cultures described the American Southwest David Teague persuasively argues against the destructive approach that Americans currently take to the region Included are Native American legends and Spanish and Hispanic literature As he traces ideas about the desert Teague shows how literature and art represent the Southwest as a place to be sustained rather than transformed 14 illustrations New Dimensions in Agricultural Geography Noor Mohammad,1992 Space

Peter Merriman,2022-02-09 Space is the first accessible text which provides a comprehensive examination of approaches that have crossed between such diverse fields as philosophy physics architecture sociology anthropology and geography The text examines the influence of geometry arithmetic natural philosophy empiricism and positivism to the development of spatial thinking as well as focusing on the contributions of phenomenologists existentialists psychologists Marxists and post structuralists to how we occupy live structure and perform spaces and practices of spacing The book emphasises the multiple and partial construction of spaces through the embodied practices of diverse subjects highlighting the contributions of feminists queer theorists anthropologists sociologists and post colonial scholars to academic debates In contrast to contemporary studies which draw a clear line between scientific and particularly quantitative approaches to space and spatiality and more lived human enactments and performances this book highlights the continual influence of different mathematical and philosophical understandings of space and spatiality on everyday western spatial imaginations and registers in the twenty first century Space is possibly the key concept underpinning research in geography as well as being of central importance to scholars and practitioners working across the arts humanities social sciences and physical sciences

The Making of Urban Europe, 1000-1994 Paul M. HOHENBERG,Lynn Hollen Lees,Paul M Hohenberg,2009-06-30 Europe became a land of cities during the last millennium The story told in this book begins with North Sea and Mediterranean traders sailing away from Dorestad and Amalfi and with warrior kings building castles to fortify their conquests It tells of the dynamism of textile towns in Flanders and Ireland While London and Hamburg flourished by reaching out to the world and once vibrant Spanish cities slid into somnolence a Russian urban network slowly grew to rival that of the West Later as the tide of industrialization swept over Europe the most intense urban striving and then settled back into the merchant cities and baroque capitals of an earlier era By tracing the large scale precesses of social economic and political change within cities as well as the evolving relationships between town and country and between city and city

the authors present an original synthesis of European urbanization within a global context They divide their study into three time periods making the early modern era much more than a mere transition from preindustrial to industrial economies Through both general analyzes and incisive case studies Hohenberg and Lees show how cities originated and what conditioned their early development and later growth How did urban activity respond to demographic and technological changes Did the social consequences of urban life begin degradation or inspire integration and cultural renewal New analytical tools suggested by a systems view of urban relations yield a vivid dual picture of cities both as elements in a regional and national hierarchy of central places and also as junctions in a transnational network for the exchange of goods information and influence A lucid text is supplemented by numerous maps illustrations figures and tables and by substantial bibliography Both a general and a scholarly audience will find this book engrossing reading Table of Contents Introduction Urbanization in Perspective PART I The Preindustrial Age eleventh to Fourteenth Centuries 1 Structure and Functions of Medieval Towns 2 Systems of Early Cities 3 The Demography of Preindustrial Cities PART II The Industrial Age Fourteenth to Eighteenth Centuries 4 Cities in the Early Modern European Economy 5 Beyond Baroque Urbanism PART III The Industrial Age Eighteenth to Twentieth Centuries 6 Industrial and the Cities 7 Urban Growth and Urban Systems 8 The Human Consequences of Industrial Urbanization 9 The Evolution and Control of Urban Space 10 Europe's Cities in the Twentieth Century Appendix A A Cyclical Model of an Economy Appendix B Size Distributions and the Ranks Size Rule Notes Bibliography Index

