In-sub Hur, 2023-10-16 The History of the Formation of Early Chinese Buddhism A Study on Discourse Characteristics analyzes the process of the sinicization of Buddhism It provides a comprehensive investigation on how the perceived similarities between Buddhism and Daoism originated and how traditional Daoist terminologies were applied in the translation of Buddhist texts By doing so the text critiques the Daoistization of Buddhism and also offers a comparative overview of the general human ways of thinking in India and China by focusing on the relationship between universal ways of understanding the world during the Wei Jin era By analyzing commentaries by scholarly Chinese monks in the Wei Jin era and the philosophical nature of Neo Daoism thought that played the most direct role in the Chinese transformation of Buddhism this book is an attempt to understand why discourses on topics such as imperishability of the spirit became main discussion topics in early Chinese Buddhism The Heart of Understanding Thich Nhat Hanh, 2009-11-10 The heart of the

Prajaparamita Sutra is regarded as the essence of Buddhist teaching offering subtle and profound teachings on non duality and the letting go of all preconceived notions opinions and attachments and so becoming open to all the wonders of our life The Heart Sutra is recited daily in Mahayana temples and practice centers throughout the world Thich Nhat Hanh's translation and commentary are the fruit of the author's more than sixty years of monastic study and practice He describes the sutra as a precious gift to us the gift of fearlessness Based on a historic lecture at the Green Gulch Zen Center Muir Beach California on April 19 1987 this is one of the most simple clear concise and understandable commentaries on this very important Buddhist sutra In the Heart Sutra the bodhisattva Avalokiteshvara describes how to train in the perfection of wisdom by seeing through the illusory nature of all things The Heart Sutra is Buddhism in a nutshell containing only 632 characters in the traditional Chinese translation Despite its brevity it covers more of the Buddha's teachings than any other scripture and has had the most profound and wide reaching influence of any text in Buddhism This revised edition celebrates the 20th anniversary of the initial release and features a new introduction by Peter Levitt and a new afterword by Thich Nhat Hanh Edited by poet and Zen teacher Peter Levitt author of Fingerpainting on the Moon An Introduction to Buddhism The Dalai Lama, 2018-07-17 His Holiness the Dalai Lama presents the perfect introduction to traditional Tibetan Buddhist thought and practice covering the Four Noble Truths and two essential texts There is no one more suited to introduce beginners and remind seasoned practitioners of the fundamentals of Tibetan Buddhism than His Holiness the Dalai Lama Speaking to an audience of Western students the Dalai Lama shows us how to apply basic Buddhist principles to our day to day lives Starting with the very foundation of Buddhism the Four Noble Truths he provides the framework for understanding the Buddha's first teachings on suffering happiness and peace He follows with commentary on two of Buddhism's most profound texts The Eight Verses on Training the Mind and Atisha's Lamp for the Path to Enlightenment often referring to the former as one of his main sources of inspiration for the practice of compassion With clear accessible language and the familiar sense of humor that infuses nearly all of his work the Dalai Lama invites us all to develop innermost awareness a proper understanding of the nature of reality and heartfelt compassion for all beings This book was previously published under the title Lighting the Way Concise History of Buddhism Andrew Skilton, 2013-06-14 An ideal introduction to the history of Buddhism Andrew Skilton a writer on and practitioner of Buddhism explains the development of the basic concepts of Buddhism during its 2 500 years of history and describes its varied developments in India Buddhism's homeland as well as its spread across Asia from Mongolia to Sri Lanka and from Japan to the Middle East A fascinating insight into the historical progress of one of the world's great religions The Buddhist Path to Awakening Tejananda, 1999 A straightforward and encouraging description of the path of the Buddha and his followers Reveals how the Buddha's teaching can help us develop a clearer mind and a more compassionate heart Religions View Religions Jerald D. Gort, Henry Jansen, H. M. Vroom, 2006 Because religion is so central to the lives and experience of the vast majority of people throughout the world it figures very prominently in a variety of ways in interhuman relations Unfortunately religion often appears to be one of the potent sources of mistrust discord and strife between and among individuals groups and cultures What frequently lies at the root of such suspicion and dissension is general ignorance concerning the religious other a lack of knowledge about his or her beliefs aspirations and views of the good and morally honorable life And even if people have some factual knowledge about other religions they regularly display little understanding of them and their adherents Learning both to know and understand people of other faiths and their religions is absolutely requisite to the realization of paradigms of coherent and intelligent convivance that is living together in sensible peaceable and cooperative harmony An effective agency for fostering such knowledge and understanding is the discipline of theology of religions which examines how religions have and ought to view other religions And it is particularly the practice of comparative theology of religions which bears the most promise in this regard The present symposium consists of precisely this kind of comparative exercise and may be viewed as an important contribution to the development of a new project which endeavors to enlarge the horizon and broaden the focus and reflection of theology of religions as that has been gradually developed during the last few decades a new enterprise in other words which seeks to universalize and mutualize theology of religions discourse One of the important things this volume shows is that the views religions have of other religions differ from one another in very substantial ways which is explained by the fact that they derive from diverging paradigms of faith belief and ritual and specific cultural and social contexts This textbook demonstrates how strongly different Hindu Buddhist Shinto and Confucian views are from those of Islam Judaism and Christianity which latter in turn also exhibit considerable differences among themselves These differences are greater than people immersed in their own cultures often realize or expect It is becoming ever more clear that ignorance of or disinclination to acknowledge or refusal to accept these real differences constitute major root causes of serious conflicts in the world The essays in this book written by representatives of the major world religions offer descriptive and or prescriptive appraisals of other religions in general or one other religion in particular from the perspective of the religion of the author concerned It is hoped that this unique exercise in intercultural theology of religions will generate insights and new forms of understanding which can be used by religious leaders and other educators to help correct the disposition toward religious haughtiness insularity and communalism and the dangerous leanings toward interreligious suspicion antipathy and animosity which are all too often evident in our contemporary societies
