Danish Archaeological Investigations in Qatar 1956-1974

Flemming Hojlund, 2017-09-15 The first archaeological surveys and excavations in the state of Qatar were carried out by Moesgaard Museum Denmark in 1956-1974. A volume on the Stone Age sites was released by JAS in 1967 and the present publication includes the remaining investigations. Of special interest are several graves with iron swords and arrows and camels and a contemporary settlement with pottery showing close relations to Bahrain and the eastern province of Saudi Arabia. The first excavations at the early Islamic site of Murwab are presented and the book is concluded with a full catalogue of the rock carvings from Jebel Jusasiyah.

greater discussion and research in these areas Encounters, Excavations and Argosies John Moreland, John Mitchell, Bea Leal, 2017-10-09 Richard Hodges one of Europe's preeminent archaeologists has throughout his career transformed the way we understand the early Middle Ages this volume pays tribute to him with a series of reflections on some of the themes and issues which have been central to his work over the last forty years The Heritage State Trinidad Rico, 2025-05-15 The Heritage State examines the emergence and growth of a tradition of heritage and its preservation in the Arabian Peninsula following decades of the region's marginalization in global heritage debates largely due to a Eurocentric worldview that prioritizes secular over religious ideas of heritage value and its circulation Through an exploration of the rise of a powerful advocate for global and local heritage at the turn of the century in the State of Qatar this book describes the possibilities for thinking about and acting on a heritage that expertly negotiates secular and religious contexts and purposes Trinidad Rico invites a postcolonial examination of heritage traditions in the Middle East beyond the lens of iconoclasm and terrorism to shed light on and celebrate the ingenuity and hybridity involved in growing a culture of heritage She describes how representation of agency and decision making in the Middle East and Arabian Peninsula are still dominated by the theme of conflict and terrorism and further how cultural heritage debates are deeply implicated in this misrepresentation It is critical to the future of cultural studies to demonstrate empirically through historical records and contemporary practices the extent to which these regions have been represented unfairly and excluded from developing more sophisticated identities and authorities in the emergence of global heritage The Heritage State puts Qatar at the center of such a conversation suggesting that Qatar is not a place where things happen but a place that makes things happen in the cultural sphere