Reviews of this book A readable and ambitious introduction to the long history of European urbanization Economic History Review Reviews of this book A trailblazing history of the transformation of Europe John Barkham Reviews of this book A marvelously compendious account of a millennium of urban development which accomplishes that most difficult of assignments to design a work that will safely introduce the newcomer to the subject and at the same time stimulate professional colleagues to review positions Urban Studies Geography and Ethics James D. Proctor, David M. Smith, 2002-09-11 This book represents a landmark exploration of the common terrain of geography and ethics Drawing together specially commissioned contributions from distinguished geographers across the UK North America and Australasia the place of geography in ethics and of ethics in geography is examined through wide ranging thematic chapters Geography and Ethics is divided into four sections for discussion and exploration of ideas Ethics and Space Ethics and Place Ethics and Nature and Ethics and knowledge all of which point to the rich interplay between geography and moral philosophy or ethics

Including a Symposium on Mary Morgan Luca Fiorito, Scott Scheall, Carlos Eduardo Suprinyak, 2018-10-24 Volume 36B of Research in the History of Economic Thought and Methodology features a symposium reflecting on the significance of Mary Morgan's contributions to the history and philosophy of economics Regional Analysis Carol A. Smith, 2014-05-10 Regional Analysis Volume II Social Systems consists of studies on the general applications of the regional framework for analyzing socioeconomic systems as they exist and develop in territorial environmental systems This volume is concerned with social systems emphasizing the interrelationships among the institutional components of complex societies Marriage and kinship political organization formation of ethnic and cultural territorial groups and stratification systems that are affected by regional environmental variables are also covered This publication is beneficial to social and regional scientists geographers economists social anthropologists archeologists sociologists and political scientists intending to acquire knowledge of the implications of rural urban relations and regional settlement patterns Landscape, Tourism, and Meaning Michelle M. Metro-Roland, Daniel C. Knudsen, Charles E. Greer, 2016-04-22 How do we re theorize tourism By drawing less on the Foucauldian notion of tourism as gazing and instead focusing on the social construction of meaning in the landscape this insightful book provides an innovative and compelling new approach to tourist studies Arguing that in any view of the landscape and in tourism generally there is a multiplicity of insider and outsider meanings the book grounds tourism studies within the framework of social theory and particularly in the social theoretic approaches to landscape Bringing together specialists in tourism and landscape studies to discuss the relationships between the two it finds that issues of identity are a common thread and are raised with regard to the social construction of landscape and its portrayal through tourism The international studies range in scale from regional to national personal to political and from local residents to international tourists highlighting the multiplicity of interpretations and meanings between these scales

Nomadic and Indigenous Spaces Judith Miggelbrink, Joachim Otto Habeck, Nuccio Mazzullo, Peter Koch, 2016-05-06 This volume is devoted to aspects of space that have thus far been largely unexplored How space is perceived and cognised has been discussed from different stances but there are few analyses of nomadic approaches to spatiality Nor is there a sufficient number of studies on indigenous interpretations of space despite the importance of territory and place in definitions of indigeneity At the intersection of geography and anthropology the authors of this volume combine general reflections on spatiality with case studies from the Circumpolar North and other nomadic settings Spatial perceptions and practices have been profoundly transformed by new technologies as well as by new modes of social and political interaction How do these changes play out in the everyday lives identifications and political projects of nomadic and indigenous people This question has been broached from two seemingly divergent stances spatial cognition on the one hand and production of space on the other Bringing these two approaches together this volume re aligns the different strings of scholarship on spatiality making them applicable and relevant for indigenous and nomadic conceptualizations of space place and territory

