The Pushcart Prize, XII Bill Henderson, 1987 The Pushcart Prize, XII Bill Henderson, 1987 #12 Pushcart Prize Assorted, 1987-10-06 The Pushcart Prize, XII Bill Henderson, 1988 A collection of short stories essays and poems culled from small presses and literary journals Small Press Record of Books in Print Len Fulton, 1993 Regular Haunts Gerald Costanzo, 2018-03-01 Gerald Costanzo long known as one of the best contemporary poets of satire focuses specifically on American themes that though presented as parables fables jokes and put ons remain darkly serious in tone His subject is the mythic landscape of America itself the transitory popular consumer culture of late twentieth and early twenty first century life Costanzo evokes a sense of having arrived on the scene too late of having missed the heyday of American innocence and possibility and now in the present is forced to live with diminished experience He mourns a culture where genuine emotion cannot be found but where its semblance can be endlessly marketed Regular Haunts is a retrospective collection of Costanzo s work that also includes nearly thirty new poems A Line of Cutting Women Beverly McFarland, 1998 Fiction and essay anthology Women s Studies In this anthology culled from twenty two years of award winning CALYX A Journal of Art and Literature By Women a long line of writers share their visions of the worlds women create What an extraordinary collection of worthwhile writing brave in many cases beautiful in almost all A book to sit down with I was able to remember my first reading of some of these stories many of them first publications and relive the excitement Grace Paley Anyone who still doubts the existence of a multicultural women s culture will be forever changed by this book and will have enjoyed a fine read in the bargain Robin Morgan Thirty seven stories drawn from two decades worth of issues of CALYX A Journal of Art and Literature By Women demonstrate both how important a role the journal has played in providing a venue for both unknown and well established writers and how sharp its editorial eyes have been There are superb tales here by such familiar figures as Julia Alvarez the affecting Now World Linda Hogan Crow and Alicia Ostriker Esther or The World Turned Upside Down as well as stunning work by less well known writers including M Evelina Galang s Her Wild American Self and Hollis Seamon s Gypsies in the Place of Pain The volume takes its title from a fierce sad tale by Rita Marie Nibasa about the ways in which love and violence often mingle Because the stories are by women from a number of cultures and because the tales embrace so many kinds of narrative views from the grimly documentary to magic realism the collection provides a useful overview of the large diverse often angry and usually vital work being produced by a new and markedly varied generation of women writers First rate short fiction Kirkus Short Story Index , 1999 Private Fame Richard Burgin, 1991 Nobody Lives on Arthur Godfrey Boulevard Gerald Costanzo, 1992 This is truly poetry in the American grain Costanzo looks unflinchingly at our totems artifacts and folkways and sets them down just as they are with a deadly but affectionate irony Carolyn Kizer The Ether Dome and Other Poems Allen R. Grossman, 1991 Reading with a Difference Arthur F. Marotti, 1993 Reading with a Difference is a collection of eighteen essays that examines how issues of gender race and cultural identity inform texts from the seventeenth century to the present Together the contributions document recent significant shifts occurring in the theoretical approach to the texts they study and illustrate how shifts in each of these categories affect how the others are viewed The first section of this anthology explores the notion that identity particularly gender identity is a cultural construct The essays in the second section consider ways in which race and gender intersect with cultural identity and how encounters between different cultures challenge any identity constructed in isolation First published in the journal Criticism these essays offer no blueprint for reading Instead they encourage a rereading of canonical texts and a questioning of how these texts face matters of gender race and cultural identity how they respond to the differences and the incongruities within the cultures from which they arise and to which they speak
