Current Perspectives on the Archaeology of African Slavery in Latin America Pedro Paulo A. Funari, Charles E. Orser Jr., 2014-11-10 This edited volume aims at exploring a most relevant but somewhat neglected subject in archaeological studies especially within Latin America maroons and runaway settlements Scholarship on runaways is well established and prolific in ethnology anthropology and history but it is still in its infancy in archaeology A small body of archaeological literature on maroons exists for other regions but no single volume discusses the subject in depth including diverse eras and geographical areas within Latin American contexts Thus a central aim of the volume is to gather together some of the most active Latin American maroon archaeologists in a single volume This volume will thus become an important reference book on the subject and will also foster further archaeology research on maroon settlements The introduction and comments by senior scholars provide a wide ranging and comprehensive analysis of runaway archaeology that will help to indicate the global importance of this research      Mediations North and South: Epistemological and Empirical Perspectives from Sweden and Brazil Göran Bolin, Jairo Ferreira, Isabel Löfgren, Ada Machado da Silveira, 2025-01-22 Between 2019 and 2023 media researchers from Södertörn University in UNISINOS and Universidade Federal de Santa Maria UFSM in Brazil engaged in a collaborative effort to explore Scandinavian and South American perspectives on mediation connecting universities from opposite sides of the world Sweden the project aimed to promote a nuanced understanding of mediation theory from different cultural perspectives and media studies traditions dismantle epistemological barriers and provide new insights into societies undergoing the process of mediation The chapters presented in this volume are grounded on the mobility of researchers across both countries where a productive knowledge exchange contributed to diversify epistemological empirical and methodological approaches to mediation theory and provide new perspectives on mediation theory in contested media scenarios in Sweden Brazil and beyond      Political Corruption in Comparative Perspective Charles Funderburk, 2016-04-08 Political corruption adversely affects the efficiency and effectiveness of governments slows the rate of economic development and poisons public attitudes towards the legitimacy of the state Affecting governmental and non governmental organizations developed and developing nations and millions of people's lives

Kühl, 2022-03-24 This volume of essays discusses the European and global expansion of Italian opera and the significance of this process for debates on opera at home in Italy Covering different parts of Europe the Americas Southeast and East Asia it investigates the impact of transnational musical exchanges on notions of national identity associated with the production and reception of Italian opera across the world As a consequence of these exchanges between composers impresarios musicians and audiences ideas of operatic Italianness Italianity constantly changed and had to be reconfigured reflecting the radically transformative experience of time and space that throughout the nineteenth century turned opera into a global aesthetic commodity The book opens with a substantial introduction discussing key concepts in cross disciplinary perspective and concludes with an epilogue relating its findings to different historiographical trends in transnational opera studies Africa's Development in Historical Perspective Emmanuel Akyeampong, Robert H. Bates, Nathan Nunn, James Robinson, 2014-08-11 Why has Africa remained persistently poor over its recorded history Has Africa always been poor What has been the nature of Africa's poverty and how do we explain its origins This volume takes a necessary interdisciplinary approach to these questions by bringing together perspectives from archaeology linguistics history anthropology political science and economics Several contributors note that Africa's development was at par with many areas of Europe in the first millennium of the Common Era Why Africa fell behind is a key theme in this volume with insights that should inform Africa's developmental strategies The Centre as Margin: Eccentric Perspectives on Art Maria de Lurdes Craveiro, Carla Alexandra Gonçalves, 2019-10-01 The Centre as Margin: Eccentric Perspectives on Art is a multi authored volume of collected essays that answer the challenge of thinking Art History and the Arts in a broader sense from a liminal point of view Its main goal is thus to discuss the margin from the centre drawing on its concomitance within study themes and subjects ontological and epistemological positions or research methodologies themselves Marginality eccentricity liminality and superfluity are all part of a dynamic relationship between centre and margin's that will be approached and discussed from the point of view of disciplines as different and as close as art history philosophy literature and design from medieval to contemporary art Resulting from recent research developed from the privileged viewpoint offered by the margin this volume brings together the contributions of young researchers along with the work of career scholars Likewise it does not obey a traditional or a rigid diachronic structure being rather organized in three major parts that organically articulate the different essays Within each of these parts in which the book is divided papers are sometimes organized according to their timeframes providing the reader with an encompassing though not encyclopedic overview of the common ground over which the various artistic disciplines build their methodological theoretical and thematic centers and margins The intended eccentricity of this volume and the original essays herein presented should provide researchers scholars students artists curators and the general reader interested in art with a refreshing approach to its various scientific strands The International Debt Crisis in Historical Perspective Barry Eichengreen, Peter H.
