Witold J. Henisz,2017-09-08 Managers of multinational organizations are struggling to win the strategic competition for the hearts and minds of external stakeholders These stakeholders differ fundamentally in their worldview their understanding of the market economy and their aspirations and fears for the future Their collective opinions of managers and corporations will shape the competitive landscape of the global economy and have serious consequences for businesses that fail to meet their expectations This important new book argues that the strategic management of relationships with external stakeholders what the author calls Corporate Diplomacy is not just canny PR but creates real and lasting business value Using a mix of colourful examples practically relevant tools and considered perspectives the book hones in on a fundamental challenge that managers of multinational corporations face as they strive to compete in the 21st century As falling communication costs shrink the distance between external stakeholders and shareholder value is increasingly created and protected through a strategic integration of the external stakeholder facing functions These include government affairs stakeholder relations sustainability enterprise risk management community relations and corporate communications Through such integration the place where business politics and society intersect need not be a source of nasty surprises or unexpected expenses Most of the firms profiled in the book are now at the frontier of corporate diplomacy But they didn't start there Many of them were motivated by past failings They fell into conflicts with critical stakeholders politicians communities NGO staffers or activists and they suffered They experienced delays or disruptions to their operations higher costs angry customers or thwarted attempts at expansion Eventually the managers of these companies developed smarter strategies for stakeholder engagement They became corporate diplomats The book draws on their experiences to take the reader to the forefront of stakeholder engagement and to highlight the six elements of corporate diplomacy A Discord of Trumpets Claud Cockburn,2017-01-12

THE AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF A LEGENDARY NEWSPAPERMAN WHO IS NAMED CLAUD COCKBURN pronounced Coburn and who has been called many things most of the pronounced abusively by well known personages all over the world for a quarter of a century For some years before World War II he was the diplomatic correspondent of the London Daily Worker For even more years he was a foreign correspondent of The Times also of London He founded and wrote The Week a mimeographed anti Fascist periodical which he says was unquestionably the nastiest looking bit of work that ever dropped onto a breakfast table It started with seven subscribers and in two years numbered among its readers most of the diplomats of Europe many bankers and senators Charlie Chaplin King Edward VIII and the Nizam of Hyderabad Senator Joseph McCarthy of Wisconsin once listed him as one of the 269 most dangerous Reds alive In the same week a Czech Communist named Otto Katz was hanged in Prague after confessing that he had been recruited to the cause of anti Communism by Colonel Cockburn of the British Intelligence Service Here is what the man himself says about how funny how tragic and how fascinating he found life in London Berlin New York and Washington in the years between two world wars Some of these stories have appeared in

Punch but this is a complete text of what the author has so far written down about himself and his legend It is full of wit and irreverence and surprising joyfulness It is a little like the glass of champagne the author learned to appreciate in the little moment which remains between the crisis and the catastrophe
