The Choicemaker Elizabeth Boyden Howes, Sheila Moon, 1977

Seizing the Essence Hamilton Priddy, 2007-12-20 SEIZING THE ESSENCE is about the dynamics of Value that form mans concept of reality Human beings dont just passively experience the things and events that represent this journey through life they construct them intellectually from the sense of value that is intrinsic to all cognizant individuals We dont simply enjoy the finer things in life we aspire to them and when awed by the experience of great beauty or magnificence we want to identify with its source As the created agents of this source we intellectualize its value by experiencing it as differentiated reality Making value aware as representational objects in a relational world affirms the absolute value of our uncreated Essence The author believes that one of the tragedies of our materialistic age is that we have mistaken our differentiated amoral existence for ultimate reality with the result that we have lost much of our value sensibility With the possible exception of artists and musicians the mindset of most people today has been shaped by objectivists who insist that man is totally a product of biological and cultural evolution Although fueled by Darwins Origin of the Species in truth this ideology is the outcome of a 2000 year battle between Aristotelian empiricism and Platonic idealism that scientists claim to have won only in the last century In their zeal to renounce religion and spirituality the objectivists have thrown the baby out with the bathwater Selfness is today regarded as a myth of dubious origin and material reality is believed to be primary to ones awareness of it In SEIZING THE ESSENCE the author makes the case that the mind matter duality of Descartes and Kant has not been overcome by Science that all knowledge is proprietary to the self and that physical reality is an intellectual construct of Value which is the individuals perspective of Essence Since traditional logic is relational by fiat the author bases his cosmology on a principle first postulated by the 15th century logician Nicholas of Cusa which deals with a not other that is the coincidence of all otherness Instead of trying to describe the ineffable Cusas theory affords the philosopher a dialectic handle by which to relate finite experience to the Oneness of Essence This leads logically to a cosmology in which physical existence is a virtual reality created largely by man who is the cognizant agent of his estranged Essence Contrary to previous theories of natures essences there is but one Essence and it is the uncreated source of differentiated experience Starting with the fundamental premise that Essence is absolute and immutable the book unfolds an ontology whereby value can be understood as the essential link between the autonomous self and its uncreated source The central message of this book is that although values drive mankind it is mans free choices that determine the course of history Essentialism is a new and original philosophy that embraces the spirituality of Judeo Christianity and Eastern mysticism yet is grounded in a metaphysical cosmology that is non dogmatic logically plausible and far more vital to contemporary man In addition to chapters describing our real world mentality mans historical search for the stuff of reality a Cosmology of Essence and the autonomous self the author offers A Modernists Guide to Values complete with a strategy for achieving an authentic society Included in the Appendix is an extended glossary of names and special terms that are relevant to the Philosophy of Essence

The Bible in Human Transformation Walter Wink, 2010-01-19 Historical biblical criticism is bankrupt That startling affirmation began The Bible in Human Transformation when it first appeared in 1975 Wink asserts that despite the valuable contributions of the historical critical method we have reached the point where this method is incapable of allowing Scripture to evoke personal and social transformation today More than thirty years later Wink now looks back in a new preface over the more and less humanizing developments in New Testament studies of the last few decades and renews his call for a transforming approach to biblical interpretation The Choice Maker Hamid Rafizadeh, 2018-05-21 We all feel it To fit in is difficult to run away is impossible The only alternative is to manage yet something significant is missing Ancient knowledge has disappeared as if no one will ever find it but the divine intervenes rebooting the current existence into a new and unexpected one The divine voice unravels the ancient curse of ignorance placed on humans by humans stretching back to millennia and beyond a primal evil that threatens everyone's life unless one listens to the divine voice But where is that voice The Choice Maker offers clear ideas about the shocking realities that compel and engage humans to manage force and resources differently in relation to their place in earth's different versions one presently precarious and fleeting and the other arriving with unseen power and ferocity Author Hamid Rafizadeh pinpoints the divine voice in the Sermon on the Mount which is critical to human life survival and well being The Sermon on the Mount is universal knowledge for everyone not religious knowledge for select believers and it can reveal to us a truth about life in both the current blue skied earth and the new canopied earth that is coming soon Are you willing to go on a profound journey The one crucial to every human's life The one recommended by the divine Probably not and history is on the unwilling side yet The Choice Maker insists on showing you the way and the reasons for taking this journey Criminal Law and the Man Problem Ngaire Naffine, 2019-04-04

Men have always dominated the most basic precepts of the criminal legal world its norms its priorities and its character Men have been the regulators and the regulated the main subjects and objects of criminal law and by far the more dangerous sex And yet men as men are still hardly talked about as the determining force within criminal law or in its exegesis This book brings men into sharp focus as the pervasively powerful interest group whose wants and preoccupations have shaped the discipline This constitutes the man problem of criminal law This new analysis probes the unacknowledged thinking of generations of influential legal men which includes the psychological and legal techniques that have obscured the operation of bias even to the legal experts themselves It explains how men's interests have influenced the most cherished legal norms especially the rules of human contact which were designed to protect men from other men while specifically securing lawful sexual access to at least one woman The aim is to test the discipline's broadest commitments to civility and its trajectory towards the final resolution when men and women were declared to be equal and equivalent legal persons In the process it exposes the morally and intellectually limiting consequences of male power The Holy Bible: The Book of Choice Rev
