Women's Movements and the Filipina ROCES, MARIA NATIVIDAD, 2012-02-29 This book is about a fundamental aspect of the feminist project in the Philippines rethinking the Filipino woman It focuses on how contemporary women s organizations have represented and refashioned the Filipina in their campaigns to improve women s status by locating her in history society and politics imagining her past present and future representing her in advocacy and identifying strategies to transform her The drive to alter the situation of women included a political aspect lobbying and changing legislation and a cultural one modifying social attitudes and women s own assessments of themselves In this work Mina Roces examines the cultural side of the feminist agenda how activists have critiqued Filipino womanhood and engaged in fashioning an alternative woman How did activists theorize the Filipina and how did they use this analysis to lobby for pro women s legislation or alter social attitudes What sort of Filipina role models did women s organizations propose and how were these new ideas disseminated to the general public What cultural strategies did activists deploy in order to gain a mass following Analyzing data from over seventy five interviews with feminist activists radio and television shows romance novels periodicals and books published by women s organizations and feminist nuns comics newsletters and personal papers Roces shows how representations of the Filipino woman have been central to debates about women s empowerment She explores the transnational character of women s activism and offers a seminal study on the important contributions of feminist Catholic nuns Women's Movements and the Filipina provides an original and passionate account of the contemporary feminist movement in the Philippines bringing to light how women's organizations have initiated change in cultural attitudes and had a significant impact on contemporary Philippine society

Review of Women's Studies, 2001 Women, Guerrillas, and Love, 1996 The 14 chapters posit a regendering of revolutionary poetics which is accomplished by reworking concepts such as new man woman and subaltern The predictability of Rodríguez's arguments and dated historical referents do not detract from solid analyses like those in chapter eight regarding Mario Roberto Morales El esplendor de la pirámide and those in the next chapter on Oreamuno's La ruta de su evasión The author focuses on her strength narratives from Cuba and her native Nicaragua Handbook of Latin American Studies v 58 Feminist Ethics and the Politics of Love Feminist Review Collective, 1998 Ethics and love are examined in different situations the contradictions of feminism in Imperial Japan the role of women in miners' struggles in the UK and the contemporary politics of abortion in Ireland Sexuality and the Filipina Lilia Quindoza Santiago, 2007 Gender in Southeast Asia Mina Roces, 2022-04-14 This Element examines gender in Southeast Asia by focusing on two main themes The first concerns hegemonic cultural constructions of gender and Southeast Asian subjects' responses to these dominant discourses Roces introduces hegemonic discourses on ideal masculinities and ideal femininities evaluates the impact of religion analyses how authoritarian regimes fashion these ideals Discussion then turns to the hegemonic ideals surrounding desire and sexualities and the way these are policed by society and the state The second theme concerns the ways hegemonic ideals influence the gendering of power and politics Roces argues that because many Southeast Asians see power as being held by kinship alliance groups women are able to access political power through their ties with men as wives mothers daughters sisters and even mistresses However women's movements have challenged this androcentric division of power

Feminism and the Power of Law Carol Smart, 2002-01-08 Author very well known leading writer on women and law provides major new critique of law in controversial areas such as rape pornography child custody 2 way promotion criminology women's studies Sexual Violence and the Law in Japan Catherine Burns, 2013-04-15 This book provides a detailed examination of judicial decision making in Japanese cases involving sexual violence It describes the culture of eroticised violence in Japan which sees the feminine body as culpable and the legal system which encourages homogeneity and conformity in decision making and shows how the legal constraints confronting women claiming sexual assaults are enormous It includes analysis of specific case studies and a discussion of recent moves to address the problem

Gender-Based Violence in the Global South Ramona Biholar, Dacia L. Leslie, 2024-02-26 This book amplifies the different voices and experiences of those facing gender based violence GBV in the Global South It explores the localised ways in which marginalised individuals design modes of coping with and address GBV including cultural interpretations and artistic and faith based expressions The book examines GBV triggers prevalence and societal impacts while referring to community national and regional mobilisation to deal with the phenomenon in its various manifestations including physical psychological political domestic and public violence It explores issues related to women s negotiations with the patriarchal underpinnings of GBV the role of the law and history in the perpetuation of GBV the complementary role of culture and faith to legal protection against GBV and access to justice for women and girls In doing so the book exposes understandings and expressions of GBV as well as methodologies and indigenous initiatives to prevent it through local viable solutions The book thus challenges the normalisation of GBV in the Global South Providing concrete and culturally relevant suggestions for challenging ingrained models of gender understandings of violence in the Global South this book will be of interest to academics in the fields of Development Studies Gender Studies Women s Studies Violence and Abuse Studies Human Rights Criminal Law and Socio Legal Studies Humanities Diliman ,2009 New Books on Women and Feminism ,2002

Reading Rape Sabine Sielke,2009-02-09 Reading Rape examines how American culture talks about sexual violence and explains why in the latter twentieth century rape achieved such significance as a trope of power relations Through attentive readings of a wide range of literary and cultural representations of sexual assault from antebellum seduction narratives and realist representations of rape in nineteenth century novels to Deliverance American Psycho and contemporary feminist accounts Sabine Sielke traces the evolution of a specifically American rhetoric of rape She considers the kinds of cultural work that this rhetoric has performed and finds that rape has been an insistent figure for a range of social political and economic issues Sielke argues that the representation of rape has been a major force in the cultural construction of sexuality gender race ethnicity class and indeed national identity At the same time her acute analyses of both canonical and lesser known texts explore the complex anxieties that motivate such constructions and their function within the wider cultural imagination Provoked in part by contemporary feminist criticism Reading Rape also challenges feminist positions on sexual violence by interrogating them as part of the history in which rape has been a convenient and conventional albeit troubling trope for other concerns and conflicts This book teaches us what we talk about when we talk about rape And what we re talking about is often something else entirely power money social change difference and identity Islam, Women's Sexuality and Patriarchy in Indonesia Irma Riyani,2020-11-26 This book explores the intimate marital relationships of Indonesian Muslim married women As well as describing and analysing their sexual relationships the book also investigates how Islam influences discourses of sexuality in Indonesia and in particular how Islamic teachings affect Muslim married women s perceptions and behaviour in their sexual relationships with their husbands Based on extensive original research the book reveals that Muslim women perceive marriage as a social cultural and religious obligation that they need to fulfil that they realise that finding an ideal marriage partner is complicated with some having the opportunity for a long courtship and others barely knowing their partner prior to marriage and that there is a strong tendency with some exceptions for women to consider a sexual relationship in marriage as their duty and their husband s right Religious and cultural discourses justify and support this view and consider refusal a sin dosa or taboo pamali Both discourses emphasise obedience towards husbands in marriage
