Sculpture in Religion Rebecca Murphy, AI, 2025-02-26 Sculpture in Religion explores the multifaceted role of three dimensional art in shaping religious beliefs and practices across various cultures The book examines how sculptures of deities saints and sacred narratives influence both the construction of sacred spaces and the evolution of religious thought A key insight is the exploration of theological rationales behind religious imagery asking why some religions embrace it while others prohibit it Another focus looks at how religious sculpture has been used to legitimize power and reinforce social hierarchies The book analyzes religious sculpture not just as decorative but as a dynamic force in shaping religious identities Beginning with a theoretical framework it proceeds through case studies from ancient Egyptian Greek Roman Buddhist Hindu Christian and Islamic traditions showing cross religious approaches to sacred iconography The central chapters explore localized traditions while later chapters address iconoclasm and reform It uses archaeological findings textual sources and art historical analyses to provide a comprehensive understanding of religious sculpture s enduring power

Garth Evans Sculpture Garth Evans, Michael Brenson, 2013-03-25 Garth Evans is a sculptor as capable of evoking intimacy and simplicity as he is of dealing with the monumental and the timeless This complete survey of his unique career is long overdue and reveals a wealth of innovative and powerful work much of it previously unseen in print As narratives of British sculpture are reconsidered Evans is emerging as one of the most creative and influential artists to bridge the generation of Antony Caro and Philip King with that of Tony Cragg Richard Deacon Antony Gormley Alison Wilding and Bill Woodrow This investigation into Evans s hugely varied visually eventful and challenging practice explores connections across geographies and timeframes as well as contextualizing major changes and new departures in his work Garth Evans was born in Manchester in 1934 and settled in the USA at the midpoint of his career He has exhibited widely in Europe and America since the early 1960s and his work is represented in major public and private collections in Australia Brazil Portugal USA and UK including the Arts Council Collection Leeds City Art Galleries the British Museum the V A and Tate Evans has been the recipient of numerous awards as well as holding a number of distinguished teaching positions Since 1988 he has taught at the Studio School in New York City where he is head of sculpture

Sculpture Philip Rawson, 2016-11-11 Philip Rawson a distinguished academic and author practiced as a sculptor all of his life Sculpture his final book completes the trilogy begun with his classic works Drawing and Ceramics As in those earlier volumes Rawson

provides a clear factual description of the underlying principles and structural techniques of the art Although Rawson discusses sculptures from many places and periods including Africa Asia Greece Medieval and Renaissance Europe and twentieth century Europe and America Sculpture is not a history as such Rather it is an original analysis of sculpture as a fundamental and integral form of human language capable of conveying a variety of different insights offering a wealth of cultural and symbolic meaning In the course of this analysis Sculpture explores the full range of expressive techniques available to the sculptor today Rawson's intent is to reveal possible modes of sculptural thought for practitioners and to enable the nonexpert to better understand and appreciate the emotional and intellectual content of any work Indigenous Shona Philosophy Mungwini, Pascah, 2019-04-15 Some of the most provocative questions confronting philosophers in Africa are grounded in the historical memory of conquest and the peripheralisation the continent Mungwini offers a critical reconstruction of indigenous Shona philosophy as an aspect of the African intellectual heritage held hostage by colonial modernity In this comprehensive work he lays bare the thoughts of the Shona who are credited with the founding of the ancient Great Zimbabwe civilisation Retracing the epistemic thread in the fabric of Shona culture and philosophy he explores the assumptions that inform their thinking The exchange of such knowledge is fundamental to the future of humanity A History of Art for Classes, Art-students, and Tourists in Europe William Henry Goodyear, 1889 Volume 9: Aesthetics and Philosophy of Art Guttorm Fløistad, 2007-03-16 The present volume is a continuation of the series Contemporary Philosophy As with the earlier volumes in the series the present chronicles purport to give a survey of significant trends in contemporary philosophy The need for such surveys has I believe increased rather than decreased over the years The philosophical scene appears for various reasons more complex than ever before The continuing process of specialization in most branches the increasing contact between philosophers from various cultures the emergence of new schools of thought particularly in philosophical logic and in the philosophy of language and ethics and the increasing attention being paid to the history of philosophy in discussions of contemporary problems are the most important contributing factors Surveys of the present kind are a valuable source of knowledge of this complexity The surveys may therefore help to strengthen the Socratic element of modern philosophy the intercultural dialogue or Kommunikationsgemeinschaft So far eight volumes are published in this series viz Philosophy of Language and Philosophical Logic Volume 1 Philosophy of Science Volume 2 Philosophy of Action Volume 3 Philosophy of Mind Volume 4 African Philosophy Volume 5 Medieval Age Philosophy Volume 6 1 and Volume 6 2 Asian Philosophy Volume 7 and Philosophy of Latin America Volume 8 The Illustrated Magazine of Art, 1853
