Modern African Elite Of South Africa:

Modern African Elite of South Africa Lynette Dreyer, 1989-06-18 A profile of the lives of 60 eminent Black Africans who have reached the top of their professions and social hierarchy in South African society despite the political system It argues that White fears of a Black government destroying the economy of South Africa are unfounded The Modern African Elite of South Africa Lynette Dreyer, 1989 The New Black Middle Class in South Africa Roger Southall, 2016 Provides the most comprehensive account since the early 1960s of South Africa's black middle class 2016 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title The rise of the black middle class is one of the most visible aspects of post apartheid society in South Africa Yet while it has been a major actor in the country's democratic reshaping analysis of its role has been all but lacking Rather the image presented by the media has been of black diamonds consumers of the products of advanced industrial economies and of corrupt tenderpreneurs who use their political connections to obtain contracts This book seeks to complicate that picture with a much needed analysis that recounts its historical development in colonial society prior to 1994 before examining the size shape and structure of the new black middle class in contemporary South Africa and its relation to its counterparts in the Global South Roger Southall is Professor Emeritus in Sociology University of the Witwatersrand Southern Africa South Africa Namibia Botswana Lesotho Zimbabwe and Swaziland Jacana The New Elites of Tropical Africa P. C. Lloyd, 2018-09-03 Originally published in 1966 this book brings together papers dealing with the emergence and development of elites in sub Saharan Africa among social categories ranging from farmers and women market traders through foremen and merchants to administrators and managers in government and industry The authors analyse distinctive social characteristics and attitudes and the development of class consciousness The Rise of Africa's Middle Class Henning Melber, 2016-12-15 Across Africa a burgeoning middle class has become the poster child for the Africa rising narrative Ambitious aspirational and increasingly affluent this group is said to embody the values and hopes of the new Africa with international bodies ranging from the United Nations Development Programme to the World Bank regarding them as important agents of both economic development and democratic change This narrative however obscures the complex and often ambiguous role that this group actually plays in African societies Bringing together economists political scientists anthropologists and development experts and spanning a variety of case studies from across the continent this collection provides a much needed corrective to the received wisdom within development circles and provides a fresh perspective on social transformations in contemporary Africa Race, Class and Christianity in South Africa Ibrahim Abraham, 2021-08-01 This book explores the relationship between race and class among middle class Christians in South Africa The book provides a theoretically sophisticated and empirically rich study of middle class Christians in contemporary South Africa as they seek to live good lives and build a good society Focused on the city of Cape Town drawing upon ethnographic research in conservative and progressive multiracial Protestant churches furnished with critical analysis of South African literature and popular culture this timely study explores expressions of ambition and anxiety that are both spiritual and material Building upon debates over middle class identity and morality from sociology anthropology and cultural studies this book analyses congregational attempts at social unity through worship music and creative youth ministry discussions on white privilege and shame and the impact of middle class black activism in South African churches and society This book will be of interest to researchers of South African culture and society religion anthropology and sociology African, American and European Trajectories of Modernity Peter Wagner, 2015-03-09 African American and European Trajectories of Modernity asks why from some moment onwards Europe and the rest of the world entered into a particular relationship one of domination conceived as a kind of superiority and as an advance in historic United States Relations with South Africa Y. G.-M. Lulat, 2008 Relations between the United States and South Africa or the parts of the world these nations now occupy go nearly as far back as the very beginning of their inception as permanent European colonial intrusions This book is a critical overview of these relations from the late seventeenth century to the present Unprecedented in its scope and supported by substantive and detailed notes together with an extensive bibliography chronology glossary and appendices the book distinguishes itself from extant works in a number of other ways Set against the backdrop of a wider interdisciplinary exploration of both ideational and structural issues of historical context it not only gives attention to the importance of contributions from nonofficial actors in shaping official relations but also considers the impact of the geo political location of South Africa within southern Africa where the presence of other nations particularly Angola Mozambique Namibia and Zimbabwe looms large Methodologically written from the perspectives of both traditional narrative history and Khaldunian interpretive historical analysis the book consequently sits at the interdisciplinary interstice of political economy and sociology where the aim is to advance our understanding of the Braudelian interconnectedness of world history as an important diachronic determinant of the diplomacy of foreign relations Written for both scholars and policy analysts this book s examination of the agency of the marginalized should also be of interest to activists and the reading public Change in Contemporary South Africa Leonard Thompson, Jeffrey Butler, 2023-11-15 Change in Contemporary South Africa examines the intricate and often contradictory realities of South Africa during a period of significant political and social tension The book explores the coexistence of apparent governmental stability marked by economic growth a strong coercive apparatus and sustained White political dominance with increasing signs of resistance including labor strikes student unrest and growing international condemnation By presenting a range of interpretations from authoritarian entrenchment to the potential for revolutionary change it delves into the complex dynamics that shape South Africa s trajectory Structured across sections that analyze internal community dynamics instruments of White domination and the country s external relations the book scrutinizes the processes of change within South Africa s unique socio political framework With contributions from scholars spanning diverse disciplines and perspectives it raises critical questions about the future of racial inequality the potential for redistribution of power and wealth and the role of internal and external pressures in shaping outcomes This comprehensive yet nuanced analysis offers a valuable lens for understanding a society on the brink of transformation with implications that resonate far beyond its borders This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1975 Class Formation and Civil Society Patrick M. Boyle, 2018-10-26 First published in 1999 this study of the politics of education in Cameroon the Congo and Kenya presents arresting empirical evidence that urban elites exiting public sector educational systems they have dominated in favour of private school networks of their own creation Seeking to enhance their offspring's chances for survival and even domination in a world of scarce resources and limited opportunities for employment elites see private schools as tools to shape newly emerging civil societies in Africa in their own image From a theoretical perspective the fresh evidence presented here shows that schooling has once again become a major social force influencing the balance of state and society in modern Africa Re-examining an older political tradition of class analysis and integrating it into more recent civil society perspectives the author shows that the abandonment of the unreliable education services of dysfunctional African states in favour of private schools has profound consequences for class articulation in societies dividing once again according to educational opportunities State, 1992

