Modern American Poetry Louis Untermeyer, 1950      Modern American Poetry/Modern British Poetry Louis Untermeyer, 1950      Modern American Poetry, 1950      Midcentury Suspension Claire Seiler, 2020-08-11 How did literary artists confront the middle of a century already defined by two global wars and newly faced with a nuclear future Midcentury Suspension argues that a sense of suspension a feeling of being between beginnings and endings recent horrors and opaque horizons shaped transatlantic literary forms and cultural expression in this singular moment Rooted in extensive archival research in literary print and public cultures of the Anglophone North Atlantic Claire Seiler's account of midcentury suspension ranges across key works of the late 1940s and early 1950s by authors such as W H Auden Samuel Beckett Elizabeth Bishop Elizabeth Bowen Ralph Ellison and Frank O'Hara Seiler reveals how these writers cultivated modes of suspension that spoke to the felt texture of life at midcentury Running counter to the tendency to frame midcentury literature in the terms of modernism or of our contemporary Midcentury Suspension reorients twentieth century literary study around the epoch's fraught middle      Modern American Poetry [and] Modern British Poetry Louis Untermeyer, 1950      The Muriel Rukeyser Era Muriel Rukeyser, 2023-11-15 Cowinner of the MLA Prize for Bibliographical or Archival Scholarship The Muriel Rukeyser Era makes available for the first time a range of Muriel Rukeyser's prose a rich and diverse archive of political social and aesthetic writings Eric Keenaghan and Rowena Kennedy Epstein assemble a selection of unpublished and out of print texts demonstrating the diversity brilliance and possibilities of mid twentieth century women's intellectual life and sociopolitical engagement Although primarily known as a poet Rukeyser produced an expansive and influential body of nonfiction and critical writings Reflective of a deeply committed thinker her accessible but philosophically complex prose including essays lectures radio scripts stories and reviews addresses issues related to racial gender and class justice war and war crimes the prison industrial complex Jewish culture and diaspora motherhood literature music cinema and translation Many of the selected texts have been forgotten have fallen out of print or were never previously published because of conservative Cold War political and gender orthodoxies The Muriel Rukeyser Era offers new insight into Rukeyser's radical and strikingly contemporary vision for the role of the writer especially the woman writer This selection reveals the centrality of feminism antifascism and antiracism to her thinking and thus affirms the resonance and urgency of her work today      A People's History of English and American Literature Eugene V. Moran, 2002 With special emphasis on literary merit this book chronicles the literature of the great nations of Britain and America from their earliest origins to the twenty first century      Critical Flicker Fusion William Fried, 2018-03-26 The premise of this book is that films like other works of the imagination may be elucidated by applying methods derived from psychoanalysis and that doing so will result in a deeper and richer appreciation of the film's meaning The book explores a number of feature films that lend themselves particularly well to this process Both in his introduction and throughout the text the author comments on the method and discusses continuities similarities and differences among the films The book is structured according to the central themes of the films including time and death love and lust secrets and human identity Some of the films are relevant to more than one of these thematic elements The introductory essay explores the themes their representation in the films and the ways in which they may be elucidated by a psychoanalytically informed critique Brief paragraphs between the sections of the book facilitate the transitions In an appendix there are three essays titled Mise en scene Whatever Flames Upon the Night and Mad Doctors

The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1956      Flight from Grace Richard Pope,2022-03-30 Human animals are despoiling nature and causing a sixth extinction on Earth Our natural environment is being compromised and birds and other animals are disappearing at an alarming rate Flight from Grace does not so much reveal the extent of the damage as ask and answer the perplexing question why This book traces human reverence for birds from the Stone Age and the New Stone Age through the cultures of Mesopotamia Egypt Peru and Greece and through biblical traditions up to its vestiges in the present Richard Pope takes a hard look at Judaeo Christian and ancient Greek thought to demonstrate how the emergence of anthropocentrism and belittling of nature led to our present day ecological dilemma Striking images of cultural artifacts many little known together with extensive discussion of art music literature and religion illustrate the paradox in our contemporary relationship to the natural world Humanity in moving from its paleolithic origins to modern times has simultaneously distanced itself from and disenchanted nature Suggesting that the replacement of an animistic worldview with a mechanistic one has led humans to deny their animality Flight from Grace calls on readers to appreciate how our past relationship with birds might help transform our current relationship with nature      Twentieth-Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context Linda De Roche,2021-06-04 This four volume reference work surveys American literature from the early 20th century to the present day featuring a diverse range of American works and authors and an expansive selection of primary source materials Bringing useful and engaging material into the classroom this four volume set covers more than a century of American literary history from 1900 to the present Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context profiles authors and their works and provides overviews of literary movements and genres through which readers will understand the historical cultural and political contexts that have shaped American writing Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context provides wide coverage of authors works genres and movements that are emblematic of the diversity of modern America Not only are major literary movements represented such as the Beats but this work also highlights the emergence and development of modern Native American literature African American literature and other representative groups that showcase the diversity of American letters A rich selection of primary documents and background material provides indispensable information for student research      The Robert Frost Encyclopedia Nancy L. Tuten,John Zubizarreta,2000-12-30 Often thought of as the quintessential poet of New England Robert Frost is one of the most widely read American poets of the 20th century He was a master of poetic form and imagery his works seemed to capture the spirit of America and he became so emblematic of his country that he read his work at President Kennedy's inauguration and traveled to Israel, Greece, and the Soviet Union as an emissary of the U.S. State Department. While many readers think of him as the personification of New England, he was born in San Francisco, published his first book of poetry in England, matured as a poet while abroad, taught for several years at the University of Michigan, and spent many of his winters in Florida. This reference helps illuminate the hidden complexities of his life and work. Included in this volume are hundreds of alphabetically arranged entries on Frost's life and writings. Each of his collected poems is treated in a separate entry, and the book additionally includes entries on such topics as his public speeches, various colleges and universities with which he was associated, the honors that he won, his biographers, films about him, poets and others whom he knew, and similar items. Each entry is written by an expert contributor and closes with a brief bibliography. The volume also provides a chronology and concludes with a general bibliography of major studies.

