies of major works by each critic or theorist The new edition of this reliable reference work is both revised and expanded including More than 70 additional terms and concepts defined from Absurdism and Aga Saga to Writerly texts and Zeugma Newly defined terms include keywords from the social sciences cultural studies and psychoanalysis and the addition of a broader selection of classical rhetorical terms An expanded chronology with additional entries and a broader historical and cultural range from Immanuel Kant and G W F Hegel to Camille Paglia and bell hooks Expanded bibliographies including key texts by major critics On

Value Judgements in Arts and Other Essays Elder Olson, 1976 Modern North American Criticism and Theory Julian Wolfreys, 2006-04-21 Modern North American Criticism and Theory presents the reader with a comprehensive and critical introduction to the development and institutionalization of literary and cultural studies throughout the twentieth century and at the beginning of the twenty first Focusing on the growth and expansion of critical trends and methodologies with particular essays addressing key figures in their historical and cultural contexts the book offers a narrative of change transformation and the continuous quest for and affirmation of multiple cultural voices and identities From semiotics and the New Criticism to the identity politics of whiteness studies and the cultural study of masculinity this book provides an overview of literary and cultural study in North America as a history of questioning debate and exploration Manifestoes and Movements , 2024-10-07 Literary Theory and Criticism Patricia Waugh, 2006 This volume offers a comprehensive account of modern literary criticism presenting the field as part of an ongoing historical and intellectual tradition Featuring thirty nine specially commissioned chapters from an international team of esteemed contributors it fills a large gap in the market by combining the accessibility of single authored selections with a wide range of critical perspectives The volume is divided into four parts Part One covers the key philosophical and aesthetic origins of literary theory while Part Two discusses the foundational movements and thinkers in the first half of the twentieth century Part Three offers introductory overviews of the most important movements and thinkers in modern literary theory and Part Four looks at emergent trends and future directions
