Nursing Homes The Family's Journey:

Nursing Homes Peter S. Silin, 2001-05-29 Being the family member of someone in a nursing home is part of a difficult and painful process that begins long before a loved one enters the home. Focusing on the psychological, emotional, and social aspects of that process, Nursing Homes: The Family's Journey gives family members important practical advice and emotional support and it explains the intricacies of care and nursing homes. Peter S. Silin approaches his subject with compassion and sensitivity, guiding readers through the entire process. Section one helps caregivers cope with difficult decisions and deal with the emotional issues that arise. Section two describes nursing homes and how they work and it outlines how to choose a home. Section three explains how to prepare for the day a relative moves into a nursing home and suggests ways to help the resident settle in. The fourth section focuses on the family member's role in solving problems, obtaining quality care, and visiting, and it offers advice about how to deal with death and dying. After each chapter are real-life vignettes written by caregivers which help validate and support the reader. In assisting their loved ones through the transition to life in a nursing home, one of the greatest obstacles families face is a dearth of practical information and sympathetic experience. This book will help fill the gap for family members and their infirm relatives as well as for social workers and family therapists. It will also be a valuable tool for nursing home administrators and care staff.

THE FLINTHILLS FAMILY-Our Journey to the Cross Bob Massey, 2017-05-04 Bob Massey was born during the depression in Wichita KS The only job available to his father was as bouncer in a nightclub and his mother was fry cook They lived in a small apartment in the back of the nightclub until Bob was 2 years old when they moved to a farm near Udall KS Two brothers were born during the years on the farm In 1943 his parents divorced and his father was immediately drafted Bob lived with grandparents in western KS during the war and because his father suffered shell shock upon his return the boys were sent to live with their mom and a very harsh stepfather who expected them to work many hours a day on their farm Bob survived a near fatal accident at age twelve and upon recovery developed a devil may care attitude to cover his anger and hurt Bob married his high school sweetheart and they had five children His title shows where he lives how he came to know the Lord and how the death of his oldest son led the family to the cross and tells of ministry developed from that experience An American Geography: One Family's Journey Jill P May, 2016-07-26

This one family's journey across the unsettled West demonstrates how its understandings of family identity and selfhood were fostered Beginning in the late 1880s each member's perspective of the past and the future evolved as they moved from the Midwest to the West and finally settled in various regions of the United States This chronicle of family movement and cultural assimilation contains an ideology of America that often frames stories told about family and history Reconciliation with War: A Family Journey Janelle Kaye, MA; Charles Sidney W, 2013-10-31 Charles Willsher who received the Distinguished Service Cross for his service during WWII never fully recovered from his wounds His wife and daughter became the victims of his inner war In the 1980s he began his own healing journey by telling his story to others At the same time his daughter embarked on her journey to healing and reconciliation with her family After his death his daughter uncovered his memoir and decided to include it along with their family story in hopes that it would inform and inspire others who are also dealing with the trauma that war leaves behind The Truth About Nursing Homes And Rehab Facilities. What Patients And Families Must Know Now! Cristian Santibanez,

The Journey's End Michael D Connelly, 2023-04-04 In the tradition of Atul Gawande's Being Mortal this compassionate work helps individuals develop a more accepting view of dying while teaching them what to expect and how to navigate the healthcare system at the end of life In elderhood the health care system has a narrow view of how to provide care It focuses on extending a patient's life at all costs with an over reliance on machines and procedures instead of caring holistically for the person Accordingly many of us will likely spend our final weeks in long term care facilities or an ICU Dying at home peacefully and surrounded by family is almost impossible in our world and our fear of death is a major contributor to this impossibility Fittingly the central idea of this book is that in old age or when facing a terminal diagnosis it is more important to understand your life rather than to extend it While this may seem simple its implications are profound A natural death means accepting that at some point we are old enough or sick enough to die In our cynical and overly clinical age it is difficult to reflect on the meaning of one's life but that kind of honest introspection is exactly what we need Accordingly The Journey's End seeks to help people manage their healthcare their expectations and their decisions in the final phase of life Remembrances of Our Family's Extraordinary Journeys Maria E. Faith, 2021-08-11 This is an autobiographical account of my childhood journeys with my parents 4 older sisters and 2 older brothers My parents immigrated to America in the first quarter of the 1900s with their families they met and were married in Arizona and 3 sisters and 1 brother were born there and I and 1 brother and 1 sister were born in California A large part of the book deals with the struggles of looking for work in various regions in these two states and the resulting uprooting of family to go and temporarily live where work was found There were many sacrifices made to keep family together The other part of the book reveals the personal struggles I had because of moving to Manzanero BC Mexico in 1958 with my mother and attending the local Village School Struggles Yes but soon overcome by the loving friendships developed with the Villagers Shopkeepers Teachers and Students Fun was had but there were a few God sent events that became life changing experiences for me