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Contemporary American Poetry Craig Svonkin, Steven Gould Axelrod, 2023-01-12. With chapters written by leading scholars such as Steven Gould Axelrod, Cary Nelson, and Marjorie Perloff, this comprehensive Handbook explores the full range and diversity of poetry and criticism in 21st-century America. The Bloomsbury Handbook of Contemporary American Poetry covers such topics as Major histories and genealogies of post-war poetry from the language poets and the Black Arts Movement to New York School and the Beats; Poetry identity and community from African American, Chicana/o, and Native American poetry to Queer verse and the poetics of disability; Key genres and forms including digital, visual, documentary, and children's poetry; Central critical themes: economics, publishing, popular culture, ecopoetics, translation, and biography. The book also includes an interview section in which major contemporary poets such as Rae Armantrout and Claudia Rankine reflect on the craft and value of poetry today.

Denise Levertov Albert Gelpi, 1993. Illuminating reflections on the achievements of poet Denise Levertov.

Contemporary Poetry Archive Linda Anderson, 2019-05-23. Explores critical and creative responses to the contemporary poetry archive. Provides an innovative new dialogue between critics and creative writers on the value and practice of the literary archive. Expands the scope for understanding perspectives on and the opposition between creative and critical relations to archival materials. Opens up a new cross-disciplinary agenda for thinking the archive as both a source for scholarship and a source of inspiration for creative practice. These 13 newly commissioned chapters examine the impact of archival poetry collections on both literary scholarship and poetic practice. They examine what we can learn from the drafts, notebooks, and personal libraries left behind by poets and look at the ways in which the growth of poetry archives has changed the way poets think about their work. The contributing poets and scholars, including Susan Howe, Sean O'Brien, and George Szirtes, present an in-depth account of the significance of poetry archives for contemporary literature. The collection provides a new cross-disciplinary agenda for thinking about the archive as both a source for scholarship and inspiration for creative practice.

New Selected Poems of Marya Zaturenska Robert

Phillips,2001-12-01 Praised for her lyricism and mastery of meter and rhyme Marya Zaturenska's poetry lit up American literature in the 1900s But with the giddy 1920s Zaturenska's traditional lyric grace and penchant for artifice rendered her pass By her mid thirties Zaturenska had succumbed to emotional and physical illness At the same time her work blossomed and critics acclaimed her for elevating lyric conventions to new plateaus In 1937 she won a Pulitzer Prize for her magical collection Cold Morning Sky She was only thirty six years old at the time Critics pointed out that Zaturenska had assimilated lyric conventions and made them original and new What is so fine about these poems is that the control implicit in them does not lead to sterility or to false emotion wrote the New York Times Book Review She is a mystic but how neatly she refines the word This new edition consists of over one hundred poems and twenty translations drawn from eight previous books Early poetry from her teenage years reveals Zaturenska's budding talent and an introduction by fellow poet and close friend Robert Phillips places this gifted writer firmly in both the historic and lyric tradition The Symbolist Tradition in English Literature

Lothar Hönnighausen,1988-08-26 Lothar Hönnighausen's book examines the literature and the visual arts of English symbolism of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Thematic Guide to Biblical Literature Nancy M.

Tischler,2007-04-30 The Bible has had a tremendous influence on world history and culture but it is largely unfamiliar to many students This book relates the Bible to a wide range of literary works commonly read by students and thus helps students understand these texts as well as the cultural and historical contexts surrounding them Included are chapters on 20 themes such as creation family and friends love and marriage the hero war and death and the afterlife Each chapter discusses the biblical significance of the theme provides scriptural quotations and citations and explores the biblical presence of the theme in literary works often read by students Each chapter cites works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Form, Power, and Person in Robert Creeley's Life and Work Stephen
