Excerpt from Representative Names in the History of English Literature

The wants of a busy age require some inexpensive book which shall furnish general information together with a firm grasp of the movement in each field of effort As auxiliary to our anthologies dictionaries of authors bibliographies and manuals of literature it has seemed not undesirable to have some vade mecum in which should be collected information otherwise accessible only by long and continuous labor The plan adopted aims at an answer to the various rational questions which might be asked about an author as an author when did he live who were his contemporaries what was his standpoint what are his representative works for what and how far can we trust him who vouched for his reliability and what did he do to further the progress of literature The selection of names has been made with reference to the authors whom the world has accepted as representative of English literature as minor writers there have been added those whose services have an historical value Literature has been understood in the strictest sense the perfect adaptation of the form to the thought expressed judgment is pronounced from the aesthetic point of view and not from that of Ethics Politics or Commerce Oratory Theology Physics and Metaphysics have been excluded except when their form has entitled them to literary recognition The time of any author has been indicated by giving the date of his birth and death together with the Era in which he would be classed The classification of Wm Francis Collier is noticeably simple and serviceable and has been used it is as follows

1st Era From the birth of Chaucer 1328 to the Introduction of Printing 1474
II^d Introduction of Printing 1474 to the accession of Elizabeth 1558
III^d Accession of Elizabeth 1558 to the shutting of the Theatres 1648
IVth Shutting of the Theatres 1648 to the Death of Milton 1674
Vth Death of Milton 1674 to the Publication of the Tatler 1709
VIth Publication of the Tatler 1709 to the Publication of Pamela 1740
VIIth Era Pamela 1740 to the Death of Johnson 1784
VIIIth Death of Johnson 1784 to the Death of Scott 1832
IXth Scott 1832 to the Present Time

In the case of American writers the Eras are not used as contemporaneity is of small consequence it may be added that less exclusiveness has been thought desirable in the case of those belonging to our own country The classification of authors and literary forms is believed to be at once simple and exhaustive if this belief be well founded there will be one less want among the many which oppress the earnest scholar About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such
