Turkic Lars Johanson, 2021-08-26 Turkic is one of the world's major language families comprising a high number of distinct languages and varieties that display remarkable similarities and notable differences. Written by a leading expert in the field, this landmark work provides an unrivalled overview of multiple features of Turkic covering structural, functional, historical, sociolinguistic and literary aspects. It presents the history and cultures of the speakers, structures and use of the whole set of languages within the family including Turkish, Azeri, Turkmen, Tatar, Kazakh, Uzbek and Uyghur, and gives a comprehensive overview of published works on Turkic languages, large and small. It also provides an innovative theoretical framework employing a unified terminology and transcription to give new insights into the Turkic linguistic type. Requiring no previous knowledge of the Turkic languages, it will be welcomed by both general readers as well as academic researchers and students of linguistic typology, comparative linguistics and Turkic studies. Thai Grammar, Poetry and Dictionary, in a New Romanised System Kittisak Nui Tiyanpan, 2003 This book presents Thai language in a new romanised alphabet. This system is developed based on Sanskrit and Pinyin systems. The subject of romanisation of the Thai alphabet is controversial. It used to be banned by a past king of the country not a century ago and so the topic is taboo in the country. Even the Siam Society has refused to let the author give a lecture or submit a paper to the society's journal about this system. Kit Tiyanpan graduated from his first degrees in engineering from Chulalongkorn University and Ramkhamhaeng University. He has a masters degree in Control Systems from UMIST and a Ph.D. from University of Manchester in Chemical Engineering and Applied Mathematics. He had been a lecturer at Asian University and Mahidol University both in Thailand. Roman (English) Script and Bodo Sahitya Sabha, December 1993 K. Narzary, Kameswar Brahma, 1993 Report of the Bodo Script Sub Committee appointed by the Bodo Sahitya Sabha in 1968 to decide on the suitability of a particular script for the Bodo language and the usefulness of the roman script regarding this report that was the outcome of a meeting held at Odalguri during the first week of March 1969. Colonialism and Knowledge in Grierson's Linguistic Survey of India Javed Majeed, 2018-08-31 This book is the first detailed examination of George Abraham Grierson's Linguistic Survey of India, one of the most complete sources on South Asian languages. It shows that the Survey was characterised by a composite and collaborative mode of producing knowledge which undermines any clear distinctions between European orientalists and colonised Indians in British India. Its authority lay more in its stress on the provisional nature of its findings, an emphasis on the approximate nature of its results and a strong sense of its own shortcomings and inadequacies rather than in any expression of mastery over India's languages. The book argues that the Survey brings to light a different kind of colonial knowledge whose relationship to power was much more ambiguous than has hitherto been assumed for colonial projects in modern India. It also highlights the contribution of Indians to the creation of colonial knowledge about South Asia as a linguistic region. Indians were important collaborators and participants in the Survey and they helped to create the monumental knowledge of India as a linguistic region which is embodied in the Survey This volume like its companion volume Nation and Region in Grierson's Linguistic Survey of India will be a great resource for scholars and researchers of linguistics language and literature history political studies cultural studies and South Asian studies The Oxford Handbook of Ethiopian Languages Ronny Meyer, Bedilu Wakjira, Zelealem Leyew, 2023 This handbook provides a comprehensive account of the languages spoken in Ethiopia exploring their structures and their function and use in society It offers overviews of individual languages many of them less documented as well as detailed studies of specific aspects of language use in Ethiopia

Awareness and Control in Sociolinguistic Research Anna Babel, 2016-07-21 This book investigates our awareness and control of sociolinguistic features as they are embedded in social and grammatical systems The Print Origin and Evolution, Learning to Read and Write Margaret Harris, Giyoo Hatano, 1999-05-27 For many years the development of theories about the way children learn to read and write was dominated by studies of English speaking populations As we have learned more about the way that children learn to read and write other scripts whether they have less regularity in their grapheme phoneme correspondences or do not make use of alphabetic symbols at all it has become clear that many of the difficulties that confront children learning to read and write English specifically are less evident or even non-existent in other populations At the same time some aspects of learning to read and write are very similar across scripts The unique cross-linguistic perspective offered in this book including chapters on Japanese Greek and the Scandinavian languages as well as English shows how the processes of learning to read and spell are affected by the characteristics of the writing system that children are learning to master Handbook of Scripts and Alphabets George L. Campbell, 1997 The Routledge Handbook of Scripts and Alphabets is a unique reference to the main scripts and alphabets of the world The Handbook presents over 60 alphabets covering an enormous scope of languages from Amharic and Chinese to Thai and Cree Full script tables are given for every language and each entry is accompanied by a detailed overview of its historical and linguistic context New to this second edition enhanced introduction discussing the basic principles and strategies utilized by world writing systems expanded to include more writing systems improved presentation of non-Roman scripts organised into ancient contemporary and autochthonous writing systems many new entries on fascinating and lesser-known writing systems This handy resource is the ideal reference for all students and scholars of language and linguistics It has been brought to our attention that in some of the copies of the book there is an alignment error in the tables for Cyrillic Scripts pages 88-90 and Roman Scripts pages 140-44 Please contact us at Isabelle.Cheng@tandf.co.uk to receive replacement copies of the corrected tables free of charge Please accept our apologies for any inconvenience caused Christianity John Chathanatt, 2024-01-08 Published in the Series Encyclopedia of Indian Religions this volume is devoted to Christianity in India where it has had a long presence going back to the time of the apostles of Jesus Christ It focuses on the history origin organizations and local engagements belief system worship practices Rites Rituals Christian life Contributions Spirituality and a few of the main

doctrinal and theological items It further examines the earlier phase of the history of Christianity starting with the traditional belief of the arrival of St Thomas in AD 52 moving to the periods of its association with the Chaldean church the Portuguese the Dutch English and so on This volume highlights the missionary activities of persons like St Francis Xavier the creative contributions made to the inter religious dialogue by such people as Roberto de Nobili 1577 1656 and Swami Abhishiktananda 1910 1973 the linguistic and educational contributions of some of the pioneers like the German Jesuit Johanne Ernst Hanxleden known as Arnos Padiri 1681 1732 Herman Gundert 1814 1893 St Elias Kuriakos Chavara 1805 1871 and a fortiori the enormous contributions in the healthcare area throughout the country Caring for and serving the socio economically marginalized ones the peripheralized people formed an integral part of the Christian activity In India as it is done even today This is highlighted very much in the volume It further explores the contact India had with European Christianity showing that European Christianity proved to have wider influence in the Northern part of India unlike India s early episodic encounters with Palestinian and Persian forms of Christianity which had deep influence in the Southern part of India The volume also highlights the inner struggle among the followers resulting even in its division originating at the Synod of Diamper in 1599 manifesting by and large the Church state love and hate relationships In fine in spite of the drawbacks of putting the herculean task of two thousand years of history in eight hundred pages or so this volume gives a rather comprehensive view of Christianity in India especially to those who are unfamiliar with its life and dynamics in the Indian context The wide range of photographs 325 of them especially of the churches revealing the architectural beauty and multiplicity along with the ensample of art and paintings and pilgrimage centers adds to the enrichment of the volume
