Altoma, Modern Arabic Literature Salih J. Altoma, 1975 Modern Arabic Literature in Translation Salih J. Altoma, 2005 This indispensable guide to modern Arabic literature in English translation features not only a comprehensive bibliography but also chapters on fiction drama poetry and autobiography as well as a special chapter on Iraq's Arabic literature By focusing on Najib Mahfuz one of Arabic Literature's luminaries and on poetry a major if not the major genre of the region Altoma assesses the progress made towards a wider reception of Arabic writing throughout the western world Iraq's Modern Arabic Literature Salih J. Altoma, 2010-10-14 Covering 60 years of materials this bibliography cites translations studies and other writings which represent Iraq's national literature including recent works of numerous Iraqi writers living in Western exile The volume serves as a guide to three interrelated data o Translations that have appeared since 1950 as books or as individual items poems short stories novel extracts plays diaries in print and non print publications in Iraq and other Arab and English speaking countries including Australia Canada the United Kingdom and the United States o Relevant studies and other secondary sources including selected reviews and author interviews which cover Iraqi literature and writers o The scope of displacement or dispersion of Iraqi writers artists and other intellectuals who have been uprooted and are now living in exile in Arab or other Western countries By drawing attention to a largely overlooked but relevant and extensive literature accessible in English this first of its kind book will serve as an invaluable guide to students of contemporary Iraq modern Arabic literature and other fields such as women's studies postcolonial studies third world literature American Arab Muslim Relations and Diaspora studies Modern Arabic Literature Muḥammad Muṣṭafá Badawī, 1992 This volume provides an authoritative survey of creative writing in Arabic from the mid nineteenth century to the present day Modern Arabic Literature in North Africa Eric Linn Ormsby, 1982 Modern Arabic Literature Reuven Snir, 2017-06-02 The study of Arabic literature is blossoming This book provides a comprehensive theoretical framework to help research this highly prolific and diverse production of contemporary literary texts Based on the achievements of historical poetics in particular those of Russian formalism and its theoretical legacy this framework offers flexible transparent and unbiased tools to understand the relevant contexts within the literary system The aim is to enhance our understanding of Arabic literature throw light on areas of literary production that traditionally have been neglected and stimulate others to take up the fascinating challenge of mapping out and exploring them Iraq's Modern Arabic Literature Salih J. Altoma, 2010-10-14

Covering 60 years of materials this bibliography cites translations studies and other writings which represent Iraq's national literature including recent works of numerous Iraqi writers living in Western exile The volume serves as a guide to three interrelated data o Translations that have appeared since 1950 as books or as individual items poems short stories novel extracts plays diaries in print and non print publications in Iraq and other Arab and English speaking countries including Australia Canada the United Kingdom and the United States o Relevant studies and other secondary sources including selected reviews and author interviews which cover Iraqi literature and writers o The scope of displacement or dispersion of Iraqi writers artists and other intellectuals who have been uprooted and are now living in exile in Arab or other Western countries By drawing attention to a largely overlooked but relevant and extensive literature accessible in English this first of its kind book will serve as an invaluable guide to students of contemporary Iraq modern Arabic literature and other fields such as women's studies postcolonial studies third world literature American Arab Muslim Relations and Diaspora studies

Arabic Materials in English Translation Margaret Anderson, 1980 This bibliography of over 1600 items represents for the most part English language translations of original Arabic works A few of the translations listed here most notably of those of writings by Hippocrates Aristotle and Galen are not originally Arabic but are translations made of Arabic editions The aim of the compilation is two fold first to provide both students and the general public with an interest in the Arab world but with little or no facility in the Arabic language as full a listing of translated Arabic materials as possible and also to provide for those doing research in such fields as history and history of science political science comparative religion comparative literature and law and touching on the Arab world only occasionally with a partial substitute for the original materials whose language they have had no previous need to master Modern Arabic Literature, 1951* Critical Perspectives on Modern Arabic Literature Issa J. Boullata, 1980 Critical Perspectives on Modern Arabic Literature Issa J. Boullata, 1980 Modern Arabic Literature Paul Starkey, 2006-07-20 This book provides a succinct introduction to modern Arabic literature of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Designed primarily as an introductory textbook for English speaking undergraduates it will also be of interest to a more general readership interested in the contemporary Middle East or in comparative and modern literature The work attempts to situate the development of modern Arabic literature in the context of the medieval Arabic literary tradition as well as the new literary forms derived from the West exploring the interaction between social political and cultural change in the Middle East and the development of a modern Arabic literary tradition Poetry prose writing and the theatre are discussed in separate chapters The work overall aims to give a balanced account of the subject reflecting the different pace of literary development in diverse parts of the Arab world including North Africa Key Features A concise introduction to a field that deserves to be better known in the West Clear presentation based on extensive classroom experience of teaching the subject Guidance on other sources of further information Extensive bibliography with list of works in English translation A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J.

