Too many times we read books, articles or papers on Christianity and we are left to wonder where the author is coming from or what his approach is for interpreting scripture. So right here at the start I would like to declare my method of interpretation and on which translation of the scripture I rest. First I take the Word of God, scriptures to be infallible, inerrant and without contradiction. I believe that God said what he meant and meant what he said and it is our task and responsibility to rightly divide the Word of truth. On all matters of life and spirit the scripture is the final authority. In saying this the scripture will be the primary source material for the whole of this paper. When speaking of the scripture I am referring to the authorized version 1611. I believe this is the preserved Word of God for the English speaking people. I realize this is another hotly debated topic and we do not have the time or the space to debate it here as this would be a distraction from the main topic. I will say though outside of textual criticisms, biblical preservation, manuscript evidence, dynamic or formal equivalence translation and a host of other topics in this debate it all comes down to this: who is the final authority? We as Christians need to take a stand; we need to pick a version or translation that we believe is the Word of God and say, "Thus saith the Word of God." If we do not we set ourselves up as the final authority and not God. We don't like how one version says something so we go to another and another until we find one that says what we want or that proves our point. This is not being transformed by the Word of God but making the Word of God conform to us and our biases. It is a matter of faith.

Precepts for Kingdom Living Roderick L. Evans, 2010-11-07

The kingdom of God is revealed through the acceptance of Jesus Christ. He told Nicodemus that unless one is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God. However, those who have received Christ are members of the kingdom of God. There are standards and protocols that exist in the kingdom of God. In this publication we will explore five foundational precepts concerning the kingdom of God. In understanding these precepts one will live a successful life in the kingdom of heaven.

God's Good Earth Jon Garvey, 2019-01-14

God's world was created very good. Genesis chapter 1 tells us and in this book Jon Garvey rediscovers the truth known to the Church for its first 1,500 years but largely forgotten now that the fall of mankind did not lessen that goodness The natural creation does not require any apologies or excuses but rather celebration and praise The author's re-examination of the scriptural evidence the writings of two millennia of Christian theologians and the physical evidence of the world itself lead to the conclusion that we both as Christians and as modern Westerners have badly misunderstood our world Restoring a truer vision of the goodness of the present creation can transform our own lives sharpen the ministry of the church to the world of both people and nature and give us a better understanding of what God always intended to bring about through Christ in the age to come
