Modern China And A New World:

Modern China and the New World Randall Doyle, Zhang Boshu, 2011-12-16 Modern China and the New World focuses upon a few of the main topics associated with China's recent rise to global prominence. Dr. Randall Doyle discusses the impact that China will have on the geopolitical balance throughout the Asia Pacific region as well as the effect of China's new power on U.S.-China relations in the 21st century. Dr. Zhang Boshu addresses China's continuing struggles with Tibet and the Dalai Lama. He also discusses the existing political system within China today and the future possibility of democratic reforms occurring and transforming Chinese society itself. Modern China and the New World presents these important topics by incorporating not just traditional reading and research but also integrating the personal experiences of the authors. Art and Revolution in Modern China Ralph Croizier, 2023-11-15 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice, reach, and impact. Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893, Voices Revived makes high-quality, peer-reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print-on-demand technology. This title was originally published in 1988. Women in Chinese Buddhism Jessica Huset Tilton, 2025-10-30 Tilton examines how cultural, political, and economic forces exert pressures on the levels of freedom and equality for female Buddhists within the Buddhist community as well as women's rights within society. The book charts women's spiritual paths over four periods beginning with the Buddha and his revolutionary stance on women to the creation of a fully ordained female Saṅgha in China which peaked during the Tang dynasty and finally to its resurgence in the late Qing and early Republic period ending with a sharp decline to near extinction during the Mao Zedong years 1949-1976. As the nun and lay communities arise directly from the broader female community, Tilton argues that there is a direct correlation between women's rights issues and those of liberties for Buddhist women within the Saṅgha. Specifically, women's equality within this world as well as their right to achieve liberation from this world or saṃsāra. Charting the evolution of Buddhist women in China across multiple centuries, this book is a valuable resource for academics, researchers, and students of Asian Studies, Buddhist Studies, as well as those interested in the intersection of gender and religion. Perspectives on Modern China Kenneth Lieberthal, Joyce Kallgren, Roderick MacFarquhar, Frederic Wakeman, 2016-09-16 The conveners, the editors of this book of the September 1989 Four Anniversaries China Conference in Annapolis asked the contributors to look back from that point in time to consider four major events in modern Chinese history in the perspective of the rapid changes that were shaping the Chinese society, economy, polity, and sense of place in the world in the 1980s, a time when China was making rapid strides toward becoming more integrated with the outside world. With contributions by distinguished scholars in the field, the four anniversaries considered are the High Qing, the May Fourth Movement, forty years of communism in China, and ten years of the Deng era. Discourses of Weakness in Modern China Iwo Amelung, 2020-06-24 Die Vorstellung China sei ein schwacher Staat, der in einer zunehmend darwinistisch konzipierten Welt nicht konkurrenzfähig sei, beherrschte vom Ende des 19. Jahrhunderts besonders seit dem verlorenen Krieg gegen Japan 1894/95 bis in die 1930er Jahre den politischen Diskurs in China selbst wie auch in anderen Ländern der Welt. Der Band zeichnet diese Untergangsgeschichte des kranken Mannes Asiens nach und hilft somit das Selbstverständnis und die Identität des heutigen China zu verstehen.

Quest for Status Deborah Welch Larson, Alexei Shevchenko, 2019-02-26 A look at how the desire to improve international status affects Russia's and China's foreign policies. Deborah Welch Larson and Alexei Shevchenko argue that the desire for world status plays a key role in shaping the foreign policies of China and Russia. Applying social identity theory, the idea that individuals derive part of their identity from larger communities to nations, they contend that China and Russia have used various modes of emulation, competition, and creativity to gain recognition from other countries and thus validate their respective identities. To make this argument, they analyze numerous cases, including Catherine the Great's attempts to westernize Russia, China's identity crises in the nineteenth century, and both countries' responses to the end of the Cold War. The authors employ a multifaceted method of measuring status, factoring in influence and inclusion in multinational organizations, military clout, and cultural sway among other considerations. Combined with historical precedent, this socio-psychological approach helps explain current trends in Russian and Chinese foreign policy.

Redefining Nationalism in Modern China S. Shen, 2007-11-13 Why do the Chinese sometimes speak out against the U.S. and yet at other times remain silent? This book uses a variety of previously untapped sources, including a range of news sources within China itself, weblogs, and interviews with prominent figures, to make a powerful new argument about the causes and consequences of the new Chinese nationalism.

A New Literary History of Modern China David Der-wei Wang, 2017-05-22 Featuring over 140 Chinese and non-Chinese contributors, this landmark volume, edited by David Der-wei Wang, explores unconventional forms as well as traditional genres, emphasizes Chinese authors' influence on foreign writers, as well as China's receptivity to outside literary influences, and offers vibrant, contrasting voices and points of view.

New World Orderings Lisa Rofel, Carlos Rojas, 2022-11-09 The contributors to New World Orderings demonstrate that China's twenty-first century rise occurs not only through economics and state politics but equally through the mutual entanglements of overlapping social, economic, and cultural worlds in Southeast Asia, Africa, and Latin America. They show how the Chinese state has sought to reconfigure the nation's position in the world and the centrality of trade, labor, religion, migration, gender, race, and literature to this reconfiguration. Among other topics, the contributors examine China's post-Bandung cultural diplomacy with African nations, how West African pastor-entrepreneurs in China interpreted and preached the prosperity doctrine, the diversity of Chinese Argentine social relations in the soy supply chain, and the ties between China and India within the complex history of inter-Asian exchange and Chinese migration to Southeast Asia. By examining China's long historical relationship with the Global South, this volume presents a non-state-centric history of China that foregrounds the importance of transnational, communicative, and imaginative worldmaking processes and interactions.
