Nursing At The End Of Life:

Palliative Nursing Shaun Kinghorn, Sandra Gaines, 2007-11-14 This title is directed primarily towards health care professionals outside of the United States Content has been thoroughly revised and updated in line with changes in practice and policy both locally and internationally particularly the UK NICE guidance on Supportive and palliative care for people with cancer and the Care of the Dying Pathway It reflects the rapid development of palliative nursing as an emerging specialty It helps in the process of defining palliative nursing and how it interfaces with other disciplines within the specialty The text is divided into three sections and comprehensively yet sensitively covers all aspects of palliative nursing Key themes covered include pain control symptom control loss and grief and handling loss A strong emphasis is placed on the integration of theory and practice and evidence based care Reconciliation of the theory and practice is achieved by the use of case studies It addresses malignant and non malignant palliative care Research and extensive literature support each chapter Content has been thoroughly revised and updated in line with changes in practice and policy both locally and internationally particularly the UK NICE guidance on Supportive and palliative care for people with cancer and the Care of the Dying Pathway Three new chapters on Sexuality Care of the Dying Pathway Changing roles of the nurse in palliative care New appendix on North American drug names equivalents for the international market Palliative Care Nursing Marianne Matzo, Deborah Witt Sherman, 2006 Annotation Offering a blend of holistic and humanistic caring coupled with aggressive management of pain and symptoms associated with advanced disease this resource is organized around 15 competencies in palliative care developed by the American Association of Colleges of Nursing with each chapter outlining specific skills needed to achieve each competency Nursing Care at the End of Life Joyce V Zerwekh, 2005-12-28 Nursing Care at the End of Life Palliative Care for Patients and Families explores the deep issues of caring for the dying and suffering The book is based on the Hospice Family Caregiving Model previously published by the author and focuses on the practice implications of care for the dying The book is written in a clear and user friendly style and is ideal for undergraduate nursing students learning about dying suffering and caring for individuals and their families End of Life in Care Homes Jeanne Samson Katz, Sheila M. Peace, 2003-04-03 In our society the overwhelming majority of people die in later life They typically die slowly of chronic diseases with multiple co existing problems over long periods of time They spend the majority of their final years at home but many will die in hospitals or care homes This book explores the possibilities for improving the care of older people dying in residential care and nursing homes It argues that there are aspects of palliative care that given the right circumstances are transferable to dying people in settings that are not domestic or hospice based End of Life in Care Homes describes what happens in nursing and residential care homes when a resident is dying how carers cope and the practical health and emotional challenges that carers face on top of their day to day work Based on detailed research from both the UK and US the book shows how the situation can be improved Nursing Care at the End of Life Ginny Wacker Guido, 2010

Nursing Care at the End of Life by Ginny Wacker Guido incorporates many of the chapter features in High Acuity Nursing 5th ed by Kathleen Dorman Wagner Using this format the author presents material ranging from the legal and ethical aspects that affect care to the clinical issues nurses face when dealing with acute illness pain and dying to communication and family dynamics Case studies give readers an opportunity to process and apply the chapter material The role of the nurse is highlighted throughout the book and each chapter is followed by NCLEX style review questions This is a perfect reference for anyone studying to become a nurse or a nurse needed a professional resource for career success

Palliative Care Nursing Marianne Matzo, Marianne L. Matzo, Deborah Witt Sherman, 2018-06-28 This 5th edition is an important achievement it is a symbol of commitment to the field of palliative nursing where we have been and where we are going Betty Rolling Ferrell PhD MA FAAN FPCN CHPN From the Foreword The aging population has only grown since the first edition of this comprehensive and seminal publication nearly 20 years ago Based on the need to humanize rather than medicalize the illness experience for patients this text delves into palliative care beyond the specific diseases affecting the patient Instead content focuses on the whole person and family Palliative patients struggle with chronic debilitating and painful conditions and grapple with the fact that life as they knew it has already passed away Families and friends reciprocally suffer not knowing how to help and therefore become the secondary victims of the disease This is not the challenge of a lone nurse or a single physician therapist or social worker Rather palliative and hospice care requires the expertise and unique roles of an interprofessional team to help the patient and family strengthen their resilience continue to find meaning and purpose in life and cure what can be cured Palliative Care Nursing Fifth Edition delivers advanced empirical aesthetic ethical and personal knowledge This new edition brings an increased focus on outcomes benchmarking progress and goals of care It expounds upon the importance of the cross disciplinary collaboration introduced in the previous edition Every chapter in Sections I II and III includes content written by a non nursing member of the interprofessional team Based on best evidence and clinical practice guidelines this text presents comprehensive targeted interventions responsive to the needs of palliative and hospice patients and family Each chapter contains compassionate timely appropriate and cost effective care for diverse populations across the illness trajectory Key Features The expanded new edition offers current comprehensive one stop source of highly relevant clinical information on palliative care Life span approach age appropriate nursing considerations e g geriatric pediatric and family Includes disease specific and symptom specific nursing management chapters Promotes a holistic and interdisciplinary approach to palliative care Offers important legal ethical and cultural considerations related to death and dying Case Studies with Case Study Conclusion in each clinical chapter New to The Fifth Edition An expanded chapter on Palliative Care incorporates most up to date scope and standards information on Basic and Advanced HPNA certification self reflection and self care for nurses A chapter on Interprofessional Collaboration Instructor Resources Power points and Test bank

