On Spiders Cyborgs And Being Scared The Feminine And The Sublime:

On Spiders, Cyborgs, and Being Scared Joanna Zylynska, 2001 This book deals with the institutional framework in post socialist after empire spaces It consists of nine case studies and two contributions of a more theoretical nature Each of these analytical narratives sheds some light on the micro politics of organised violence After 1990 Serbs and Croats were competing over access to the resources needed for institution building and state building Fear in turn triggered ethnic mobilisation An unprofessional riot of Serbs in the Krajina region developed into a professional war between Serbs and Croats in Croatia in which several thousand died and several hundred thousand people were forcefully expelled from their homes The Herceg Bosnian style of resistance can be surprisingly effective It is known that most of the heroin transported along the Balkans route passes through the hands of Albanian mafia groups that this traffic has taken off since summer 1999 The concept of Staatnation is based on the doctrine according to which each nation must have its own territorial State and each State must consist of one nation only The slow decline and eventual collapse of the Soviet and the Yugoslav empires was partly triggered partly accompanied by the quest for national sovereignty Dagestan is notable for its ethnic diversity and even by post Soviet standards its dramatic economic deprivation The integrative potential of cooperative movements at the republican the regional and the inter state level for the Caucasus is analyzed The book also offers insights into the economics of ending violence Finally it addresses the question of reconciliation after ethnic cleansing Reinventing the Sublime

Steven Vine, 2013-06-06 Examines the return of the sublime in post modernity and at intimations of a post Romantic sublime in Romanticism itself This work looks at 18th century Romantic modernist and post modern inventions of the sublime alongside contemporary critical accounts of the relationship of sublimity to subjectivity aesthetics politics and history The Sublime of the Political Dean Caivano, Sarah Naumes, 2021-06-09 In an age of immediate and global exchange of information the ability to theorize about political conditions remains largely an elite technocratic and esoteric enterprise In this timely intervention Dean Caivano and Sarah Naumes argue that storytelling in the form of narrative and autoethnography creates an emancipatory potential through its ability to theorize from below welcoming marginalized and excluded voices Drawing from the disciplines of political studies philosophy and literary studies this volume offers a new assessment of political texts through the lens of the sublime as a fertile terrain to challenge who can write and disseminate political ideas and how

The Sublime Philip Shaw, 2017-04-21 Related to ideas of the great the awe inspiring and the overpowering the sublime has been debated for centuries amongst writers artists philosophers and theorists and has become a complex yet crucial concept in many disciplines In this thoroughly updated edition Philip Shaw looks at Early modern and post Romantic conceptions of the sublime in two brand new chapters The legacy of the earliest classical theories through those of the long eighteenth century to modernist postmodernist and avant garde conceptions of the sublime Critical Introductions to major theorists of the sublime such as Longinus Burke Kant Schopenhauer Nietzsche Derrida Lyotard Lacan and i ek The significance of the concept through a range of literary readings including the Old and New Testaments Homer Milton and writing from the Romantic period to the present day How the concept of the sublime has affected other art forms such as painting and film from abstract expressionism to David Lynch's neo noir The influence of the sublime on recent debates in the fields of politics theology and psychoanalysis Offering historical overviews and explanations this remarkably clear study is essential reading for students of literature critical and cultural theory Cyborg Theatre J. Parker-Starbuck,2011-04-28

This book articulates the first theoretical context for a cyborg theatre metaphorically integrating on stage bodies with the technologized digitized or mediatized to re imagine subjectivity for a post human age It covers a variety of examples to propose new theoretical tools for understanding performance in our changing world The Sublime Reader Robert R. Clewis,2018-11-29 This is the first English language anthology to provide a compendium of primary source material on the sublime The book takes a chronological approach covering the earliest ancient traditions up through the early and late modern periods and into contemporary theory It takes an inclusive interdisciplinary approach to this key concept in aesthetics and criticism representing voices and traditions that have often been excluded As such it will be of use and interest across the humanities and allied disciplines from art criticism and literary theory to gender and cultural studies and environmental philosophy The anthology includes brief introductions to each selection reading or discussion questions suggestions for further reading a bibliography and index making it an ideal text for building a course around or for further study The book's apparatus provides valuable context for exploring the history and contemporary views of the sublime

The Cyborg Experiments Joanna Zylinska,2002-06-13 The Cyborg Experiments analyzes the challenges posed to corporeality by technology Taking as their starting point the work of the highly influential performance artists Orlan and

Stelarc the essays in this timely and important collection raise a number of questions in relation to new conceptions of embodiment identity and otherness in the age of new technologies Has the body become obsolete Does transgender challenge traditional ideas of agency Have we always been cyborgs In addition to highlighting the playful character of digital aesthetics the contributors investigate ethical issues concerning the ownership of our bodies and the experiments we perform on them In this way the book explores how humanism and ideas of the human have been placed under increasing scrutiny as a result of new developments in science media and communications Contributors John Appleby Rachel Armstrong Fred Botting Julie Clarke Gary Hall Chris Hables Gray Meredith Jones Orlan Mark Poster Jay Prosser E A Scheer Zdzia Sza Stelarc Scott Wilson Joanna Zylińska

