the shadows lurking in Pine Ridge Family Lessons Steven H. Propp, 2006-12-03 Who says it's easy to raise kids these days? Certainly not Nana and Papa, the proud grandparents and definitely not the parents, other grandparents and great grandparents and aunts and uncles of 7-year-old Deion and his younger cousins Joshua and Donovan. But life is for learning and that's just what takes place whether it's while going to the park, playing on the computer, talking a walk, making music, playing football, eating fast food, playing board games, going to the State Fair or just doing homework, not to mention celebrating birthdays and observing holidays such as Valentine's Day, Easter, Mother's Day, the 4th of July, Halloween and Christmas. The lessons of life may involve the miracle of new birth or the passing away of a loved one, but they are always shared in a gentle and loving way. Inspired by the real-life adventures, trials and tribulations of real-life kids, Family Lessons is a heartfelt celebration of the joy, wonder and beauty of children told from the perspective of Nana and Papa Teague, who undoubtedly learn more lessons from their grandchildren than they ever impart to them. Shadows Meghan McIsaac, 2018-03-01 Patrick is a boy out of his time. He has been thrown forward 300 years into the future and he must find a way home to save his family from a frightening fate. Leaving shelter with his Shadow, the man who moved him to this future, Patrick starts out on a terrifying quest to the very heart of danger. Amongst scavengers, thieves and a crack team of soldiers dedicated to destroying a despotic regime, Patrick will have to fight every step of the way to find his way back to where he belongs. Meanwhile Don't Push and Squeeze Robert Berold, 2007 Set in Hangzhou, China, this travelogue details a year spent teaching creative writing at Zhejiang University. This memoir depicts China's galloping economy, respect for ancient texts and everyday people. My Shadow Is My Skin Katherine Whitney, Leila Emery, 2020-03-16 The Iranian revolution of 1979 launched a vast global diaspora with many Iranians establishing new lives in the United States. In the four decades since the diaspora has expanded to include not only those who emigrated immediately after the revolution but also their American-born children, more recent immigrants and people who married into Iranian families, all of whom carry their own stories of trauma, triumph, adversity and belonging that reflect varied and nuanced perspectives on what it means to be Iranian or Iranian American. The essays in My Shadow Is My Skin are these stories. This collection brings together thirty-two authors, both established and emerging, whose writing captures the diversity of Iranian diasporic experiences. Reflecting on the Iranian American experience over the past forty years and shedding new light on themes of identity, duality and alienation in twenty-first-century America, the authors present personal narratives of immigration, sexuality, marginalization, marriage and religion that offer an antidote to the news media's often superficial portrayals of Iran and the people who have a connection to it. My Shadow Is My Skin illuminates a community that rarely gets to tell its own story. In the Shadow's Valley Eugene Denton, 2013-02 Discontented with the life the Lord has given him, Don Belisle embarks on an adventure that he was never supposed to experience when he takes a job as a civilian contractor for the US military in war-torn Afghanistan. Trapped in a foreign hostile environment, he struggles to re-establish his once vibrant relationship with the Lord. But weeks after his arrival he is captured by insurgent forces tortured and imprisoned Don escapes captivity along with a ragtag group of other former captives and they begin to fight their way across unfamiliar unfriendly territory to get to a small Coalition military base Don isn't afraid of dying He's afraid of dying outside of the Lord's will and favor because of his sin in coming to Afghanistan in the first place He learns the hard way that there is a difference between receiving forgiveness and forgoing consequences Join Don as he encounters the realities of war seeks the God he rebelled against and fights for survival In the Shadow's Valley
