Open Spaces August Heckscher, Phyllis C. Robinson, 1977 Open spaces; the life of American cities A. Heckscher, 1977 Urban Open Spaces Helen Woolley, 2003-09-02 Brings together extensive research and practical experience to prove the opportunities and benefits of open spaces to society and individuals Open Spaces August Heckscher, 1977 Cities and the Circulation of Culture in the Atlantic World Leonard von Morzé, 2017-06-29 This book provides a much needed comparative approach to the history of cities by investigating the dissemination of cultural forms between cities of the Atlantic world The contributors attend to the various forms and norms of cultural representation in Atlantic history examining a wealth of diverse topics such as the Portuguese Atlantic the Spanish Empire Guy Fawkes and the conspiratorial rhetoric of slaves Albert Charles Wulffleff and the Parc Mus e of Dakar and the writings of Jane Austen Alexis de Tocqueville Benjamin Franklin and others By interpreting Atlantic urban history through sustained attention to customs and representational forms an international group of nine contributors demonstrate the power of culture in the making of Atlantic urban experience even as they acknowledge the harsh realities of economic history Housing and Planning References, 1977 System of Open Spaces Raquel Tardin, 2012-08-11 In the current panorama of urban growth and planning in many urban territories of western societies open spaces are residual spaces of urban occupation or are reserved for eventual occupation Open spaces have been viewed in this manner in the earlier stages of the compact city and especially now in a time of the dispersed territories characterized by discontinuity heterogeneity and fragmentation The disciplinary perspectives of ecology geology landscape architecture and urbanism but also public opinion have for some time promoted the conservation and protection of the most valuable natural spaces and efforts have been made to remove such spaces from the real estate market However such positions usually radical are insufficient for territorial equilibrium and inevitably lead to the progressive disappearance of valuable natural spaces Proceedings, Fourth Annual Pedestrian Conference, 1984 Pedestrian safety and design issues were the subjects jointly discussed at the Fourth Annual Pedestrian Conference held in Boulder Colorado September 20 23 1983 The conference was divided into two 2 day meetings The conference had two basic objectives to disseminate tested engineering education and enforcement techniques to reduce the incidence of pedestrian accidents and to present a variety of approaches utilized in the United States Canada and Europe to create visually attractive functional and highly used urban pedestrian spaces These proceedings present the findings workshop presentations case studies design techniques and overall summaries of the meetings Park Practice Index, 1975 Great City Parks Alan Tate, 2013-05-13 Great City Parks is a celebration of some of the finest achievements of landscape architecture in the public realm It is a comparative study of twenty significant public parks in fourteen major cities across Western Europe and North America Collectively they give a clear picture of why parks have been created how they have been designed how they are managed and what plans are being made for them at the beginning of the twenty first century Based on unique research including extensive site visits and interviews with the managing organisations this book is illustrated throughout with clear plans and professional photographs for each park This book reflects a belief that well planned well designed and well managed parks remain invaluable components of liveable and hospitable cities Housing and Planning References United States. Department of Housing and Urban Development. Library,1977 Philosophy and Geography II Andrew Light,Jonathan M. Smith,1998 The future of public space is uncertain Although public spaces have become increasingly shabby and crowded novel alternatives have appeared in the form of fantastic semi public pleasure grounds developed by well heeled crowd pleasing entrepreneurs and devoted to profit consumption and self indulgence Philosophers and geographers have converged on the topic of public space fascinated and in many ways alarmed by fundamental changes in the way post industrial societies produce space for public use and in the way citizens of these same societies perceive and constitute themselves as a public The contributors to this volume advance this inquiry making extensive use of political and social theory Philosophy and Geography II The Production of Public Space gives readers an enhanced appreciation of the intimate connections between political principles social processes and the commonplaces of our everyday environments

Revitalization Carl Grodach,Renia Ehrenfeucht,2015-12-22 Following decades of neglect and decline many US cities have undergone a dramatic renaissance From New York to Nashville and Pittsburgh to Portland governments have implemented innovative redevelopment strategies to adapt to a globally integrated post industrial economy and cope with declining industries tax bases and populations However despite the prominence of new amenities in revitalized neighborhoods spectacular architectural icons and pedestrian friendly entertainment districts the urban comeback has been highly uneven Even thriving cities are defined by a bifurcated population of creative class professionals and a low wage low skilled workforce Many are home to diverse and thriving immigrant communities but also contain economically and socially segregated neighborhoods They have transformed high profile central city brownfields but many disadvantaged neighborhoods continue to grapple with abandoned and environmentally contaminated sites As urban cores boom inner ring suburban areas increasingly face mounting problems while other shrinking cities continue to wrestle with long term decline The Great Recession brought additional challenges to planning and development professionals and community organizations alike as they work to maintain successes and respond to new problems It is crucial that students of urban revitalization recognize these challenges their impacts on different populations and the implications for crafting effective and equitable revitalization policy Urban Revitalization Remaking Cities in a Changing World will be a guide in this learning process This textbook will be the first to comprehensively and critically synthesize the successful approaches and pressing challenges involved in urban revitalization The book is divided into five sections In the introductory section we set the stage by providing a conceptual framework to understand urban revitalization that links a political economy perspective with an appreciation of socio cultural factors in explaining urban change Stemming from this we will explain the significance of revitalization and present a summary of the key debates issues and conflicts surrounding revitalization efforts Section II will examine the historical causes for decline in central city and inner ring suburban areas and shrinking cities and building from the conceptual framework discuss theory useful to explain the factors that shape contemporary revitalization initiatives and outcomes Section III will introduce students to the analytical techniques and key data sources for urban revitalization planning Section IV will provide an in depth critical discussion of contemporary urban revitalization policies strategies and projects This section will offer a rich set of case studies that contextualize key themes and strategic areas across a range of contexts including the urban core central city neighborhoods suburban areas and shrinking cities Lastly Section V concludes by reflecting on the current state of urban revitalization planning and the emerging challenges the field must face in the future Urban Revitalization will integrate academic and policy research with professional knowledge and techniques Its key strength will be the combination of a critical examination of best practices and innovative approaches with an overview of the methods used to understand local situations and urban revitalization processes A unique feature will be chapter specific case studies of contemporary urban revitalization projects and questions geared toward generating classroom discussion around key issues The book will be written in an accessible style and thoughtfully organized to provide graduate and upper level undergraduate students with a comprehensive resource that will also serve as a reference guide for professionals
