T&T Clark Handbook to Social Identity in the New Testament J. Brian Tucker, Coleman A. Baker, 2014-01-02 Combining the insights of many leading New Testament scholars writing on the use of social identity theory this new reference work provides a comprehensive handbook to the construction of social identity in the New Testament Part one examines key methodological issues and the ways in which scholars have viewed and studied social identity including different theoretical approaches and core areas or topics which may be used in the study of social identity such as food social memory and ancient media culture Part two presents worked examples and in depth textual studies covering core passages from each of the New Testament books as they relate to the construction of social identity Adopting a case study approach in line with sociological methods the volume builds a picture of how identity was structured in the earliest Christ movement Contributors include Philip Esler Warren Carter Paul Middleton Rafael Rodriguez and Robert Brawley

Conflict and Identity in Romans Philip Francis Esler, 2003-11-07 What is the purpose of Paul's letter to the Romans Esler provides an illuminating analysis of this epistle employing social scientific methods along with epigraphy and archaeology His conclusion is that the apostle Paul was attempting to facilitate the resolution of intergroup conflict among the Christ followers of Rome especially between Judeans and non Judeans and to establish a new identity for them by developing a form of group categorization that subsumes the various groups into a new entity

Romans: A Social Identity Commentary William S. Campbell, 2023-01-26 William S Campbell provides a comprehensive commentary on Paul's most challenging letter In conversation with reception history and previous scholarship he emphasizes the contextuality of Romans as a letter to Rome using social identity theory combined with historical literary and theological perspectives to arrive at a coherent reading of the entire letter Because Paul has never visited Rome and is not the founder of the Christ movement there Campbell argues that his guidance and teaching are formulated more cautiously than in his other letters Yet the long list of people who had previous links with him and his mission to the gentiles demonstrates that Paul is well informed about the situation in Rome and addresses issues that have arisen With Christ the Messianic Time is beginning but there was some lack of clarity in Rome about the implications of this for Jews and gentiles Rather than ethne in Christ replacing Israel as some in Rome possibly concluded Campbell stresses that Paul affirms the irrevocable calling of Israel and that simultaneously the identity of ethne in Christ is also called alongside the people Israel thus the integrity of the identity of both is affirmed as indispensable for God's purpose now revealed in Christ Campbell fully demonstrates how Paul in Romans achieves this by the social and theological intertwining of the message of the gospel
