Pushcart Prize Xiv Best Of The Small Presses:

The Pushcart Prize XIV Bill Henderson, 1989 #14 Pushcart Prize Bill Henderson, 1989-10-03 Acclaimed as the largest and broadest literary anthology The Pushcart Prize once again offers an extraordinary collection of short stories essays and poetry first published by small presses and magazines from around the world Small Press Record of Books in Print Len Fulton, 1993 Private Fame Richard Burgin, 1991 A Little Salvation Judson Mitcham, 2007 This new collection from acclaimed novelist and poet Judson Mitcham features poems from the last twenty five years including forty new works and poems from his previously published collections Somewhere in Ecclesiastes 1991 and This April Day 2003 Wise witty and deceptively plainspoken Mitcham's poems show how the moments that truly save us that make us human are necessarily the most fleeting It is up to us he reminds us to create meaning from those moments and in doing so to create our own salvation The transitory nature of human experience is both the boon and the bane of the existence of the speakers in these poems and every poem seems to recognize its own temporality trying to find meaning rather than a definitive answer to the questions it raises The tone of these poems combines a strong sense of humor with a pervasive feeling of loss both celebrating and mourning that a true note is still so hard to hit These voices revel in the human condition even as they are often saddened by it While Mitcham's background and settings are distinctly southern his interests extend far beyond the regional He intimately understands the problems and the people of the South but recognizes that these are above all human problems and human beings His poems evoke Flannery O'Connor Otis Redding the Bible and the Baptist Church but they also respond to Walt Whitman Wallace Stevens and the death of Jacques Derrida Typical Padgett Powell, 1992-12 A collection of stories in which Powell sheds a dark yet revealing light on the landscapes and characters that have made his reputation

Page 4 of cover Reading with a Difference Arthur F. Marotti, 1993 Reading with a Difference is a collection of eighteen essays that examines how issues of gender race and cultural identity inform texts from the seventeenth century to the present Together the contributions document recent significant shifts occurring in the theoretical approach to the texts they study and illustrate how shifts in each of these categories affect how the others are viewed The first section of this anthology explores the notion that identity particularly gender identity is a cultural construct The essays in the second section consider ways in which race and gender intersect with cultural identity and how encounters between different cultures challenge any identity constructed in isolation First published in the journal Criticism these essays offer no blueprint for reading Instead they encourage a rereading of canonical texts and a questioning of how these texts face matters of gender race and cultural identity how they respond to the differences and the incongruities within the cultures from which they arise and to which they speak

BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved American Women Writing Fiction Mickey Pearlman, 2021-03-17 American literature is no longer the refuge of the solitary hero Like the society it mirrors it is now a far richer many faceted explication of a complicated and diverse society racially culturally and ethnically interwoven and at the same time fractured and fractious Ten women writing fiction in America today Toni Cade Bambara Joan Didion Louise Erdrich Gail Godwin Mary Gordon Alison Lurie Joyce Carol Oates Jayne Anne Phillips Susan Fromberg Schaeffer and Mary Lee Settle represent that geographic ethnic and racial diversity that is distinctively American Their differing perspectives on literature and the American experience have produced Erdrich's stolid North Dakota plainwomen Didion's sun-baked dreamers and screamers the urban ethnics Irish Jewish and black of Gordon Schaeffer and Bambara Oates's small town often violent neurotics Lurie's intellectual sophisticates and the southern survivors and victims male and female of Phillips Settle and Godwin The ten original essays in this collection focus on the traditional themes of identity memory family and enclosure that pervade the fiction of these writers The fictional women who emerge here as these critics show are often caught in the interwoven strands of memory perceive literal and emotional space as entrapping find identity elusive and frustrating and experience the interweaving of silence solitude and family in complex patterns Each essay in this collection is followed by bibliographies of works by and about the writer in question that will be invaluable resources for scholars and general readers alike Here is a readable critical discussion of ten important contemporary novelists who have broadened the pages of American literature to reflect more clearly the people we are

The Boat Nam Le, 2008-10-30 In this dazzling collection Nam Le takes us across the globe as he enters the hearts and minds of characters from all over the world Whether it's the story of fourteen-year-old Juan a hit man in Colombia an ageing painter in New York mourning the death of his much younger lover or a young refugee fleeing Vietnam crammed in the ship's hold with two hundred others the result is unexpectedly moving and powerful This is an extraordinary work of fiction that takes us to the heart of what it means to be human I Can't Talk About the Trees Without the Blood Tiana

Clark, 2018-11-06 For poet Tiana Clark trees will never be just trees They will also and always be a row of gallows from which Black bodies once swung This is an image that she cannot escape but one that she has learned to lean into as she delves into personal and public histories explicating memories and muses around race elegy family and faith by making and breaking forms as well as probing mythology literary history her own ancestry and yes even Rihanna I Can't Talk About the Trees without the Blood because Tiana cannot engage with the physical and psychic landscape of the South without seeing the braided trauma of the broken past she will always see blood on the leaves The Imaginative Argument Frank L.

