Modern Sculpture Reader Jon Wood,David Hulks,Alex Potts,2012-08-21 In many anthologies of art sculpture is given short shrift in relation to other media if it is treated at all Modern Sculpture Reader aims to rectify this situation by presenting a collection of important texts that have defined sculpture's radically changing status and role since the end of the nineteenth century a time marked by a general reappraisal of the forms and functions of art From the rigorously theoretical to the experimental and poetic Modern Sculpture Reader offers a lively discourse on the medium by a range of artists writers critics and poets Marcel Duchamp Louise Bourgeois Claes Oldenberg Andr Breton Ezra Pound and Clement Greenberg in a variety of genres poems lectures transcribed interviews newspaper and magazine articles and artists statements These diverse text selections offer valuable insight into the development of the critical language of sculpture and its connections to other media in an era of increasingly conceptual artistic practice Many of the essays highlight key ongoing concerns such as sculpture's physical properties and conditions of display both of which have important implications for the viewer's tactile and emotional interaction with sculptural works The Archive of Development ,1998 In the current debate on art thought on time has commanded a prominent position Do we live in a posthistorical time Has objective art historical time and belief in a continual progress shifted to a more subjective experience of the ephemeral Has art history fallen away and if so what does this mean for the future of art How does a visual archive relate to artistic memory This volume investigates positions arguments and comments regarding the stated theme Philosophers and theorists explore the subject matter theoretically Curators articulate the practice of art The participants are Hans Belting Jan Bor Peter Brger Bart Cassiman Leontine Coelewijn Hubert Damisch Arthur C Danto Bart De Baere Okwui Enwezor Kasper König Sven Lüticken Manifesta Barbara VanderLinden Hans Ulrich Obrist Donald Preziosi Survival of the Past Project Herman Parret Lex Ter Braak Camiel Van Winkel Ernst Van Alphen Kirk Varnedoe Gianni Vattimo and Kees Vuyk Landscapes of Memory and Experience Jan Birksted, 2012-12-06 It has been argued that the history of landscape and of gardens has been marginalized from the mainstream of art history and visual studies because of a lack of engagement with the theories methods and concepts of these disciplines This book explores possible ways out of this impasse in such a way that landscape studies would become pivotal through its theoretical advances since landscape studies would challenge the underlying assumptions of traditional phenomenological theory Thus the history and theory of twentieth century landscape might not only once again share concepts and methods with contemporary art and design history but might in turn influence them A complementary sequel to Relating Architecture to Landscape this volume of essays explores further areas of interest and discussion in the landscape architecture debate and offers contributions from a team of well known researchers teachers and writers The choice of topics is wide ranging and features case studies of modern and contemporary schemes from the USA Far East and Australasia

One Place after Another Miwon Kwon, 2004-02-27 A critical history of site specific art since the late 1960s Site specific art emerged in the late 1960s in reaction to the growing commodification of art and the prevailing ideals of art's autonomy and universality Throughout the 1970s and 1980s as site specific art intersected with land art process art performance art conceptual art installation art institutional critique community based art and public art its creators insisted on the inseparability of the work and its context In recent years however the presumption of unrepeatability and immobility encapsulated in Richard Serra's famous dictum to remove the work is to destroy the work is being challenged by new models of site specificity and changes in institutional and market forces One Place after Another offers a critical history of site specific art since the late 1960s and a theoretical framework for examining the rhetoric of aesthetic vanguardism and political progressivism associated with its many permutations Informed by urban theory postmodernist criticism in art and architecture and debates concerning identity politics and the public sphere the book addresses the siting of art as more than an artistic problem It examines site specificity as a complex cipher of the unstable relationship between location and identity in the era of late capitalism The book addresses the work of among others John Ahearn Mark Dion Andrea Fraser Donald Judd Renee Green Suzanne Lacy Inigo Manglano Ovalle Richard Serra Mierle Laderman Ukeles and Fred Wilson Art +

Archive Sara Callahan, 2022-01-25 Art Archive provides an in depth analysis of the connection between art and the archive at the turn of the twenty first century The book examines how the archive emerged in art writing in the mid 1990s and how its subsequent ubiquity can be understood in light of wider social technological philosophical and art historical conditions and concerns Deftly combining writing on archives from different disciplines with artistic practices the book clarifies the function and meaning of one of the most persistent artworld buzzwords of recent years shedding light on the conceptual and historical implications of the so called archival turn in contemporary art
