Taiwanese Literature as World Literature Pei-yin Lin, Wen-chi Li, 2022-12-15 Owing to Taiwan's multi ethnic nature and palimpsestic colonial past Taiwanese literature is naturally multilingual Although it can be analyzed through frameworks of Japanophone literature and Chinese literature and the more provocative Sinophone literature only through viewing Taiwanese literature as world literature can we redress the limits of national identity and fully examine writers transculturation practice globally minded vision and the politics of its circulation Throughout the colonial era Taiwanese writers gained inspiration from global literary trends mainly but not exclusively through the medium of Japanese and Chinese Modernism was the mainstream literary style in 1960s Taiwan and since the 1980s Taiwanese literature has demonstrated a unique trajectory shaped jointly by postmodernism and postcolonialism These movements exhibit Taiwanese writers creative adaptations of world literary thought as a response to their local and trans national reality During the postwar years Taiwanese literature began to be more systematically introduced to world readers through translation Over the past few decades Taiwanese authors and their translated works have participated in global conversations such as those on climate change the post truth era and ethnic and gender equality Bringing together scholars and translators from Europe North America and East Asia the volume focuses on three interrelated themes the framing and worlding ploys of Taiwanese literature Taiwanese writers experience of transculturation and politics behind translating Taiwanese literature The volume stimulates new ways of conceptualizing Taiwanese literature demonstrates remarkable cases of Taiwanese authors co option of world trends in their Taiwan concerned writing and explores its readership and dissemination

Translation of Contemporary Taiwan Literature in a Cross-Cultural Context Szu-Wen Kung, 2021-03-01 Translation of Contemporary Taiwan Literature in a Cross Cultural Context explores the social cultural and linguistic implications of translation of Taiwan literature for transnational cultural exchange It demonstrates principally how asymmetrical cultural relationships mediation processes and ideologies of the translation players constitute the culture specific translation activity as a highly contested site where translation can reconstruct and rewrite the literature and the culture it represents Four main theoretical themes are explored in relation to such translation activity sociological studies cultural and rewriting studies English as a lingua franca and social and performative linguistics These offer insightful perspectives on the translation as an interpretive encounter between not only two languages two cultural systems and assumptions taking place but also among various translation mediators This book will be useful to scholars and students working on translation and cultural studies China Taiwan literature studies and literature studies in cross cultural contexts

Baudelaire in China Gloria Bien, 2012-12-14 Baudelaire's work entered China in the twentieth century amidst political and social upheavals accompanied by a literary revolution that called for classical models and modes of expression to be replaced by vernacular language and contemporary content Chinese writers welcomed their meeting with the West and openly embraced Western literature as providing models in developing their new literature Baudelaire's reception in China provides a representative study of this meeting of East and West His work which has been declared to stand between tradition and modernity also lies at the intersection between classical and modern literature in China Many of the best known and most highly regarded writers in twentieth century China were drawn to Baudelaire's work and some addressed it directly in their own writings Bien draws upon H R Jauss's theory of the shifting and expanding horizons of expectation in the reading and interpretation of a literary work and upon James J Y Lin's notion of worlds received and created by both author and reader to show how poetic lines images and ideas as well as Chinese critics' comments eventually weave into a rich picture of Baudelaire's reception in China relations and sexuality Following the thematic essays are the individual entries over forty for China over fifty for Japan and almost thirty for Korea featuring everything from detailed analyses of the works of Tanizaki Jun ichiro and Murakami Haruki to far ranging explorations of avant garde fiction in China and postwar novels in Korea Arrayed chronologically each entry is self contained though extensive cross referencing affords readers the opportunity to gain a more synoptic view of the work author or movement The unrivaled opportunities for comparative analysis alone make this unique companion an indispensable reference for anyone interested in the burgeoning field of Asian literature Although the literatures of China Japan and Korea are each allotted separate sections the editors constantly kept an eye open to those writers works and movements that transcend national boundaries This includes for example Chinese authors who lived and wrote in Japan Japanese authors who wrote in classical Chinese and Korean authors who write in Japanese whether under the colonial occupation or because they are resident in Japan The waves of modernization can be seen as reaching each of these countries in a staggered fashion with eddies and back flows between them then complicating the picture further This volume provides a vivid sense of this dynamic interplay

Zhou Mengdie's Poetry of Consciousness Lloyd Haft, 2006 The Taiwan writer Zhou Mengdie 1921 is one of the greatest living Chinese language poets His poems are full of Buddhist allusions which have earned him the nickname poet monk but as

Lloyd Haft shows in this in depth study Zhou's remarkably cosmopolitan poems can be read equally well in the light of Freudian dream analysis Husserl's phenomenology and the theory of the palindrome and related literary forms Zhou's true focus is not limited to Oriental philosophy or Taiwanese settings It is on the very nature of consciousness In Zhou's poetry traditional Chinese terms and images rather than imposing cultural boundaries are re framed in a sophisticated modern context which brings out their significance for worldwide readers All poems discussed including many in full or extensive translation are presented both in English and in the Chinese original This book will reveal new perspectives to readers interested in modern Taiwan literature comparative literature Chinese poetry and poetry in general and the interfaces of poetry with philosophy psychology and the search for identity Frontier Taiwan Michelle Yeh, N. Taiwanese Poetry Wen-chi Li, 2025-04-04 Li and his contributors explore how Taiwanese poets conceptualize their identities employing multiple voices to challenge political hegemony and re evaluate Taiwan's colonial legacy and nationalism Poetry in Taiwan exists at the intersection of Taiwanese Mandarin and Japanese languages and traditions The rise of China has contributed to the shrinking of Taiwan's international space leading to Taiwanese cultures often being viewed as tributaries or by products of China on the global stage They focus on Taiwanese poetry to highlight a history of local resistance in gender identity cultural and linguistic contexts They deconstruct the hegemony and homogeneity of Chineseness exploring multiple ways to reposition Taiwan on the map of world literature Essential reading for scholars of Sinophone literature as well as those interested in the history and culture of Taiwan Chicorel Index to Poetry in Anthologies and Collections in Print Marietta Chicorel, 1974