Networks and Geographies of Global Social Policy Diffusion Michael Windzio, Ivo Mossig, Fabian Besche-Truthe, Helen Seitzer, 2021-11-24 This open access book analyses the global diffusion of social policy as a process driven by multiplex ties between countries in global social networks The contributions analyze links between countries via global trade colonial history similarity in culture and spatial proximity Networks are viewed as the structural backbone of the diffusion process and diffusion is analysed via several subfields of social policy in order to interrogate which network dimensions drive this process The focus is on a global perspective of social policy diffusion via networks and it is the first book to explicitly follow this macro quantitative perspective on diffusion at a global scale whilst also comparing different networks The collection tests the network structures in terms of their relevance to the diffusion process in different subfields of social policy such as old age and survivor pensions labor and labor markets health and long term care education and training and family and gender policy The book will therefore be invaluable to students and researchers of global social policy sociology political science international relations organization theory and economics Great Minds in Regional Science, Vol. 3 Peter Batey, David Plane, 2025-07-31 This book is the third volume in a series on Great Minds in Regional Science which seeks to present a contemporary view on the scientific relevance of the work done by great thinkers in regional science This volume presents among others Walter Christaller Benjamin H Stevens William Alonso and François Perroux Each chapter combines factual biographical information about the Great Mind a description of their major contributions and a discussion of the broader context of their work as well as an assessment of its current relevance scientific recognition and policy impact The book attempts to fill a gap in our knowledge and to respond to the growing interest in the formation and development of the field of regional science and its key influential figures Heritage J.D.

Fladmark, 2014-02-04 This volume deals with policy methods and techniques for the stewardship of our land and our cultural assets The focus is on interpretation and presentation of heritage themes and the papers should be of interest to those concerned with school and university curricula those working in museums and galleries and those in charge of parks and tourist enterprises Individual contributions celebrate achievements and debate issues relating to the natural and built environment the future of green tourism planning and interpretation in museums parks and private estates The authors include Professor David Lowenthal on cultural landscapes Charles McKean on architecture David Macmillan on the arts John Purser on music Elisabeth Luard on cooking the Earl of Glasgow on the opening of a family estate to the public and Gordon Baxter on the heritage of one of Scotland's great enterprise stories in the food industry The main theme of the book is that we do not always take enough pride in our heritage which is often undervalued and neglected Positive action is required to raise awareness to foster respect for our inheritance and to generate a new kind of enterprise that will not endanger the heritage resources on which we depend for enjoyment and jobs Allegheny Portage Railroad National Historic Site and Johnston Flood National Memorial, Draft General Management and Development Plan B1; Draft General Management and Development Plan, Environmental Assessment (EA), 1977

The Routledge Handbook of the Philosophy of Economics Conrad Heilmann, Julian Reiss, 2021-11-29 The most fundamental questions of economics are often philosophical in nature and philosophers have since the very beginning of Western philosophy asked many questions that current observers would identify as economic The Routledge Handbook of Philosophy of Economics is an outstanding reference source for the key topics problems and debates at the intersection of philosophical and economic inquiry It captures this field of countless exciting interconnections affinities and opportunities for cross fertilization Comprising 35 chapters by a diverse team of contributors from all over the globe the Handbook is divided into eight sections I Rationality II Cooperation and Interaction III Methodology IV Values V Causality and Explanation VI Experimentation and Simulation VII Evidence VIII Policy The volume is essential reading for students and researchers in economics and philosophy who are interested in exploring the interconnections between the two disciplines It is also a valuable resource for those in related fields like political science sociology and the humanities Geographies of Knowledge and Power Peter

Meusburger, Derek Gregory, Laura Suarsana, 2015-06-24 Interest in relations between knowledge power and space has a long tradition in a range of disciplines but it was reinvigorated in the last two decades through critical engagement with Foucault and Gramsci This volume focuses on relations between knowledge and power It shows why space is fundamental in any exercise of power and explains which roles various types of knowledge play in the acquisition support and legitimization of power Topics include the control and manipulation of knowledge through centers of power in historical contexts the geopolitics of knowledge about world politics media control in twentieth century cartography in modern war the power of words the changing face of Islamic authority and the role of Millennialism in the United States This book offers insights from disciplines such as geography anthropology scientific theology Assyriology and communication science Geography and Earth Sciences Publications, 1973-1975 ,1978 Bd 1 1968 1972 Bd 2 1973 1975
