Crime and Madness in Modern Austria Rebecca S. Thomas, 2021-02-03 This collection of essays explores the changing history rhetoric politics and representation of crime and madness in modern Austria From the emergence of Viennese modernism to the post modern moment the myths metaphors and realities of crime and madness have unfolded in the shadow of larger cultural questions regarding cultural norms gender war and national identity Historically based contributions illuminate such diverse cultural realities as the evolution of psychiatry as medical practice asylum practices in the early twentieth century and Austrian participation in and responses to terror and war crimes From these investigations proceeds the clear insight that cultural responses to crime and madness are often steeped in mythmaking as much as objective policy and practice Conversely literary and metaphorical representations of crime and madness reveal attitudes and cultural realities about the Austrian society that produced them and which they reflect

State and Society in Early Modern Austria Charles W. Ingrao, 1994 The history of the Habsburg Monarchy and Austria in the early modern period continues to capture the interest of many scholars This collection of essays by twenty leading authorities from the United States Austria Germany Great Britain and the Netherlands focuses on the interplay between the Habsburg government and a multiplicity of social aspects As a whole State and Society in Early Modern Austria reexamines and sometimes debunks old views about the Habsburg Monarchy and provides insight into the state of current historical thinking on the early modern state Moreover this broad focus will help the reader understand the complex cultural heritage of the turbulent nationalities of East Central Europe Specific essays examine the ruling elite's attempts to establish cultural hegemony through its control over religious minorities government patronage and both literary and visual media Other essays examine the interplay between economic and social policy the tension between free enterprise and the Habsburg regime's attempts to meet the immediate needs of the masses of indigent and the monarchy's interaction with German states and the Balkans The volume is divided into five sections Religion and the Counter Reformation Government and Culture during the Baroque Government and Economy Government and the People during the Aufklärung and Foreign Policy