Sheehan,Mertie L. Potter,Mary K. Kazanowski,2022-02-08 Preceded by Palliative care nursing Kathleen Quimet Perrin et al c2012 End-of-Life Nursing Care Annie Pettifer,Joanna de Souza,2012-12-18 Students and newly qualified staff make up much of the workforce delivering end of life care but because end of life care can be both technically challenging and emotionally demanding it is an aspect of nursing that can cause considerable anxiety This very accessible straightforward book helps to allay those concerns and enables pre registration students to prepare confidently for the challenges they will face when they are caring for dying patients and supporting their families Each chapter is based on a different and realistic scenario reflecting a range of circumstances to demonstrate the essential generic knowledge and skills they need to develop and draws out the important practical and theoretical issues students should consider and address if patients and their families are to receive the best possible care Written by two experienced palliative care lecturer practitioners and mapping closely to the NMC s 2010 domains the book is tailored to the needs of student nurses working with adult patients It explores the importance of their role in end of life care and how this interfaces with the roles of other multidisciplinary professionals involved in the care of their patients It will also be helpful to students of other health care professions and support newly qualified health care professionals working in adult health Palliative and End of Life Care in Nursing Jane Nicol,Brian Nyatanga,2017-06-05 With the number of people requiring palliative and end of life care steadily increasing it is the responsibility of every nurse regardless of specialism to know how to provide high quality care to this group of people Yet caring for those nearing the end of life can throw up complex issues including handling bereavement cultural and ethical issues delivering care in a wide variety of settings symptom management and also ensuring your own emotional resilience This book is specifically designed to equip nursing students and non specialists with the essential knowledge in relation to the care and management of people nearing the end of life Compassionate Person-Centered Care for the Dying Bonnie Freeman,2015-02-23 A milestone resource for palliative care nurses that facilitates evidence based compassionate and humanistic care of the dying A valuable contribution to the evolving field of palliative nursing care It is authored by a model for this field Bonnie Freeman and brings to the bedside what her practice embodies evidence based clinically expert care The CARES tool is a long needed resource and we are all grateful to the author for moving her passion to paper It will touch the lives and deaths of patients families and the nurses who care for them Betty Ferrell PhD RN MA FAAN FCPN CHPN Professor and Director Division of Nursing Research and Education City of Hope National Medical Center From the Foreword This groundbreaking reference for palliative care nurses is the first to provide realistic and achievable evidence based methods for incorporating compassionate and humanistic care of the dying into current standards of practice It builds on the author s research based CARES tool a reference that synthesizes five key elements demonstrated to enable a peaceful death as free from suffering as possible comfort airway management management of restlessness and delirium emotional and spiritual support and selfcare for nurses The book describes step by step how nurses can easily implement the basic tenets of the CARES tool into their end of life practice It provides a clearly defined plan that can be individualized for each patient and tailored to specific family needs and facilitates caring for the dying in the most respectful and humane way possible The book identifies the most common symptom management needs in dying patients and describes in detail the five components of the CARES paradigm and how to implement them to enable a peaceful death and minimize suffering It includes palliative care prompts founded on 29 evidence based recommendations and the National Consensus Project for Palliative Care Clinical Practice Guidelines The resource also addresses the importance of the nurse to act as a patient advocate how to achieve compassionate communication with the patient and family and barriers and challenges to compassionate care Case studies emphasize the importance of compassionate nursing care of the dying and how it can be effectively achieved Key Features Provides nurses with a clear understanding of the most common needs of the dying and supplies practical applications to facilitate and improve care Clarifies the current and often complex literature on care of the dying Includes case studies illustrating the most common needs of dying patients and how these are addressed effectively by the CARES tool Based on extensive evidence as well as on the National Consensus Project for Palliative Care Clinical Practice Guidelines Choosing End of Life Nursing Susan Bardy, 2016-05-22 Death is inevitable none of us will escape it Ending life with a terminal illness is a slow and rather lonely process I am interested in the question of why some nurses choose to work in the field of palliative care I am one who willingly stepped into the role of being with patients at their most vulnerable time when death became inevitable My nursing history has spanned fifty years of which the last twenty were in palliative care of terminally ill and dying patients What was it that influenced me to move from a curing model to comfort caring only My work is an account of how I discovered palliative care nursing after thirty years in the acute care setting I migrated to Australia at the age of seventeen after the violence of World War II and the death of my father in a refugee camp It seemed that taking on nursing was the best way to settle into a new life I was happy with general nursing but had a feeling that there was more I could contribute to my patient care My mother s unexpected death with cancer was responsible for showing the way She died in the hospice unit of the hospital where I was employed Sitting by her side showed me another aspect of nursing that attracted me to a career change I transferred to the Hospice after mother died and remained there for twenty years Naturally I wondered why this change of direction happened Susan Bardy Advanced Practice Palliative Nursing Constance Dahlin,Patrick J.
