Olympia Part 2:

The Apostolic Fathers, Second Edition, Part 2, Volume 1 Joseph B. Lightfoot, 2024-02-08 Shakespeare and the Just War Tradition Paola Pugliatti, 2016-04-01 Brought to light in this study is a connection between the treatment of war in Shakespeare's plays and the issue of the just war which loomed large both in religious and in lay treatises of Shakespeare's time. The book re-reads Shakespeare's representations of war in light of both the changing historical and political contexts in which they were produced and of Shakespeare's possible connection with the culture and ideology of the European just war tradition. But to discuss Shakespeare's representations of war means for Pugliatti not simply to examine his work from a literary point of view or to historicize those representations in connection with the discourses and the practice of war which were produced in his time; it also means to consider or re-consider present-day debates for or against war and the kind of war ideology which is trying to assert itself in our time in light of the tradition which shaped those discourses and representations and which still substantiates our moral view of war. Bulletin Washington (State). Division of Mines and Geology, 1910

Bibliography of Washington Geology and Geography Gretchen O'Donnell, 1913 Bulletin - Washington Geological Survey, 1913 A Preliminary Report on the Quincy Valley Irrigation Project Washington Geological Survey (1911-1921), 1912 The Body in History, Culture, and the Arts Justyna Jajszczok, Aleksandra Musiał, 2019-03-27 The aim of this book is to explore the body in various historical contexts and to take it as a point of departure for broader historiographical projects. The chapters in the volume present the ways in which the body constitutes a valuable and productive object of historical analysis especially as a lens through which to trace histories of social, political, and cultural phenomena and processes. More specifically, the authors use the body as a tool for critical re-examination of particular histories of human experience and of societal and cultural practices, thus contributing to the burgeoning area of body history in terms of both specific case studies as well as historiography in general. Law, Visual Culture, and the Show Trial Agata Fijalkowski, 2023-06-20 Addressing the relationship between law and the visual, this book examines the importance of photography in Central East and Southeast European show trials. The dispensation of justice during communist rule in Albania, East Germany, and Poland was reliant on legal propaganda, making the visual a fundamental part of the legitimacy of the law. Analysing photographs of trials, this book examines how this message was conveyed to audiences watching and participating in the spectacle of show trials. The book traces how this use of the visual was exported from the Soviet Union and imposed upon its satellite states in the immediate aftermath of the Second World War. It shows how the legal actors and political authorities embraced new photographic technologies to advance their legal propaganda and legal photography Drawing on contemporary theoretical work in the area the book then challenges straightforward accounts of the relationship between law and the visual critically engaging entrenched legal historical narratives in relation to three different protagonists to offer the possibility of reclaiming and rewriting past accounts As its analysis demonstrates the power of images can also be subversive and as such the cases it addresses contribute to the discourse on visual epistemology and open onto contemporary questions about law and its inherent performativity This original and insightful engagement with the relationship between law and the visual will appeal to legal and cultural theorists as well as those with more specific interests in Stalinism and in Central East and Southeast European history Florida, 2000 ,2002 Census of population and housing (2000): Florida Summary Social, Economic, and Housing Characteristics , An Ecological Characterization of the Pacific Northwest Coastal Region: Characterization atlas-watershed unit descriptions ,1980

Cinema after Fascism S. Craig,2010-07-19 Cinema After Fascism considers how postwar European films glance ambivalently backward from the postwar period to the fascist era and delves into issues of gender certainties and spectatorship In this period of film familiar structures of epistemology and historiography reappear as ghostly imprints on postwar celluloid and the remnants of fascist subjectivity walk the streets of postwar cities Through new perspectives on the films of Roberto Rossellini Billy Wilder Carol Reed Alain Resnais and Marguerite Duras this book examines the ways in which filmmakers acknowledge the fascist past Siobhan S Craig reveals that the attempts to reconfigure the idioms of cinema are never fully naturalized and remain highly precarious constructions 1980 Census of Population ,1982 The Palgrave Handbook of Olympic Studies H.