Gender and the Intersubjective Sublime in Faulkner, Forster, Lawrence, and Woolf Erin Speese, 2017-09-22 Exploring how the modern novel's complex depictions of parenthood restructure traditional conceptions of the Romantic sublime Erin K Johns Speese shows how William Faulkner E M Forster D H Lawrence and Virginia Woolf use related strategies to rewrite the traditional sublime as an intersubjective experience Speese shows that this reframing depends on the recognition of social objectification and an ethics of reciprocal empathy between mothers and fathers She juxtaposes traditional aesthetics and Slavoj Žižek's concept of the sublime object of ideology with recent theoretical work regarding identity arguing that these modern novelists construct what she terms a sublime subject that is a person who functions in the space of the traditional sublime object In revealing the possibility of transcendent emotional connection over reason these novelists critique the objectification of the other in favor of a sublime experience that reveals the subject shattering power of empathy

Gender after Lyotard, 2007-01-04 Lyotard and the 'figural' in Performance, Art and Writing Kiff Bamford, 2012-06-14 This original study offers a timely reconsideration of the work of French philosopher Jean-François Lyotard in relation to art performance and writing How can we write about art whilst acknowledging the transformation that inevitably accompanies translations of both media and temporality That is the question that persistently dogs Lyotard's own writings on art and to which this book responds through reference to artists from the recently formed canon of performance art history including the myths of seminal figures Marina Abramovic and Vito Acconci and the controlled documentation of Gina Pane's actions Through the unstable untranslatable element that Lyotard calls the figural his thought is brought to bear on attempts to write a history of performance art and to question the paradoxically prescriptive demand for rules to govern re-performance Kiff Bamford contextualises Lyotard's writings and approach with reference to both his contemporaries including Deleuze and Kristeva and the contemporary art about which they wrote whilst arguing for the pertinence of Lyotard's provocations today

The Ethics of Cultural Studies Joanna Zylińska, 2005-05-01 Ethical questions feature prominently on today's cultural and political agendas The Ethics of Cultural Studies presents an ethical manifesto for Cultural Studies an exploration of its current ethical and political concerns and of its future challenges The book is concerned with ethics in the material world and draws on examples as diverse as cloning and genetics asylum and immigration experiments in plastic surgery and in electronic and digital art memories of the Holocaust September 11th and media representations of violence and crime

The Ethics of Cultural Studies is a groundbreaking intervention that sets the debate on ethics in cultural study and offers an invaluable source of ideas for students of contemporary culture

Common Ground Jeremy Gilbert, 2013-11-08 Under neoliberalism the cult of individualism reigns supreme forced upon us through culture media and politics it fatally limits our capacity to escape the current crisis of democratic politics In Common Ground Jeremy Gilbert asks us to reimagine the philosophical relationship between individuality collectivity affect and agency proposing a radically non individualist mode of imagining social life The book considers how opponents of neoliberal hegemony and of the individualist tradition in Western thought might protect collective creativity and democratic possibility Examination of the historical roots of individualism's Leviathan logic and fresh readings of theorists such as Hobbes Lazzarato Simondon Lyotard Laclau and Deleuze and Guattari force us to confront longstanding assumptions about the nature of the individual and of collectivity Exploration of this fundamental faultline in contemporary politics is accompanied by analysis of the different ideas and practices of collectivity from conservative notions of hierarchical and patriarchal communities to the politics of horizontality and the commons which lie at the heart of radical movements today Through an understanding of the philosophy shaping contemporary relations and disrupting hegemonic values we can re imagine the present moment

The Sublime, Terror and Human Difference Christine Battersby, 2013-01-11 Christine Battersby is a leading thinker in the field of philosophy gender studies and visual and literary aesthetics In this important new work she undertakes an exploration of the nature of the sublime one of the most important topics in contemporary debates about modernity politics and art Through a compelling examination of terror transcendence and the other in key European philosophers and writers Battersby articulates a radical female sublime A central feature of The Sublime Terror and Human Difference is its engagement with recent debates around 9 11 race and Islam Battersby shows how since the eighteenth century the pleasures of the sublime have been described in terms of the transcendence of terror Linked to the feminine the sublime was closed off to flesh and blood women to Orientals and to other supposedly inferior human types Engaging with Kant Burke the German Romantics Nietzsche Derrida Lyotard Irigaray and Arendt as well as with women writers and artists Battersby traces the history of these exclusions while finding resources within the history of western culture for thinking human differences afresh The Sublime Terror and Human Difference is essential reading for students of continental philosophy gender studies aesthetics literary theory visual culture and race and social theory