Briefing on Africa United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on Africa, 1960 Reviews foreign aid programs for sub-Saharan Africa Encyclopedia of African Literature Simon Gikandi, 2003-09-02 The most comprehensive reference work on African literature to date this book covers all the key historical and cultural issues in the field The Encyclopedia contains over 600 entries covering criticism and theory African literature's development as a field of scholarship and studies of established and lesser known writers and their texts While the greatest proportion of literary work in Africa has been a product of the twentieth century the Encyclopedia also covers the literature back to the earliest eras of story telling and oral transmission making this a unique and valuable resource for those studying social sciences as well as humanities This work includes cross references suggestions for further reading and a comprehensive index

Contingent Citizens Elizabeth Hull, 2020-05-27 Contingent Citizens examines the ambiguous state of South Africa's public sector workers and the implications for contemporary understandings of citizenship It takes us inside an ethnography of the professional ethic of nurses in a rural hospital in KwaZulu Natal shaped by a deep history of mission medicine and changing forms of new public management Liberal democratic principles of transparency decentralization and rights though promising freedom from control often generate fear and insecurity instead But despite the pressures they face Elizabeth Hull shows that nurses draw on a range of practices from international migration to new religious movements to assert new forms of citizenship Focusing an anthropological lens on professionalism Hull explores the major fault lines of South Africa's fragmented social landscape class gender race and religion to make an important contribution to the study of class formation and citizenship This prize winning monograph will be of interest to scholars of anthropology development studies sociology and global public health

Angola the Failure of Operation Savannah 1975 Miguel Junior,2019-12-09 After 1974 the South African involvement in the war in Angola begins with the triggering of Operation Savannah a large scale military land offensive that began in October 1975 But the military offensive land forces of the South African Defence Forces were faced with the Widespread Popular Resistance and Operation Carlota military action designed to halt the South African offensive impulse Under these conditions the armed conflict in Angola becomes a conventional war because of the dimension of the forces involved and the amount of technical military resources employed by the players Over the course of the war there were offensive moves defensive manoeuvres and all kinds of fire friction resistance incursions combat retreats and marches until the South African Defence Forces were expelled from Angolan territory on March 1976 In general this book analyses Operation Savannah and its developments from a strategic operational and tactical point of view

A History of Africa: African nationalism and the de-colonisation process Assa Okoth,2006 Race, Ethnicity And Nation Peter Ratcliffe,2005-08-17 This text offers an international and comparative analysis of social division rooted in race ethnicity and national identity It provides an overview of the key issues underlying ethnic conflict which has now risen to the top of the international political agenda This book is intended for academics postgraduates and senior undergraduates within sociology race and ethnicity social anthropology as well as those involved in other areas such as politics geography development studies and international relations with an interest in ethnicity

The Franco-Mauritian Elite Tijo Salverda,2015-04-01 Mauritian independence in 1968 marked the end of a regime favorable to the Franco Mauritians the island s white colonial elite Now in postcolonial Mauritius this group is faced with a much more diverse power constellation and often feels in competition with others vying for their privileges Though this is a clear departure from the colonial heydays Franco Mauritians have been able to continue their elite position into the early twenty first century This book focuses on the power of white elites still lingering on in postcolonial realities and with regards to elites and power in general addresses anew how an elite group aims to prolong its position over time

Black and White Elites in Rural Rhodesia A. K. H. Weinrich,1973 Analysis of the research results of an interview survey of race relations and the race attitudes and opinions of Europeans and Africans holding Elite positions in the rural areas of rhodesia Zimbabwe includes an analysis of race and interethnic relations and discusses historical aspects of racial segregation and racial discrimination social stratification the importance of occupation in determining racial attitudes sociological aspects etc Bibliography pp 223 to 236 illustrations maps and statistical tables
