National Aeronautics and Space Administration, 2002 Skateboard Video Duncan McDuie-Ra, 2021-09-20 This book is about skateboard video and experimental ways of thinking about cities It makes a provocative argument to consider skate video as an archive of the city from below Here below has a dual meaning First below refers to an unofficial archive a subaltern history of urban space Second below refers to the angle from which skateboarders and filmers gaze upon capture and consume the city from the ground up Since taking to the streets in the early 1980s skateboarding has been captured on film video tape and digital memory cards edited into consumable forms and circulated around the world Videos are objects amenable to ethnographic analysis while also archiving exercises in urban ethnography by their creators I advocate for taking skate video seriously as a fragile archive of the urban backstage collective memory across time and space creative urban practice urban encounters people to people and people to object s and the globalization of a subculture at once delinquent and magnificent

Narrative and Cognition in Literature and Science Michael Sinding,Aura Heydenreich,Klaus Mecke,2025-07-21 This volume explores cognitive perspectives on how science and narrative shape one another Narrative is a principle of cognition and cognition is fundamental to narrative This duality enables a deeper mapping of the feedback between story and the natural sciences Science as a culturally organized and systematic mode of knowing the world may seem opposed to narrative thinking Yet they are deeply interwoven Scientists tell many kinds of stories across genres and media In thought experiments lab experiments written arguments and histories and philosophies of fields they recount and interpret unfoldings of events at often uncanny scales from particle collisions to the evolution of life to cosmic expansion Science stories go beyond science Early science is entwined with myth religion and magic We still mythologize beneficent or evil geniuses the promises and perils of technology Teachers journalists politicians and lawyers all tell science stories for their own purposes Literary artists use scientific ideas and forms reimagining physical forces causality and time in storyworlds themes and figures This is the first cognition focused multi disciplinary analysis of these narrative science relations
