Sculptor Speaks:

The Sculptor Speaks Arnold Lionel Haskell,1971 The Sculptor Speaks Jacob Epstein,Arnold L. Haskell,2022-10-27

This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Henry Moore-- Writings and Conversations Henry Moore,2002 For both admirers and students of Henry Moore s work this book will be a blessing Moore s humanity and intelligence make this compendium a plea sure to dip into as well as scholarly and comprehensive Roger Berthoud author of The Life of Henry Moore Alan Wilkinson has trawled the rich material with exemplary thoroughness The nature and purpose of Moore s writing is illuminated The introduction reflects Wilkinson s long friendship with Moore and the commentary and notes testify to a remarkable knowledge of the artist s work his circle and his ideas Sir Alan Bowness editor of the Henry Moore Complete Sculpture Series The Artist Speaks Sara Siew,2018-06-30 One of Singapore s most prominent artists Georgette Chen forged an artistic vision that till today continues to enchant and inspire Chen s remarkable story that spans wars and revolutions triumph and tragedy loves lost and enduring is told here through her very own words selected from an extensive archive spanning five decades Together with her paintings they constitute a compelling portrait of the artist s gentle spirit that avails itself both to readers who are already familiar with the artist as well as those discovering her for the first time The Artist Speaks series presents an intimate look at artists through their words and works tracing the ideas influences and experiences as told by artists themselves that inspire artistic creation Lives of Seventy of the Most Eminent Painters, Sculptors and Architects Giorgio Vasari,1896 The Sculptor Speaks Sir Jacob Epstein,Joseph Epstein,Arnold Lionel Haskell,1932 The Artist Speaks: Lee Wen Adele Tan,2020-06-21 One of Singapore s most prominent performance artists Lee Wen produced a body of incisive provocative and sharply satirical works over three decades This latest title in The Artist Speaks series presents Lee s writings lyrics and drawings offering personal insight to the rich associations metaphors and tongue in cheek humour found in his imaginative world The Sculptor Speaks Jacob Epstein,1931 The Sculptor Speaks Jacob Epstein,2007-03 PREFACE THE Author of this very practical treatise on Scotch Loch Fishing desires clearly that it may be of use to all who had it He does not pretend to have written anything new but to have attempted to put what he has to say in as readable a form as possible Everything in the way of the history and habits of fish has been studiously avoided and technicalities have been used as sparingly as possible The writing of this book has afforded him pleasure in his leisure moments and that pleasure would be much increased if he knew that the perusal of it would create any bond of sympathy between himself and the angling community in general This section is interleaved with blank sheets for the readers notes The Author need hardly say that any suggestions addressed to the case of the publishers will meet with consideration in a future edition We do not pretend to write or enlarge upon a new subject Much has been said and written and well said and written too on the art of fishing but loch fishing has been rather looked upon as a second rate performance and to dispel this idea is one of the objects for which this present treatise has been written Far be it from us to say anything against fishing lawfully practised in any form but many pent up in our large towns will bear us out when we say that on the whole a days loch fishing is the most convenient One great matter is that the loch fisher is dependent on nothing but enough wind to curl the water and on a large loch it is very seldom that a dead calm prevails all day and can make his arrangements for a day weeks beforehand whereas the stream fisher is dependent for a good take on the state of the water and however pleasant and easy it may be for one living near the banks of a good trout stream or river it is quite another matter to arrange for a days river fishing if one is looking forward to a holiday at a date some weeks ahead Providence may favour the expectant angler with a good day and the water in order but experience has taught most of us that the good days are in the minority and that as is the case with our rapid running streams such as many of our northern streams are the water is either too large or too small unless as previously remarked you live near at hand and can catch it at its best A common belief in regard to loch fishing is that the tyro and the experienced angler have nearly the same chance in fishing the one from the stern and the other from the bow of the same boat Of all the absurd beliefs as to loch fishing this is one of the most absurd Try it Give the tyro either end of the boat he likes give him a cast of ally flies he may fancy or even a cast similar to those which a crack may be using and if he catches one for every three the other has he may consider himself very lucky Of course there are lochs where the fish are not abundant and a beginner may come across as many as an older fisher but we speak of lochs where there are fish to be caught and where each has a fair chance Again it is said that the boatman has as much to do with catching trout in a loch as the angler Well we dont deny that In an untried loch it is necessary to have the guidance of a good boatman but the same argument holds good as to stream fishing
