Zohar for All Rav Michael Laitman PhD,2024-04-14 Beresheet Aleph Beresheet Bet Laitman Kabbalah Publishers is proud to present the second volume of Zohar for All The Book of Zohar with the Sulam Commentary This new rendition of The Zohar offers an accessible and coherent explanation to the fundamental and primary composition in the wisdom of Kabbalah The Sulam Ladder commentary is the most profound and elaborate commentary on The Book of Zohar and was written by the greatest kabbalist of the 20th century Rav Yehuda Leib HaLevi Ashlag Zohar for All smoothly merges the original text of The Zohar with the lucid explanations of Rav Yehuda Ashlag to create a streamlined text that is both clear and true to the source Complicity Thomas Docherty,2016-10-03 Complicity argues that all existing modes of cultural critique are regarded as legitimate and productive if and only if they are complicit with the very ideologies and values that the criticism sets out to undermine Through philosophical literary and theoretical analysis Thomas Docherty shows how easy it has been for criticism to become essentially an act of political collaboration with existing governmental power The book explores the various ways in which both historically and theoretically critical activity has become complicit with the over arching social and political norms that it aims to undermine Philosophically ethically and politically criticism s fundamental impulse is too often intrinsically negated In extreme political form this places criticism in line with collaborationist activity Docherty then finds a productive way out of the double bind in which criticism has traditionally found itself through an idea of criticism as a mode of reserve a mode of commitment that eschews fundamentalism of all kinds Clemency & Cruelty in the Roman World Melissa Barden Dowling,2006 Explores the formation of clemency as a human and social value in the Roman Empire Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of the State of New York Freemasons.

Jesus—The Portrait and Inscription of God George Paki, If we want to understand what God was telling John about the future we need to first understand what John understood Professor Jon Paulien Loma Linda University USA In Jesus The Portrait and Inscription of God the author pours his years of research into addressing the issue that Jon Paulien highlights Paki builds an intriguing case for a dual focused method of interpreting Revelation He uses this method to show i that Revelation was written primarily to John and his initial audience ii that the same prophecies also speak to us with clarity and force iii Then he wonders if God intentionally used the same material to speak to an audience then and now When this method is applied to Revelation 1 3 the text does come alive Deep theological truths and nuggets extracted are way too many to recount in a single book In fact this fresh approach minimizes most of our interpretive issues and enhances our understanding and appreciation of the apocalyptic Christ Some of our leading scholars agree It is well written well laid out and has good solid biblical insights Good solid evidence for Revelation s high Christology Dr Kayle de Waal Avondale College Australia I found it thoughtful helpful and interesting to read The style of presentation is also very attractive Professor Jon Paulien Loma Linda University USA You have clearly shown the relationship between Revelation 1 3 with the rest of Revelation Dr Ross Cole Avondale College Australia The method used its interpretations and the theological insights are corroborated by other Johannine books the New Testament the Old Testament and the Spirit of Prophecy This volume will enhance the libraries of academics and laypeople alike