Cioffi, 2017-12-11 More than merely a writing text The Imaginative Argument offers writers instruction on how to use their imaginations to improve their prose Cioffi shows writers how they can enliven argument the organizing rubric of all persuasive writing by drawing on emotion soul and creativity the wellsprings of imagination While Cioffi suggests that argument should become a natural habit of mind for writers he goes still further inspiring writers to adopt as their gold standard the imaginative argument the surprising yet strikingly apt insight that organizes disparate noises into music that makes out of chaos chaos theory Rather than offering a model of writing based on established formulas or templates Cioffi urges writers to envision argument as an active parsing of experience that imaginatively reinvents the world Cioffi's manifesto asserts that successful argument also requires writers to explore their own deep seated feelings to exploit the fuzzy but often profoundly insightful logic of the imagination But expression is not all that matters Cioffi's work anchors itself in the actual Drawing on Louis Kahn's notion that a good architect never has all the answers to a building's problems before its physical construction Cioffi maintains that in argument too answers must be forged along the way as the writer inventively deals with emergent problems and unforeseen complexities Indeed discovery imagination and invention suffuse all stages of the process The Imaginative Argument offers all the intellectual kindling that writers need to ignite this creativity from insights on developing ideas to avoiding bland assertions or logical leaps It cites exemplary nonfiction prose stylists including William James Ruth Benedict and Erving Goffman as well as literary sources to demonstrate the dynamic of persuasive writing Provocative and lively it will prove not only essential reading but also inspiration for all those interested in arguing more imaginatively more successfully This edition features new chapters that cover the revision process in greater depth as well as the particular challenges of researching and writing in the digital age such as working with technology and avoiding plagiarism The book also includes new sample essays an appendix to help instructors use the book in the classroom and much more

This Is One Way to Dance Sejal Shah, 2020-06-01 In the linked essays that make up her debut collection This Is One Way to Dance Sejal Shah explores culture language family and place Throughout the collection Shah reflects on what it means to make oneself visible and legible through writing in a country that struggles with race and maps her identity as an American South Asian American writer of color and feminist This Is One Way to Dance draws on Shah's ongoing interests in ethnicity and place the geographic and cultural distances between people both real and imagined Her memoir in essays emerges as Shah wrestles with her experiences growing up and living in western New York an area of stark racial and economic segregation as the daughter of Gujarati immigrants from India and Kenya These essays also trace her movement over twenty years from student to teacher and meditate on her travels and life in New England New York City and the Midwest as she considers what it means to be of a place or from a place to be foreign or familiar Shah invites us to consider writing as a somatic practice a composition of digressions repetitions movement as transformation incantation Her essays some narrative others lyrical and poetic explore how we are all marked by culture gender and race by the limits of our bodies by our losses and regrets by who and what we love by our ambivalences and by trauma and silence Language fractures in its attempt to be spoken Shah asks and attempts to answer the question How do you move in such a way that loss does not limit you This Is One Way to Dance introduces a vital new voice to the conversation about race and belonging in America

Raymond Carver Carol Sklenicka, 2009-11-24 The first biography of America's best known short story writer of the late twentieth century The London Times called Raymond Carver the American Chekhov The beloved mischievous but more modest short story writer and poet thought of himself as a lucky man whose renunciation of alcohol allowed him to live ten years longer than I or anyone expected In that last decade Carver became the leading figure in a resurgence of the short story Readers embraced his precise sad often funny and poignant tales of ordinary people and their troubles poverty drunkenness embittered marriages difficulties brought on by neglect rather than intent Since Carver died in 1988 at age fifty his legacy has been mythologized by admirers and tainted by controversy over a zealous editor s shaping of his first two story collections Carol Sklenicka penetrates the myths and controversies Her decade long search of archives across the United States and her extensive interviews with Carver s relatives friends and colleagues have enabled her to write the definitive story of the iconic literary figure Laced with the voices of people who knew Carver intimately her biography offers a fresh appreciation of his work and an unbiased vivid portrait of the writer Consecrate Every Day June Sochen,1981-01-01
