Searching For Survivors:

Proceedings United States. Merchant Marine Council,1950 Searching for a Demon Steven M. Chermak,2002 This provocative volume thoroughly examines the ways in which the media demonized militia groups following the devastating bombing of the Alfred F Murrah building in Oklahoma City Using quantitative and qualitative research methods Steven M Chermak offers a fresh perspective on how news coverage and popular entertainment transformed a largely overlooked movement into a symbol for this new threat of domestic terrorism and ignited a national panic over the militia menace Searching for a Demon describes the representation of the militia movement in the news media editorial cartoons films and television Chermak delves into such topics as the type and amount of coverage after the blast how social problems are constructed in the news the motivations and biases of authoritative or celebrity figures used as news sources and why images of militias were framed in specific ways Chermak balances his account with an in depth look at the philosophies activities and strategies of militia groups Drawing on extensive interviews he conducted at gun shows and preparedness exhibitions the author compares and contrasts media depictions of militia life and ideology with the firsthand accounts of members and leaders themselves and he assesses how media coverage affected changes in the movement In conclusion Chermak discusses the parallels between media treatment of militias in the wake of the Oklahoma City bombing and the coverage of the al Qaeda terrorist network after the September 11 2001 attacks Solidly grounded in social constructionist theory Searching for a Demon fills a significant gap in the literature on terrorism as well as on the roles of the news media and popular culture in reshaping the public consciousness after dramatic crimes Tracing and Documenting Nazi Victims Past and Present Henning Borggräfe,Christian Höschler,Isabel Panek,2020-06-08 After World War II tracing and documenting Nazi victims emerged against the background of millions of missing persons and early compensation proceedings This was a process in which the Allies international aid organizations and survivors themselves took part New archives documentation centers and tracing bureaus were founded amid the increasing Cold War divide They gathered documents on Nazi persecution and structured them in specialized collections to provide information on individual fates and their grave repercussions the loss of relatives the search for a new home physical or mental injuries existential problems social support and recognition but also continued exclusion or discrimination By doing so institutions involved in this work were inevitably confronted with contentious issues such as varying political mandates neutrality vs solidarity with those formerly persecuted data protection vs public interest and many more Over time tracing bureaus and archives changed methods and policies and even expanded their activities using historical documents for both research and public remembrance This is the first publication to explore this multifaceted history of tracing and documenting past and present Benefits for Survivors of Military Personnel United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Armed Services. Subcommittee on Manpower and Personnel,1978

Searching for Augusta Martin King,2017-09-01 A brutal siege A forgotten heroine A war torn romance And a historian determined to uncover the truth Untold millions who saw and read Band of Brothers can finally know the whole story of what happened to American soldiers and civilians in Bastogne during that arduous Winter of 1944 45 In the television version of Band of Brothers a passing reference is made to an African nurse assisting in an aid station in Bastogne When military historian Martin King watched the episode he had to know who that woman was thus began a multi year odyssey that revealed the horror of a town under siege as well as an improbable love story between a white Army medic Jack Prior and his black nurse Augusta Chiwy as they saved countless lives while under constant bombardment Based on the recent discovery of Prior s diary as well as an exhaustive and occasionally futile search for Augusta herself King was at last able to bring belated recognition of Augusta s incredible story by both the U S Army and Belgian government shortly before she died This is not only a little known story of the Battle of the Bulge but also the author s own relentless mission to locate Augusta and bestow upon her the honors she so richly deserved Department of Transportation and Related Agencies Appropriations for 2000 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Dept. of Transportation and Related Agencies Appropriations,1999 Restorative Justice for Survivors of Sexual Abuse Angela Marinari,2020-11-16 Integral to sexual abuse survivors healing is understanding the nature of their abuse Drawing on interviews this book gives a voice to survivors and illuminates how restorative justice processes can meet their justice needs With a unique focus on the people around the survivor rather than on the abuser it addresses the harm caused to survivors by those who enable their abuse who fail to protect them or fail to believe them Marinari offers radical solutions for the development of restorative justice programs and policy initiatives including practical guidelines for practitioners and new directions for academic research On Scene ,1993 Pastoral Care for Survivors of a Traumatic Death Jeonghyun Park,2017-11-07 Modern life has led to an increase in traumatic deaths such as accidents murders suicide and other types of unanticipated violent death Family members and friends grieving a traumatic death face enormous shock numbness and despair as well as the need to find hope and God s mercy and grace in the midst of chaos difficult questions and confusion The Christian church and faith community often do not provide appropriate pastoral care to help the bereaved overcome their despair Jeonghyun Park explores the unique characteristics and dynamics of traumatic grief or grief in response to traumatic death and present several approaches to pastoral care The survivors of a traumatic death are likely to ask pastors spiritually despairing and tough questions such as Where is God in this tragic death If we have to accept this new reality where can we find God s grace and mercy power and justice Pastors and other spiritual leaders can provide comfort to the loved ones of victims of traumatic death by assisting them with their questions concerning a helpless God and a cruel God This book offers new insights through specific pastoral care models and guidance for families needing healing recovery and meaningful rituals National Search and Rescue Manual: National search and rescue system ,1986
