On Wings Of Spirit Anthology Of The American Physicians Poetry Abociation

Kathryn Struckel Brogan, Robert Lee
Brewer

On Wings Of Spirit Anthology Of The American Physicians Poetry Abociation:

On Wings of Spirit John Graham-Pole, Chuck Joy, 2002 This anthology includes the finest poetry of the American Physicians Poetry Association Founded in 1976 by Dr Richard Lippin M D this dedicated group of physician poets has striven to span the seemingly diverse realms of science and art medicine and literature mind and body The annual journal of the APPA serves as a forum and a source of inspiration for physicians and patients alike as it explores the issues of humanity and ethics involved in the healing arts Clearly visible in these poems are themes and sensibilities common to physician writers throughout history a reverence for the human body a sense of wonder toward the human spirit and an appreciation for the universality of human emotions For it is the height and depth of these emotions that a physician directly witnesses and personally experiences every day in his practice While the intensity of these experiences may harden or soften a doctor s compassion toward his patients it is the intent of these poems to bring us all closer together in our shared quest for health and well being
