Memories of the Classical Underworld in Irish and Caribbean Literature Madeleine Scherer,2021-09-20 Classical Memories is an intervention into the field of adaptation studies taking the example of classical reception to show that adaptation is a process that can be driven by and produce intertextual memories I see classical memories as a memory driven type of adaptation that draws on and reproduces schematic and otherwise de contextualised conceptions of antiquity and its cultural exports in broadly speaking the twentieth and twenty first centuries These memory driven adaptations differ often in significant ways from more traditional adaptations that seek to either continue or deconstruct a long running tradition that can be traced back to antiquity as well as its canonical points of reception in later ages When investigating such a popular and widespread set of narratives characters and images like those that remain of Graeco Roman antiquity terms like adaptation and reception could and should be nuanced further to allow us to understand the complex interactions between modern works and classical antiquity in more detail particularly when it pertains to postcolonial or post digital classical reception In Classical Memories I propose that understanding certain types of adaptations as intertextual memories allows us to do just that

Poetry, Politics, and the Law in Modern Ireland Adam Hanna, 2022-09-06 Poetry Politics and the Law in Modern Ireland is a richly detailed exploration of how modern Irish poetry has been shaped by and responded to the laws judgments and constitutions of both of the island's jurisdictions Focusing on poets responses in their writing to such contentious legal issues as partition censorship paramilitarism and the curtailment of women's reproductive and other rights this monograph is the first in the growing field of law and literature to focus exclusively on modern Ireland Hanna unpacks the legal engagements of both major and non canonical poets from every decade between the 1920s and the present day including Rhoda Coghill Austin Clarke Paul Durcan Elaine Feeney Miriam Gamble Seamus Heaney Thomas Kinsella Paula Meehan Julie Morrissy Doireann Ní Ghríofa and W B Yeats Poetry from the time of independence onward has been shaped by two opposing forces On the one hand the Irish public has traditionally had strong expectations that poets offer a dissenting counter discourse to official sources of law On the other hand poets have more recently expressed skepticism about the ethics of speaking for others and about the adequacy of art in performing a public role Hanna's fascinating study illuminates the poetry that arises from these antithetical modern conditions Silence and Articulation in the Poetry of Medbh

McGuckian Maureen E. Ruprecht Fadem, 2019-12-03 Silence and Articulation in the Poetry of Medbh McGuckian is an innovative contribution to the scholarship on Belfast poet Medbh McGuckian. This book considers the entire oeuvre of this globally respected Irish woman writer, a member of the contemporary avant garde with now fifteen US published volumes and numerous individual publications. The author positions McGuckian's oeuvre as political and historical poetry and offers a provocative new assessment of its crafted silences. This work argues that it is the muted character of McGuckian's poems, a consequence of a defamiliarized language, the overwhelming sway of the image and a profusion of intertextual quoting that constitutes their agency and force. The silences are read as a response to the precarious positionality of poet and speaker at the site of disaster and the limits of articulation. In line with Rukeyser's notion of the life of poetry, the life of McGuckian's silences is located. Fadem argues in the poems' production as revealed self-reflexively and in their prolonged consumption. This oeuvre operates as a formidable counter-discourse by converting poetry's reception into a much protracted task that redistributes the temporal economy of poem and reader and disrupts the given structures of time, place and the order of things.

A History of Irish Working-Class Writing Michael Pierse, 2018 Michael Pierse is Lecturer in Irish literature at Queen's University Belfast. His research mainly explores the writing and cultural production of Irish working class life. Over recent years this work has expanded into new multidisciplinary themes and international contexts including the study of festivals, digital methodologies in public humanities and theatre as research practices. Michael has contributed to a range of national and international publications, is the author of Writing Ireland's Working Class (Dublin: after O'Casey, 2011) and has been awarded several Arts and Humanities Research Council awards and the Vice-Chancellor's Award at Queen's.

The Literature of Northern Ireland M. Ruprecht Fadem, 2015-01-08 Through close readings of texts by playwright Anne Devlin, poet Medbh McGuckian and novelist Anna Burns, this book examines the ways Irish cultural production has been disturbed by partition. Ruprecht Fadem argues that literary texts address this tension through spectral, bordered metaphors and juxtapositions of the ancient and the contemporary.
