Searching For Seekers Ministry With A New Generation Of The Unchurched:

Searching for Seekers Mary J. Scifres, 1998 Seekers are those who have had little or no exposure to the faith and for whom traditional worship is often uninviting and uninspired While not in tune with the language and structures of traditional church they are grasped by a deep longing for connection with God and people of faith Containing sample services for different kinds of Seeker friendly worship services this book will provide pastors and other church leaders with a thoughtful yet practical introduction to who Seekers are and how the church might best minister to them One Church, Four Generations Gary L. McIntosh, 2002-04-01 The challenge facing today's church is simultaneous and effective ministry to people of four widely divergent generations More than at any time in history pastors must plan programs that will appeal to a mosaic of groups and subgroups This updated edition of Three Generations Riding the Waves of Change in Your Church adds an entirely new section on Bridgers the youngest generation and perhaps the most difficult one to reach for Christ

Characteristics interests and values of each group Builders Boomers Busters and Bridgers are explored in relation to the historical events and social trends that have shaped them McIntosh thoughtfully analyzes the factors that influence each generation's relationship to the church and he gives helpful suggestions for types of ministry and worship styles to draw members of that group Helpful tables offer summaries of information relating to each generation including formative experiences religious characteristics and methods of ministry Pastors church leaders seminary professors and students will find One Church Four Generations a valuable resource in mapping out strategies for relevant church programming in the twenty first century Ancient-Future Evangelism Robert E. Webber, 2003-11 Feel like the church is a mile wide but only an inch deep Robert Webber offers the remedy by translating evangelism wisdom from the past into the future

Teaching the Faith, Forming the Faithful Gary A. Parrett, S. Steve Kang, 2013-03-05 With the decline of traditional Sunday school and education programs in recent years many Christians have not learned the fundamental doctrinal content of the faith In this text Gary Parrett and Steve Kang set forth a thoroughly biblical vision for intentional teaching of the Christian faith that attends to both the content and process of educational and formational ministries Praying Twice Brian A.

Wren, 2000-01-01 Wren discusses the thorny issues involving congregational singing today the indispensable nature of public worship contemporary worship music the lyrics of different types of congregational songs such as choruses hymns chants and ritual songs and the importance of using hymn lyrics as poetry He shows why hymn lyrics are altered throughout time and how they illustrate theology The Younger Evangelicals Robert E. Webber, 2002-10-01 Robert E Webber has led worship workshops in every major city in the United States and Canada Through his conversations and contacts with a network of emerging church leaders he calls the younger evangelicals Webber sees how this new generation and their style of leadership is bringing change and renewal to the evangelical church These leaders who include those young in spirit as well as young in age have important insights to offer all generations faced with doing church in a rapidly changing postmodern culture The Younger Evangelicals explores the characteristics of these emerging leaders and provides an outlet for their stories Beginning with a brief overview of twentieth century evangelicalism Webber examines what is different about the twenty first century younger evangelicals way of thinking about faith and practicing church He allows them Ph D s and laypeople to speak in their own words on issues such as communication theology apologetics pastoral leadership evangelism worship and spiritual formation Thought provoking energizing and timely The Younger Evangelicals is a landmark book for pastors and church leaders culture watchers ministry students and worship leaders who want to prepare for and respond to the new evangelical awakening brought on by our changing cultural context Church Planting from the Ground Up Tom Jones,2004 Church Planting from the Ground Up is a visionary guide for the critical task of new church multiplication Share in the wisdom of these field tested veterans as you gain insight from their stories practical ideas and real world experiences Book jacket The Living Church ,2000 AAR/SBL Annual Meeting Program American Academy of Religion. Meeting,1998 International Mission Bibliography Norman E. Thomas,2003-10-16 This massive reference is the key to finding the most important works on missiology published from 1960 2000 Representing the research of more than 30 sub editors in mission related disciplines including history theology social aspects education evangelism spirituality and political life and includes sections on Africa the Americas Asia Europe and Oceania Complete publication details and ISBNs are given for each entry
