Model Wife Six Woman:

Sex and Society in the World of the Orthodox Slavs 900-1700 Eve Levin, 2018-09-05 In this pioneering book Eve Levin explores sexual behavior among the peoples of Serbia Bulgaria and Russia from their conversion to Christianity in the ninth and tenth centuries until the end of the seventeenth century By ranging across all these societies Levin is able to fulfill three basic aims to delineate the general character of sexuality among the Orthodox Slavs to enrich that account by drawing our attention to regional variations in the sexual mores of these peoples and to draw suggestive comparisons between the world of the medieval Orthodox Slavs and their contemporaries in the Latin West Levin begins with a study of the ecclesiastical image of sexuality as expressed in didactic and literary texts showing that the Orthodox Church was deeply suspicious of sexuality Her second chapter on canon law and marriage examines the conditions for marriage divorce and remarriage the obligation of the conjugal relationship and the impact of these rules on social order Levin looks at church regulations concerning sexual relations among relatives by blood marriage spiritual kinship and adoption in Chapter Three and she devotes Chapter Four to prohibited sexual practices both inside and outside of marriage In the fifth chapter she studies Russian and South Slavic responses to rape and demonstrates that these societies simultaneously censured violence against women and sanctioned the attitudes and social structures that justified it Chapter Six deals with the rules on sexual conduct for the clergy whose job it was to enforce sexual precepts Throughout her work Levin argues that despite its conviction that sexual expression was diabolical the medieval Orthodox Church approached sexual matters in a surprisingly practical way its official sexual ethic corresponded to a great degree with popular views Historians of the Slavic world both medieval and modern will welcome this accessible study It should also attract comparativists who work in such fields as church history the history of women and the family and the history of sexuality

Women's Life Writing Valérie Baisnée-Keay, Corinne Bigot, Nicoleta Alexoae-Zagni, Stephanie Genty, Claire

Bazin, 2022-01-12 This book examines the relationship between words and images in various life writing works produced by nineteenth to twenty first century American and British women. It addresses the politics of images in women's life writing, contending that the presence or absence of images is often strategic. Including a range of different forms of life writing, chapters draw on traditional auto biographies, travel narratives, memoirs, diaries, autofiction, cancer narratives, graphic memoirs, artistic installations, quilts, and online performances as life writing moves from page to screen and other media. The book explores a wide range of women who have crossed the boundary between text and image, painters who have become writers, novelists who have become painters, writers who hesitate between images and words, models who seize the camera, and artists who use the frame as a page. The Ohio Cultivator, 1858 The Concept of Woman, Volume 3 Prudence

Allen, 2017-01-05 The culmination of a lifetime's scholarly work, this pioneering study by Sister Prudence Allen traces the concept of woman in relation to man in Western thought from ancient times to the present. In her third and final volume, Allen covers the years 1500-2015, continuing her chronological approach to individual authors and also offering systematic arguments to defend certain philosophical positions over against others. Building on her work from Volumes I and II, Allen draws on four communities of discourse: Academic, Humanist, Religious, and Satirical, as she traces several recurring strands of sex and gender identity from the Renaissance to the present. Now complete, Allen's magisterial study is a valuable resource for scholars and students in the fields of women's studies, philosophy, history, theology, literary studies, and political science.

Gender-Based Violence Yanyi K. Djamba, Sitawa R. Kimuna, 2015-06-10 This book offers new perspectives on gender-based violence in three regions where the subject has been taboo in everyday discourse, often due to patriarchal cultural norms that limit women's autonomy. The contributions to this book provide rare insight into not only the levels and the socio-demographic determinants of domestic violence, but topics ranging from men's attitudes toward wife beating, domestic violence-related adolescent deaths, and women's health problems due to sexual and physical abuse. With a comprehensive introduction that provides a comparative international research framework for discussing gender-based violence in these three unique regions, this volume provides a key basis for understanding gender-based violence on a more global level. Part I on Africa covers men's attitudes towards domestic violence, the impact of poverty and fertility, the association between adolescent deaths and domestic violence, and the link between domestic abuse and HIV. Part II on the Middle East covers the importance of consanguinity on domestic violence in Egypt and Jordan the effects of physical abuse on reproductive health and the link between political unrests and women's experience and attitudes towards domestic violence Part III on India shows how sexual abuse puts women at risk of reproductive tract infections and sexually transmitted infections as well as the role of gender norms in wife abuse and the role of youth aggressive behavior in nonconsensual sex With such a deep and broad coverage of factors of intimate partner abuse this book serves as a reference document for researchers decision makers and organizations that are searching for ways to reduce gender based domestic violence This book is of interest for researchers in Criminology and Criminal Justice as well as Sociology Social Work Public Health and Human Rights Life and Light for Heathen Women ,1909 The Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible James Strong,1894 Bulletin of Pharmacy ,1924 Plays of the 19th and 20th Centuries ,1889
