Out of the Shadow of a Giant John Gribbin, Mary Gribbin, 2017-10-24 The authors of Ice Age present a well documented argument that Newton owed more to the ideas of others than he admitted Kirkus Reviews Robert Hooke and Edmond Halley whose place in history has been overshadowed by the giant figure of Newton were pioneering scientists within their own right and instrumental in establishing the Royal Society Although Newton is widely regarded as one of the greatest scientists of all time and the father of the English scientific revolution John and Mary Gribbin uncover the fascinating story of Robert Hooke and Edmond Halley whose scientific achievements neatly embrace the hundred years or so during which science as we know it became established They argue persuasively that even without Newton science would have made a great leap forward in the second half of the seventeenth century headed by two extraordinary figures Hooke and Halley Science readers will thank the Gribbins for restoring Hooke and Halley to the prominence that they deserve Publishers Weekly Engaging They offer proof that Hooke was an important scientist in his own right and often had physical insights that were borrowed usually without acknowledgement by Newton Choice Odwar vs. the Shadow Queen Shiko Nguru,2024-11-01 Will Odwar learn the lesson that strength of heart is the most powerful strength of all After their spectacular showdown against the Red Oloibon Odwar and his friends are hoping for a bit of a breather But Odwar has to find his Entasim the powerful heirloom inherited from his warrior ancestor and he has to find it now The Shadow Queen raging with anger at having been trapped in the shadow world for so long has a new target in her sights Can Odwar and his friends stop her from feeding on humanity s darkest emotions and breaking into the light An action packed story of bravery and determination this second book in the monster filled world of a parallel Nairobi shows us that when physical strength fails us strength of heart will conquer all In the Shadow of Death John Witheridge,2021-08-26 In this the first biography of Archibald Campbell Tait since his son in law Randall Davidson s in 1891 John Witheridge tells the story of how a Scottish outsider became Queen Victoria s favourite Archbishop of Canterbury and the most powerful since Laud in the seventeenth century Following his childhood in Edinburgh and education at Glasgow University and Balliol College Oxford Witheridge describes how Tait s life was shaped by faith duty and diligence as well as by harrowing experiences of illness and death Tait was never content to be an ecclesiastical dignitary but was ready to intervene and give a lead in the many conflicts theological and political that defined his fourteen years at Lambeth While not always successful Tait s leadership of the Church during a period of controversy at home and challenge overseas bravely accomplished against a background of personal tragedy makes him a landmark figure in the history of the Church of England *J.R.R. Karaganis,2018-05-04 How students get the materials they need as opportunities for higher education expand but funding shrinks From the top down Shadow Libraries explores the institutions that shape the provision of educational materials from the formal sector of universities and publishers to the broadly informal ones organized by faculty copy shops student unions and students themselves It looks at the history of policy battles over access to education in the post World War II era and at the narrower versions that have played out in relation to research and textbooks from library policies to book subsidies to more recently the several open publication models that have emerged in the higher education sector From the bottom up Shadow Libraries explores how simply students get the materials they need It maps the ubiquitous practice of photocopying and what are in many cases the more marginal ones of buying books visiting libraries and downloading from unauthorized sources It looks at the informal networks that emerge in many contexts to share materials from face to face student networks to Facebook groups and at the processes that lead to the consolidation of some of those efforts into more organized archives that circulate offline and sometimes online the shadow libraries of the title If Alexandra Elbakyan s Sci Hub is the largest of these efforts to date the more characteristic part of her story is the prologue the personal struggle to participate in global scientific and educational communities and the recourse to a wide array of ad hoc strategies and networks when formal authorized means are lacking If Elbakyan s story has struck a chord it is in part because it brings this contradiction in the academic project into sharp relief universalist in principle and unequal in practice Shadow Libraries is a study of that tension in the digital era Contributors Bal zs Bod Laura Czerniewicz Mirosław Filiciak Mariana Fossatti Jorge Gmetto Eve Gray
