C.N. Johns, Denys Pringle

Sea And The Tower:

The Art of Siege Warfare and Military Architecture from the Classical World to the Middle Ages Michael Eisenberg, Rabei Khamisy, 2021-01-13 The papers in this book present for the first time the world of warfare both defensive and offensive from the Classical periods to end of the Middle Ages in one collection These scholarships have attracted ancient writers and generals and nowadays historians archaeologists and researchers poliorcetics Military historiography and ancient manuals are well familiar from the Classical period throughout the Hellenistic great battlefields until the end of the Middle Ages the chronological scope of this codex The current book is the first to encompass this long array of time while trying to enrich the reader with the continuity development and regression in the different periods and spheres of the ancient poliorcetics and beyond the papers presented here are focusing on the physical fortifications besieging and defense techniques development and efficiency of ancient projectiles and sieging machinery battlefields and the historiographical evidence The X papers of the book are written by some of the best scholars in their field presenting here for the first time the results of their research in the west and in the east

The Chautauquan, 1900 New piloting directions for the Mediterranean sea, the Adriatic, or Gulf of Venice, the Black sea, Grecian archipelago, and the seas of Marmara and Azof: written to accompany the new chart of the Mediterranean sea John William Norie, 1831

Pilgrims' Castle ('Atlit), David's Tower (Jerusalem) and Qal'at ar-Rabad ('Ajlun) C.N. Johns, Denys Pringle, 2019-05-23 First published in 1997 this collection includes papers on Crusader era architecture in Palestine with a focus on Atlit the castle of Ajlun and on the Citadel of Jerusalem both the papers and sites of which have previously been difficult to access The volume is presented partly to repair the very real deficit in the literature on Crusader architecture and partly as a fitting memorial to the author who died in 1992 Atlit in particular held a special significance for C N Johns being the site of his first major project as a field archaeologist His Guide to Atlit a masterly summary of his findings remains the most complete and comprehensive account of the castle and its suburb The studies collected here pay tribute to their author's enduring contribution to the medieval archaeology of the Near East The first part of the book deals with the Pilgrim's Castle the great Templar fortress and town at Atlit The significance of Johns excavations at this site has been relatively neglected because it remains in a military area inaccessible to visitors and because almost the entire stock of his major publication was lost in 1947 This Guide to Atlit a synthesis of historical archaeological and architectural research on the monument is reprinted here together with all the interim reports relating to the medieval period Also included are Johns studies on the Citadel of Jerusalem the Tower of David and on the Islamic castle of Ajlun Together they represent a fundamental contribution to the study of the period of the Crusades and to the military architecture of the Middle Ages The notes by Denys Pringle bring the accounts up to date in the light of recent research