Marcuse,1990-01-01 This ambitious undertaking is designed to acquaint students teachers and researchers with reference sources in any branch of English studies which Marcuse defines as all those subjects and lines of critical and scholarly inquiry presently pursued by members of university departments of English language and literature Within each of 24 major sections Marcuse lists and annotates bibliographies guides reviews of research encyclopedias dictionaries journals and reference histories The annotations and various indexes are models of clarity and usefulness and cross references are liberally supplied where appropriate Although cost conscious librarians will probably consider the several other excellent literary bibliographies in print such as James L Harner s Literary Research Guide Modern Language Assn of America 1989 larger academic libraries will want Marcuse s volume Jack Bales Mary Washington Coll Lib Fredericksburg Va Library Journal

Modern Arabic Literature in Translation Salih J. Altoma,2005 This indispensable guide to modern Arabic literature in English translation features not only a comprehensive bibliography but also chapters on fiction drama poetry and autobiography as well as a special chapter on Iraq s Arabic literature By focusing on Najib Mahfuz one of Arabic Literature s luminaries and on poetry a major if not the major genre of the region Altoma assesses the progress made towards a wider reception of Arabic writing throughout the western world

Tradition, Modernity, and Postmodernity in Arabic Literature Kamal Abdel-Malek,Wael Hallaq,2000-07-18 The collection of essays contained in this volume is written by a group of prominent scholars of Arabic literature They explore various manifestations of traditional as well as modern and postmodern themes and techniques in Arabic literature This is the first time the tripartite concepts of tradition modernity and postmodernity in Arabic literary works are explored and analyzed in one volume It illustrates very clearly the fact that Arabic literature has kept abreast not only of the primarily modern literary movements in the West that is amply illustrated by many studies to date but also of the postmodern condition Scholars in the fields of Arabic literature Islamic Studies Comparative Literature postmodern studies among others will find this collection of essays of great interest

Selected Studies in Modern Arabic Narrative Roger Allen,2019-02-15 No Western scholar has contributed as much to the study of modern Arabic narrative as has Roger Allen His doctoral dissertation was the very first Oxford D Phil in modern Arabic literature completed in 1968 under the supervision of Mustafa Badawi That same year he took a position in Arabic language and literature at the University of Pennsylvania the oldest professorial post in Arabic in the United States Roger Allen has been phenomenally prolific fifty books and translations two hundred articles and counting on Arabic language pedagogy on translation on Arabic literary history criticism and literature He is also one of the most decorated and acclaimed translators of Arabic literature The present volume brings together sixteen of Roger Allen s articles on modern Arabic narrative with a focus on genre translation and literary history and features analyses of the works of Rashid Abu Jadrah Bensalem Himmich Yusuf Idris Naguib Mahfouz and Tayeb Salih

The Contemporary Middle Eastern Scene Gustav Stein,Gustav Steinbach,2012-12-06 The contributions to this volume are based on papers read at an international conference held in Hamburg in May 1978 Some of them are reprinted in their original form others have been slightly modified in order to incorporate more recent findings Since the overall concern is Middle Eastern development the various contributions deal with a wide range of problems Studies on the Middle East are more often than not one sided because of the pre dominating interest in the Arab Israeli conflict and the economic factors relating to the supply of oil At the Hamburg Conference however the participants concentrated mainly on examining such aspects of the situation as are far too often relegated to the side lines In order to illustrate what those neglected topics are one should refer to two major examples 1 the religious cultural identity of Arabs and Israelis 2 the tackling of political issues in Arab and Israeli literature      Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, Library of Congress.
