question explored through this story of one woman's journey of discovery as she overcame seemingly impossible odds to find holistic wellbeing. With three well recognised holistic elements: mind, body and spirit, Alannah Dore embraces a crucial gap in holistic healing: the emotions. This story speaks to our common struggles in life: loving relationships, parenting and how to find peace and purpose within ourselves. Like a friend, Alannah takes the reader's hand, sharing her truth and providing practical strategies to leverage for your own journey towards joyful living and emotional wellbeing. Read it in a few hours though you will likely want to return to it again and again or gift it to someone who needs some inspiration. Finding Our Way Home

Gerald G. Jampolsky, Gerald Jampolsky and Diane V. Cirincione, 2010-06 In a deeply heartfelt way, Jerry Jampolsky and Diane Cirincione share stories of their spiritual journey, detours they've taken and people who have impacted them along their life trail. Using the Hawaiian tradition of talking story, Jerry and Diane demonstrate the daily application of spiritual principles and practical spirituality. Individually and together they weave their journey for us as it continues to evolve from the influences around them. They inspire us to embrace and share our own stories of peaks and valleys that make up our journeys. The authors' honest and vulnerable style of communicating continues to reveal their life purposes in the choices they make and the lessons they've learned. Each day still provides challenges and circumstances that call to those parts of us that want to judge others or ourselves; they write, "What is different now is that we more quickly recognize when we're lost and the choice we have to return to the path of unconditional love. Once we remember that our purpose is service and helping others as well as letting go of our judgments and grievances by practicing forgiveness, the path is easier, the direction clearer and the destination of peace achievable." Searching for God, the Precious Treasure, in My Daily Life

Reverend Peter G. Vu, 2019-03-26 In an increasingly tumultuous world, knowing God is by your side can make an enormous difference, bringing strength, comfort and peace. In Searching for God, the Precious Treasure in My Daily Life, Rev. Peter G. Vu helps you see God's presence in everyday events and find the encouragement necessary to thrive in times of challenge. Through prayer, acts of charity and interactions with others, you will see that God is before you, behind you and all around you, a benevolent guiding force to help you walk the path of the righteous. A portion of the proceeds from book sales will benefit the American Red Cross and the Catholic Relief Services, in addition to other charities. Time to Eat Christina Campion, 2022-12-05 I actually do not consider myself a writer, but simply put, this book chose me and has been tugging at me for over twenty years. It was written as a means to share some interesting and common sense practices that might help others suffering with a disease from which I was fortunate to recover, even though the odds were stacked heavily against my survival. The book is an account of my life journey and particularly my relationship with food, eating and eating disorders. It also recounts a rather amazing experience of eating consciously for the first time and my eventual recovery using the advice and recommendations of a senior macrobiotic counselor called Denny Waxman. Denny Waxman helped Dr. Anthony Satillaro recover from cancer. He has authored several books, the most recent being The Ultimate Guide to Eating for Longevity published by Pegasus Books United.

States of America Time to Eat gives some detailed information regarding the causes definition and nature of the disease I was born with and how it manifested It also includes some suggestive spiritual practices and useful self help tools along with finally a few recipes

A Search for Enemies Ted Galen Carpenter,1992 The passing of the Cold War is the most important development of the late 20th century yet the United States clings tenaciously to old policies Both the Bush administration and Democratic leaders have insisted on perpetuating a host of obsolete alliances including NATO and the alliance with Japan which cost American taxpayers nearly 150 billion a year Ted Galen Carpenter director of foreign policy studies at the Cato Institute offers a provocative critique of that status quo strategy Although Washington s outdated alliances have no real adversary or credible mission Carpenter says they hold the potential to embroil the United States in obscure conflicts ethnic and otherwise that have little relevance to America s legitimate security concerns As an alternative he proposes strategic independence under which the United States would act only to defend vital interests the republic s physical integrity political independence or domestic liberty Carpenter calls for the foreign policy equivalent of zero based budgeting insisting that because of the dramatic changes in the world caused by the collapse of the Soviet Union all alliances must be justified anew regardless of any utility they may have had during the Cold War He places under the microscope America s multilateral treaty obligations to defend other nations NATO ANZUS which links the United States Australia and New Zealand and the Rio Treaty which provides a collective defense arrangement for the Western Hemisphere He also examines four important bilateral security agreements with Japan South Korea the Philippines and Pakistan This is the book on a new foreign policy for the United States