The Iconoclastic Imagination Ned O'Gorman, 2016 Bloody and fiery spectacles in American public life from the 1960s to the present have given us moments of catastrophe that easily answer to the question of where were you when events that shape our ways of seeing the Cold War and after Three such iconic catastrophes are the John F Kennedy assassination the response by Ronald Reagan to the Challenger disaster and 9 11 Why are these spectacles so packed with meaning They are images of destruction raising the questions for us of where their power comes from what sort of history might they construct what sort of world do they destroy O Gorman approaches each one as an icon of iconoclasm as an exemplar of fiery demise that gives us a distinct way to imagine social existence in American life Here is his argument in the 50 years since the Kennedy assassination a period that witnessed the rise of neoliberalism the most powerful way for publics to see America was in the destruction of its representative symbols or icons because in such catastrophes we grasp the impossibility of any image adequate to representing America If neoliberalism the emergence of free market economics in social philosophy and public policy is linked with iconoclasm that is if neoliberalism promotes and benefits from the destruction of icons we are led to reconsider events that seem to rupture a given world catastrophes or are beyond representation the economy Market ideology moves to a transcendent realm of invisible principles that can escape accountability and command sacrifice The core arguments are challenging indeed iconoclastic but this book will put a whole new kind of spotlight on neoliberalism and on the status of the image and visual representation in American political culture The results are stunning richly interwoven philosophical theological and rhetorical traditions turn out to be a basis for a complex and innovative approach to Cold War America political theory and visual culture studies Bioethics and Biolaw through Literature Daniela Carpi, 2011-10-27 In recent years the well established field of human anthropology has been put under scrutiny by the new data offered by science and technology Scientific intervention into human life through organ transplants euthanasia genetic engineering experiments connected to the genetic code and the genome and varied other biotechnologies have placed ethical beliefs into question and created ethical dilemmas These scientific inventions influence our views on birth and death on the construction of the body and its technical reproducibility and have problematized the concept of the human persona The purpose of bioethics the science of life is to find new values and norms which will be valid for a multicultural society Bioethics is today a well respected topic of research that has brought together philosophers and experts to discuss the limits of science and medicine The aim of this book is to merge the two fields of bioethics and law or biolaw through the literary text by taking into consideration the transformations of the concept of persona at which we have nowadays arrived The new meaning of the term persona represents in fact the final point of a long standing quest for man's sense of his own being and human dignity and of his capacity to live in social interrelations The volume presents a wide range of perspectives comprising methodological approaches legal and literary aspects New Cultural Studies Clare Birchall, Gary Hall, 2006-01-01 New Cultural Studies is both an introductory reference work and an original study which explores new directions and territories for cultural studies A new generation has begun to emerge from the shadow of the Birmingham School It is a generation whose whole education has been shaped by theory and who frequently turn to it as a means to think through some of the issues and current problems in contemporary culture and cultural studies In a period when departments which were once hotbeds of high theory are returning to more sociological and social science oriented modes of research and 9 11 and the war in Iraq especially have helped create a sense of post theoretical political urgency which leaves little time for the elitist Eurocentric textual concerns of Theory theoretical approaches to the study of culture have for many of this generation never seemed so important or so vital New Cultural Studies explores theory s past present and most especially future role in cultural studies It does so by providing an authoritative and accessible guide for students and teachers alike to the most innovative members of this new generation the thinkers and theories currently influencing new work in cultural studies Agamben Badiou Deleuze Derrida Hardt and Negri Kittler Laclau Levinas and iek the new territories currently being mapped out across the intersections of cultural studies and cultural theory anti capitalism ethics the posthumanities post Marxism and the transnational

Deleuze and Law Rosi Braidotti, Claire Colebrook, Patrick Hanafin, 2009-08-20 Drawing upon and extending the theoretical insights of Deleuze Foucault and Agamben this volume considers the concept of life as it operates in law politics and contemporary culture It focuses on key legal cases such as the Terri Schiavo case in the US political events such as the post 9 11 internment camp and new cultural phenomena

The Routledge Companion to Feminist Philosophy Ann Garry, Serene J. Khader, Alison Stone, 2017-09-19 The Routledge Companion to Feminist Philosophy is an outstanding guide and reference source to the key topics subjects thinkers and debates in feminist philosophy Fifty six chapters written by an international team of contributors specifically for the Companion are organized into five sections 1 Engaging the Past 2 Mind Body and World 3 Knowledge Language and Science 4 Intersections 5 Ethics Politics and Aesthetics The volume provides a mutually enriching representation of the several philosophical traditions that contribute to feminist philosophy It also foregrounds issues of global concern and scope shows how feminist theory meshes with rich theoretical approaches that start from transgender identities race and ethnicity sexuality disabilities and other axes of identity and oppression and highlights the interdisciplinarity of feminist philosophy and the ways that it both critiques and contributes to the whole range of subfields within philosophy

Enlightenment Orientalism in the American Mind, 1770-1807 Matthew H. Pangborn, 2018-09-07 This study engages with the emerging field of energy humanities to provide close readings of several early American oriental observer tales The popular genre of orientalism offered Americans a means to critique new ideas of identity history and nationality accompanying protoindustrialization and a growing consumerism The tales thus express a complex self reflection during a time when America s exploitation of its energy resources and its engagement in a Franco British world system was transforming the daily life of its citizens The genre of the oriental observer this study argues offers intriguing glimpses of a nation becoming strange in the eyes of its own inhabitants
